

OUR ANNIVERSARY.
The Herald this week enters upon the fifth year of its history, and in looking back over the past, it feels that it can congratulate itself on the position it has taken in the newspaper world. We have aimed to give the public a clean, respectable and newsy paper, and without boasting, we think we can claim to have fulfilled the mission. We are thankful to the public for the splendid support we have received from the first, and the only promise we have to make is that in the future we shall endeavor to meet in all respects the demands of our patrons.

A VERY SAD EVENT.
Every reader of THE HERALD will be distressed in reading the sad news of the death of Mr. Boyd's very sudden death. The event was so unexpected, there was no warning that anything of the kind was likely to occur. His Honor since his appointment Sep. 21st, had been unusually active, and apparently enjoyed the best of health. But God in his providence has seen fit to strike down almost in a moment, the popular governor of this province, and the whole people mourn. Only such a sad occurrence could have called out the unusual expression of esteem for the departed as has been manifested during the past week. It is not so much the governor, as the man to whom the highest tributes of respect have been shown. Governor Boyd came to St. John a poor boy. By industry, intelligence and honesty, he climbed step by step until the most elevated position in the province was his, but in the ascent he trampled nobody down. His long and honorable business career in St. John, made him a marked and popular man, and nobody begrudged him his public honors. Although only a few weeks in the government, he had done very much in that position to endear him to the people. He was ready for every call. He knew no class above another, and he was the genial Mr. Boyd, and it is safe to say that had he been spared his full term, he would have been known personally and beloved in every corner of the province. The expression of regret at his untimely death, has been wonderful to observe, and his funeral Thursday was probably the largest function of the kind ever witnessed in New Brunswick. While sincerely regretting the fate that has deprived this province of a beloved leader, THE HERALD joins with the general expression of sympathy to Mrs. Boyd in the great trial which she has been called upon to endure. May the great and gracious Husband of the widow sustain her in the hour of her distress.

AROUND THE WORLD.
The News of the World in Brief—The Cream of Our Exchanges.
Prof. Tyndall the noted scientist is dead. John Dunlop of Chicago, shot and killed his wife Thursday, and then committed suicide.
The Queen's house of assembly defeated a resolution to reduce the member's pay from $2,000 to $1,500.
Hon. I. Lafontaine, who was minister of justice in the McKenzie government in 1878, died at Montreal Thursday.
At Ottawa, on Thursday, Sir James Grant, a government supporter, was elected to the house of commons by acclamation.
One hundred and eight men, employed in the C. P. R. shops at Montreal, were discharged on Wednesday after work from them.
Mrs. William McLeod, of McGregor, Manitoba, was the other day fatally injured by the discharge of a rifle in the hands of her young son.
Robert Cowan, a farmer living near Ottawa, was found dead in his field Sunday morning with a bullet through his breast. He is supposed to have been murdered.
At Havanna, Ohio, a tramp entered the home of D. J. Sherman and assaulted Miss Sherman who was alone. Her mother came in before the assailant could act, and killed him with a stiletto.
Charles Johnson, a negro preacher, who was hanged at Mobile, Ala. this week, preached his own funeral sermon and lined a hymn while standing on the scaffold. He had killed another preacher.
A building at Presque Isle was completely destroyed by fire on Tuesday night. There were about 2,000 barrels of potatoes and several thousand machines stored in the building, all of which were destroyed.
Two by-elections for vacancies in the Ontario legislature took place Saturday and in both constituencies the government candidate was defeated, the Patrons of Industry in North Brno and Protestant Protective Association in east Lambton winning the seats.
On Tuesday evening "Tom" Farrell, an old-time whiskey trader, surrendered himself to the police at Lethbridge, Nev., stating that he had killed Dave Akers of Fort Whoop, U. S. his friend forty years, as the result of an old score between them regarding a cattle deal.
A declaration of marriage in Siam is simpler even than it used to be in Scotland. You ask a lady to marry you by simply offering her a flower or taking a light from a cigarette if it happens to be in her mouth, and your family and the bride's family have to put up at least $1,000 apiece for a dowry.
The steamer "City of Lincoln," 2,104 tons, due at St. John on Dec. 12, has been fitted by a Montreal broker to load grain and hay at St. John for England. This is the first attempt to utilize St. John as a winter port for shipment of these articles from the upper provinces, and if successful, the Canadian Pacific Railway expect to use their grain elevator pretty freely this winter.
La Grippe is rapidly spreading in Montreal and doctors are having their hands full attending to the patients. The weather of the past few days has resulted in a great increase in sickness. A number of prominent professional and business men are down with the grippe. Scarlet fever is also very prevalent and the number of deaths among children is greatly above the average.
St. John society is said to be much excited over Miss Mollison's play, which was given to a crowded house on Friday and Saturday. Some of the references to a prominent St. John family, the head of which recently returned to New York, are regarded by friends of the household as perfectly brutal. Members of the Opera house company are busy explaining that they did not know how personal the play was until it was presented.

COUNTRY NEWS.
An Excellent Budget for our Active Correspondents.

