MR. LAWREN, Attorney-at-Law, Notary-Public, &c., has REMOVED his Office to Deslaurier's Buildings, Queen Street, Deslaurier Street, near that of Thomas Pethick.

I do now give Notice of the Commissioners of Small Debt Office, (opposite)

PRESENTED TO HIS EXCELLENCY SIR ALEXANDER BANNERMAN, AND HIS REPLIES THERETO, DURING HIS RECENT TOUR TO PRINCE COUNTY.

[Address from the Inhabitants of Lots 13 & 14.]
To His Excellency Sir Alexander Bannerman, Knight, Lieutenant Governor and Commander-in-Chief, &c., &c.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR EXCELLENCE:

We the Clergy, Magistrates and other Inhabitants of Townships Nos. 13 & 14, do leave respectfully to Your Excellency a hearty welcome, on the occasion of your late visit to this section of our Government.

The Representative of the Sovereign has an undoubted claim upon our attention and respect: We, therefore, esteem it both a duty and pleasure, now to avail upon your Excellency, that we are aware of our unwavering attachment to the person and rule of your Government.

By travelling through the country, your Excellency will be afforded a practical opportunity of becoming more intimately acquainted with its capabilities and wants. The land in which we dwell, is to many of us an adopted land; in it we have taken up our abode; in it we are born, "perchance, live and die." The welfare of ourselves, and of our posterity, is bound up with the prosperity, and we, therefore, hail with gratification the appointment of a Gentleman of whose experience in the science of political Government we have often heard—an unmistakable indication of our Sovereign's desire to promote the happiness and advance the interests of this small but beautiful portion of her Majesty's dominions.

We trust it is your Excellency's desire to rule for the benefit of all the people, and to improve the condition of every class, who, we trust, will be wanting, on our part, to render your administration what it should be. We have heard with satisfaction, of your Excellency's desire to see increasingly developed the resources of our country—especially its Agriculture and the Fisheries, two branches of industry of the utmost consequence to the welfare of the whole colony.

Since your Excellency's arrival in this Colony, an important change has occurred in our governmental system. On an occasion such as this, when all should be unanimous, we refrain from expressing an opinion with advantage, as the advantages expected to result from its introduction. This much, however, let us say: we trust the arrangement to be found to prove beneficial in its working, and we heartily rejoice in the appointment of a Gentleman Almighty God, the welfare of the people over whom your Excellency has been appointed to preside; and at your residence, signified us, that Lady Bannerman, may alike conduce to your happiness and our advantage, whilst you shall continue to be the Lieutenant Governor of P. E. Island.

(Signed on behalf of the Committee.) W. H. COOPER.

Port Hill, 8th July, 1851.

[REPLY.]

To the Clergy, Magistrates and other Inhabitants of Township Nos. 13 & 14, P. E. Island:

GENTLEMEN:

The attachment which you express to the British Constitution, and your loyalty and devotion to your Sovereign, are most gratifying to us. We have, however, a desire to inform you, that other inhabitants of Prince Edward Island, in the choice of Government which you recently desired, the concession of which, I am happy to observe, you consider a boon, and hope it may prove beneficial to the Colony. Lady Bannerman has been delighted with your tour, and though all her early recollections are associated with the schoolroom in which she was educated and brought up, she cannot fail to have a strong interest in the Island of her birth, and has experienced much kindness.

To His Excellency Sir Alexander Bannerman, Knight, Lieutenant Governor, &c., &c.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR EXCELLENCE:

We, the inhabitants of Lots 1, 2 and 3, beg leave to welcome your Excellency, and your amiable Lady, to this remote part of the Island.

We trust that your arrival will be a source of great pleasure to us, inasmuch as that through your Excellency the glorious boon of civil liberty has been granted to this neglected and hitherto misrepresent- ed colony.

The publication of the Despatch, No. 3, from Earl Grey to your Excellency, the Land question, has greatly increased our confidence in his ability to govern this Colony. We are anxious that your arrival may bring with it a general improvement in the condition of this island with importance, which is most gratifying to us, and whatever impediments your Excellency may meet, in the discharge of your onerous and honourable duties, we are confident that your Excellency will meet with none which will render it necessary to turn to Sir John Grey for aid to enforce obedience to the law.

No doubt your Excellency has already perceived that this Colony is susceptible of great and rapid improvement, and we are anxious in the belief, that your administration will be productive of measures that will soon tend to develop its natural resources, and dispense the gloom that has so long overshadowed its energies.

Believing, as we do, that the blessing of God will never attend a Sabbath desecrating Government, we rejoice to perceive that the Bishop of Fredericton has consented to let the Mass be said in the Chapel of the Lord's Day; and we sincerely hope that a kind and merciful Providence, in his almighty dispensation, may grant your Excellency and our estimable Lady, health and strength, and enable you to visit our settlement again, and again, during your administration of the Government intrusted to you by our most gracious Queen.

(Signed in the name and on behalf of the inhabitants.) JAMES FITZGIBBON.

July 11th, 1851.

[REPLY.]

To the Inhabitants of the North Cape and its vicinity, Lots Nos. 1, 2 and 3.

GENTLEMEN:

Having reached nearly one extremity of the colony, the Government of which I have the honor to present to administer, I am rejoiced to find, that loyalty and attachment to Her Majesty's person and throne prevail as much in this, as in the more favored parts of Her dominions. It is Her Majesty's desire, I assure you, that where Providence has cast her lot, her subjects shall enjoy that civil and religious liberty, which is highly prized in England. And whatever impediment your Excellency may meet, in the discharge of your onerous and honourable duties, we are confident that your Excellency will meet with none which will render it necessary to turn to Sir John Grey for aid to enforce obedience to the law.

It is to be hoped, that your Excellency will be successful in your efforts to improve the condition of this Colony, and that your administration will be productive of great benefit to the Colony, and to the inhabitants of the North Cape and its vicinity.

In the belief that your Excellency will be successful in his efforts to improve the condition of this Colony, and to the inhabitants of the North Cape and its vicinity, I am gratified to find,

I anticipate no impediment in the discharge of my duties as Lieutenant Governor of this Colony. I sincerely trust it may increase in prosperity, and with God's blessing, that peace and contentment may prevail among its inhabitants.

(Signed on behalf of the inhabitants of Lot 11.)

To His Excellency Sir Alexander Bannerman, Knight, Lieutenant Governor, &c., &c.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR EXCELLENCE:

We, the loyal inhabitants of Lot 11, have submitted to welcome your Excellency to this part of the Island.

Former Governors have visited Lot 11, but we assure you, on no occasion have we felt greater gratification than on the present one.

We believe much good will be effected by your Excellency's becoming acquainted with the people of the Island, and the resources which it undoubtedly possesses.
