We regret to report the death of Mrs John Buchanan. Early in the fall she had a severe attack of inflammation of the lungs, but for a time she rallied, and hopes were entertained of her recovery. However, about a week ago, she had a relapse, which ended in her death. She was one of the first settlers in Colborne, having emygrated from Scotland about having emigrated from Scotland about thirty eight years ago. Sheleaves a large family and a wide circle of triends to mourn her loss. Deceased was sister-in. law of Mr. D. McKay, of Goderich.

Last Monday was a busy day with municipal elections around the village. The old councillors were all returned with one exception, Mr. Gledhill taking the place of Mr. Malloy. The Reeve, Mr. Wm. Young, is said, to have polled the largest majority he ever did in the township. Thus were the greating to township. This must be gratifying to him after his thirty years' experience in council matters. Long may he honor the position, and long may the position

STOLEN.—Several valuable whips, bells, etc., were stolen from sleighs the night of the teameeting. It is a great pity that the scoundrels could not be brought to justice.

Teameeting.—The teameeting held here last week was a grand success. The night being favorable, the church was filled to its utmost capacity. James Gledhill acted as chairman. Eloquent addresses were delivered by Rev. Messrs. Sabine and Sanderson, John Fisher and A. Sheltar. Singing and recitations were given by the children. Mrs. J. Miller sang a couple of excellent solos, and was warmly received. Mrs. Sanderson presided at the organ for the children, whowere admitted free. The proceeds was riding with a aheet of fire.

Lexington, Ky., Dec. 28.—Last night Patrick O'Neill, while lighting gasoline street lamps, overturned a lamp. The burning fluid poured down and completely saturated his clothes and covering the horse he was riding with a sheet of fire. The terrified animal ran down the street at the top of his speed, and, turning a sharp corner, threw his rider. O'Neill, in a perfect blaze, ran to the nearest house, but was fatally burned before the house, but was fatally burned before the flames could be smothered. His entire body to the waist was burned to a crisp. The back of the horse was literall cooked.

Notwithstanding the stormy 15th ult. nature of the weather, and the almost impassable state of the roads, a goodly number of children were present. The teacher, Mr. Lawrence, was assisted by T. W.