What Has Transpired in York, Sunbury, Queens and Carleton.
BUDGET FROM YORK.
Southampton.
Dec. 2.—John Brooks has made very marked improvements on his farm at Upper Southampton, by a wholesale slaughter of bushes, and by draining and plowing. First class example for the majority of our farmers to follow.
Since returning from the Victoria hospital, Frederickton, Ephraim Cronk has lain, and is still lying, in a very critical condition. His trouble has turned into Bright's disease, and he is badly swollen. Some few days ago he showed a decided improvement, but of late it is not so well again.
While on his way to Woodstock and passing through Upper Southampton a few weeks ago, John Oldham met with quite an unusual mishap. Catching up to another team, his horse, which was feeling well, went to play, and in doing so threw his off hind leg over the shaft. This threw the animal on its side in the mud and broke the shaft. To some down than he was on his feet again (after binding up the shaft) the journey was continued.
On Sunday, the 5th ult., the new and substantially finished church of the reformed Baptists of Green Bush was dedicated by an excellent sermon from Rev. Mr. Coy. In the afternoon Rev. Mr. Hartley preached, and in the evening Rev. Mr. Colpitts. Forty dollars of a collection was taken in the morning followed by very large collections at the other services. Rev's Gravenor and Grant were also present and assisted. The building is a credit to the community. The inside finish is in oak and cherry; ornate ceiling painted sky-blue with here and there a star. The wood-work and painting is of Canterbury, formerly of your city.
Cabbages weighing 15, 16, 17 and 18 lbs. 6 oz., were raised this year by L. W. Miller of this place. Mr. M. has a large scope of "goodly acres" under cultivation.
On his return from a business trip to St. John, G. W. Brown visited, by invitation, Walter McFarlane's home and peevie factory at St. Marys. After listening to the owner tell of the different places in the United States he supplied with these articles, Mr. B. has returned home a more ardent free trader than ever.
A. E. Scriver has secured the school at Carleton place for the coming term. Mr. S. holds a first-class license, and is one of the many good teachers of our place.
Arlington Wright, our corner vulcan, lost a fine cow one day last week. The "manifold" of this stomach had become completely clogged.
When the Carleton Sentinel and St. Andrews Beacon were in controversy over big turkeys, your correspondent felt jubilant when he learned that Woodford Wright of Upper Southampton, raised one that weighed 25 lbs. 6 oz., and that six of his largest turkeys filled a barrel—the top one showing legs about three inches. But, of course, since they have come forward with turkeys weighing as high as 27 lbs.; we are "not in it." Nevertheless, Mr. W.'s are very fine—probably as fine as ever raised here.

Brookway.
Dec. 4.—Miss Jessie Young and Hannah Cloney have gone to St. Stephen to spend the winter.
Sallie Vail and Leonard Harrison took their departure for New Hampshire last week.
Chas Vail started for the home to-day to take charge of a team for his brother, Robt Vail.
Beans seem to be getting quite tame, as one passed close by the school house on Flame Ridge last week.
While driving through the blueberry plains last week, W. Davis observed a large buck, with beautiful antlers, within easy rifle shot, but unluckily for him his rifle was at home.
Allendale.
Nov. 28.—We regret to have to announce after a short illness, the death of Jeremiah Connolly, sr. of this place which occurred on the 13th ult., at the age of 73 years. Mr. Connolly left Castleton, New Hampshire, Ireland, and landed in St. John about forty-six years ago, and after working in different parts of the province, he, with others settled in Allendale where he made with hard work a fine farm, his son, Jeremiah Connolly, jr., now occupies. He leaves three daughters and one son to mourn the loss of a kind father. He died at the residence of his daughter, Mrs T S Madden, of Avondale. Squire Connolly is the only brother he had in this country.
Upper Magalloway.
Dec 6.—Mrs McCutcheon was in St. John last week for a new supply of goods.
Miss Hannah Barker has returned home from a visit with her sister.
Several of our men have gone to the states to work.
Rev Mr Ross is present at Mr. Wilson's sick. He came in on Saturday for the purpose of holding service on Sunday; but he was not able, and Dr Mott was summoned, and hopes are now entertained that he will soon recover.

Harvey Station.
Dec. 7.—About a foot of snow fell on Sunday, accompanied by a severe frost; over a foot of snow fell on Tuesday, making two feet in all. The hail that fell on Sunday has formed a heavy crust through which it is very difficult to break roads.
J. H. Grive shot a fine deer on the lake shore, near his residence, yesterday afternoon. Quite a number of them have been seen in the vicinity lately.
Harvey council, R. T. of T., continues to prosper. The membership is now about seventy-five. At the last meeting the following officers were elected for the ensuing term: S C Robinson, V C; Maggie Robinson, P O; J W Taylor, clergy; Maud Hunter, R S; S A Robinson, F S; W G Chamberlain, treasurer; J Craig, H; Anna B Craig, G; Albert Robinson, sent; Robert Herbert, trustee; Wm Robinson.
Fenniss.
Dec 6.—It seems that winter has come to stay. We now have an abundant supply of snow, which, with the crust that formed Sunday night, has almost caused a blockade. Eben Johnson is laid up with erysipelas in his face. He is in a sad condition and suffers extremely at times, but we hope he may soon recover.
William McDonald is confined to his house with ulcers which broke out over his body, and which cause great misery. He has tried every kind of medicine that has been recommended to him, but as yet has found no relief.
Miss Minnie Manzer came home the other day from Lake George, where she has been making a long visit among her friends. We are glad to have her back again.

