Do Not Neglect The Bad Cold OF TO-DAY

IT MAY BE SERIOUS TO-MORROW

May Develop into Bronchitis, Pneumonia and perhaps Consumption.

Miss Mary Prouse, R.R. No. 1, Cedardale, Ont., writes.—"I had the Influenza in November last, and it left me with a terrible cough. I did not attend to it until it got so severe people warned me it was time to see about it. I went to the doctor and got some medicine. He told me it was a bad attack of bronchitis. I could not sleep, and would have to sit up nearly all night, it was so difficult for me to get my breath. The doctor's medicine did not seem to be helping me the least bit. One of our neighbors came in one day, and told me about Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. I tried it and took two bottles. No person could believe how it helped me. I have recommended it to different people since, for I believe I have reasons for doing so.

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup has been on the market for the past 30 years, and stands out by itself as a remedy or all coughs and colds.

The saying of the Litany entranced him; he repeated the "Our Father" with the people, and the quick imitafor him to assimilate the words of the "Hail Mary." He caught this much of the instruction that followed: the "beautiful Lady is the Mother of us all; in baptism we become the children of God and of the mother who leads us like sheep to her Divine Son, the Good Shepherd. Afterward, when neither father or mother. The appalled him. "Will the white the altar was alight, and the incense floated, and a solemn bell rang, and the Good Shepherd blessed His flock, it seemed to the child as if he were in heaven, and in some dim way he understood the mystic rite. When Thomas Jefferson finally eft the church, he was tumbled down from what was a high state of contemplation for a little boy by the realization of three facts; he was hungry, the moon was walloping" for being out after sundown, These thoughts quickened his steps into a run, and, turning a corner, he started across to the other side of the street, unmindful of an approaching earriage drawn by a pair of restless horses. In a moment he was down, and the horses' hoofs and the wheels of the carriage passed

In the carriage were seated Nellie Nesbitt and Arthur Pagnall, the latter holding the reins. As soon as the horses could be cared for Arthur and Nellie ran back to see what harm had been

"Arthur," cried Nellie, bending over the unconscious boy, "It is Thomas Jefferson!"

"Who?" exclamed Arthur. "My 'mammy's little boy The poor child, the poor child."

. Announcement.

For the information of our many patrons, in both town and country, we deem it necessary to announce that the Coal Business, successfully car ried on in the past by the ltae Mr. Charles Lyons, will be continued by the Estate, under the old firm name of C. Lyons & Co.

By maintaining a high standard of service and by courteous and honest treatment of the public, this firm has, for aperiod of more than a quarter of a century, enjoyed a large and ever-increasing pa. tronage; and in announcing our intention of "earrying cn," we desire, most earnestly, to give expression to our appreciation thereof. We are deeply grateful to the firm's many patrons for their constant manifestation of confidence in it in the past, and we assure them that if they favor us with a similar evidence of their good-will in future there shall be no economy of effort on our part to make our intercourse both pleasant and profitable to them:

As we possess almost unlimited facilities for supplying the coal trade, and as we are desirous of extending our already large business, we respectfully invite the patronage of new customers; and if we succeeed in thus increasing our present con-nection, we guarantee that we shall be indefatigable in our endeavor to justify the confidence of our new friends.

We again thank our pations for their past generous patronage, and respecifully solicit a renewal of their esteemed custom.
