Make up a batch of Bread and Rolls with it. Then bake a Pie

Notice the fine, even texture—the absence of holes—the delicate, nutlike flavor, of the Bread.

Then consider the lightness and flakiness of the Pastry. You'll never go back to the coarse, almost tasteless western wheat flours, after once enjoying the flavor of the good things made with Beaver Flour. Order a sack today.

Presbytery's Committee to nomin ate committees—Revs. G. P. Tattrie H. Miller and J. F. McCurdy.

The Committee on co-operation with Methodists and Congregationalists reported cordial relations.

Rev. Mr. Rattle read a very carefully prepared peport re the week of Sundry Schools and Y. P. Societies within the bounds. The report recommended: that all sessions be urged mended: that all sessions de urged to establish Sunday Schools where-ever possible and give time to their oversight, that sessions be requested to give attention to, and urge the use the use of the bible, both by teachers and classes; and that every school be asked to make a monthly offering for missions and that this word be used preferably to "Budget" in S. S. blanks.

The report showed 101 schools in operation, 4 schools reported over 50 uniting with the church, while 91 on-ly reported 30. The report showed up certain conditions which our people ought to know, and it was ordered published.
The Presbytery's attention was called to the increasingly lax ob-servance of the Sabbath, and the following resolution was adopted: "The Presbytery of the Miramichi views with alarm the extent to which the sanctity of the Lord's Day done excellent work in that charge. It was therefore with great regret that Presbytery acquiesced in Mr. Rettie's decision and agreed to the severance of the pastoral the after June 30th. Sympathy was expressed with the Congregation in the loss of their minister. Rev. L. H. MacLean of Nowcastle was appointed interim destroys its power to develope that Christian life and atmosphere which are absolutely necessary to welfare of this great land, which God has given us. The Presbytery would has given us. The Presbytery would therefore seriously plead with all our people to obstain from both Sabbath labours and Sabbath pleasur ing and use their influence wherever they can that others may keep the Sabbath as a day of rest and sacred worship sacred to the Lord."

The question of stipend was considered and committees appointed to which have not come up to the menimum.

The committee on Systematic Giving recommended an every-mem ber Canvas for both local and mis sion support, urging all congrega-tions to realize the full amount of their allocation that there may be no

REV. DR. COUSINS STILL ACTIVE. Rev. H. T. Cousins, Ph. D., has entered upon his fifth year with the Anacostia Baptis: church, Washington, D. C. The fourth anniversary was suitably observed on Tuesday, June 4th. We notice from the programme that Dr. Cousins has introduced there the custom which proved so successful in his work at Newcastle, N. B. For two hours on the afternoon of anniversary day he and the deacons sat in the vestry to receive the free-will offerings of the congregation. More than five hundred dollars were thus contributed. In every way Dr. Cousins' work is being richly blessed, so much so that calls to other churches have been was suitably observed on Tuesday, calls to other churches have been declined with the conviction that the Master still has work for him in conection with the Anacostia church. Loggieville, June 24th—The cold wave which has swept the various sections of the province, has also been keenly felt here. During the past week, many of the citizens had their gardens badly damaged by the frost. Reports state that many of frost. Reports state that many of the garden owners in town will he obliged to do much replanting. Beans, cucumbers, pumpkins and tomatoes were, in some places, heavily hit, and even potatoes were struck by the cold wave. The weather still con-tinues coldi, and it seems hard to believe that the summer season is