Wasserville.
Nov 30.—W Wallace met with a painful accident a few days ago; his horse running away, throwing him from the wagon, breaking his left leg and bruising his ankle very badly. Mr Wallace was taken to his home, and Dr McCallally set the broken bone. He is doing as well as can be expected. One of the horses was very badly cut up.
There was a pie social held in the Hesperlight church on the 23rd ult., which was largely attended. The pie sold from 12 cents upwards. The proceeds, amounting to $6, went towards paying Rev John Proyer.

SUNBURY'S CONTRIBUTION.
Key's Station.
Dec. 6.—J. W. Hoyt, collector of customs at Blisville Junction, has sold his residence at Blisville Corner to Otis Hoyt, and has moved to McAdam.
Rev. J. McKean has engaged with the F. C. Baptist church for the ensuing year.
Three teams and fifteen men left Hoyt Station on Wednesday morning for the lumber woods.
One day this week twenty-one head of cattle were shipped from the station.
Miss Doris Merreure is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. W. Peters, St. John.

On Wednesday, at her residence, Mrs. Ruth Woodson was united in the bonds of wedlock to Robert Stevens. Rev. W. Was performed the ceremony. Their many friends join in wishing them much happiness.
JOTTINGS FROM CARLETON.
Cloverdale.
Dec. 2.—About all of our young men have gone to the woods, consequently the place seems quite lonesome.
Andrew Jamieson is doing quite a business on his old ground.
Samuel and Alexander Wallace are kept pretty busy thrashing. They are the right men for the business.
The Rev. Mr. Prosser held a meeting here last Saturday in this month.
Mrs. John Hill has gone to Grand Lake to spend the winter with friends.
William Perkins, of this place, and Miss Ella Donnelly were married on the 23rd of November at the residence of the bride's father; the Rev. Mr. Prosser officiated. Only the immediate friends of the bride were present.
Mrs. Samuel Foster died quite suddenly at her home in this place, on Monday evening. Although being in poor health for some time, very few thought her in danger. She left a husband and five little boys to mourn the loss of a loving wife and mother.
Miss Edith Wallace has returned home from visiting friends in Caverville.

THE NEWS IN QUEENS.
Young's Cove Road.
Dec. 5.—We have experienced a great ice storm in this section, completely stopping traffic for some weeks, it is slowly improving. Hiram McLeod's family are sick with the diphtheria.
The Central railway train still makes daily trips, with H. A. Ryan as conductor.
Johnston.
Dec. 4.—The Baptist church at Thorne town gave a very successful missionary concert on the 23d ult.
We were visited on Saturday with the first snow of the season.
Steamer Star made her last trip to Cole's Island on the 18th ult.
Lebanon Starkey is unable to teach his school on account of illness.
Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Hetherington are visiting their son, Dr. Hetherington, in St. John.
On Tuesday, Nov. 28th, Willis, youngest son of Samuel Starkey, died of diphtheria, after a short illness. Deceased was one of our most popular young men. He had been out west, with his father and brother, surveying land for the Dominion government and only returned home the 21st ult. Much sympathy is felt for his family.
Miss Laura Starkey and Arthur McLeod are also ill of diphtheria.
Leonard Brock has their new house well under way. It will be very handsome when finished.
Lemont and Sons.
To our old subscribers and new ones we would recommend you when furnishing or refurnishing your home to call and look through their large establishment, and without doubt you will be fully suited both in price, styles and qualities of goods. What is there in furniture that they don't keep? Do you want to buy anything in the crockery or china lines? They have the goods. Is your friend or relative to be married? or you intend a bridal present? In all silverware their variety is charming. Do the children expect Santa Claus to come down the chimney and fill their stockings for Christmas morn? Where will he take the presents from? Why, he knows all about Lemont's big stock; and when the children wake up and go for the stockings they will certainly find hundreds of stockings filled with Lemont's. Does your aged friend expect a nice easy, comfortable back rocking chair of course such an old reliable firm will furnish it. Did your wife tell you to go to Lemont's for a parlor suit for her as a Christmas present, of course obey her, for as a general rule she knows what will make a home pleasant if it was a sideboard or a bedroom set she asked for—as for parlor, sitting-room hanging lamps or table lamps, where can a finer, cheaper lot be seen? As for moccasins or snowshoes, Lemont's has the best; the endless variety is almost more than we can talk about. Go and see for yourselves.

Heartfield.
Dec. 6.—The Chapman Bros. have gone to the woods for the winter.
Miss Amy Price has gone to Machias, Me., with her cousin.
Smory Cliff has gone up river to engage in the painting business.
Arthur Brown, who was very badly burned, is getting around again.
