Fun and Fancy.

Treat your friends as you treat your corns.

Little Willie, when he first saw his baby cousin...

Anastasia (about to be married): "Ned, see if this reads all right for the invitation..."

"No, George," she said, "I cannot marry you, I shall always esteem you as a friend..."

"Mother," said a young lady, recently "how came you to marry such a very plain, unpretentious man as father?"

THE LIME-KILN CLUB.

Bruder Invisible Jackson Expected—some believe on Fortune-Telling for the Benefit of the Fortunate.

"Ar' Bruder Invisible Jackson in de hall tonight?"

Invisible was visible. He was back by the stove, and had his shoes off to tie his chibblains.

"Bruder Jackson, de report has come to me det you ar' tellin' fortunes in your neighborhood for de small sum of two bits a pesson."

"Yes, sah, I've been tellin' a few."

"As you hev bin a member of dis club far de las' two y'rs, you mus' be aware of de fact dat fortune-tellin', sellin' dream-books an' all dat sort of nonsense am agin our rules."

Invisible was badly broken up, and there were tears in his eyes as he paced out.

"I want to say to dis large, cultivated and refined audience dat de fate of Invisible Jackson will be de fate of any odder member who am found so far off his balance as to be runnin' rter fortune-tellers, no matter how cheap deir prices."

1. If dar' was anything in bad ones I'd hev bin an angel long ago.

2. If dar' was anything in bad ones I'd hev bin de odder place afore I was twenty y'rs old.

3. It am verry pleasant to be told dat you am gwine to fall heir to great riches, but dat doan' buy 'aters nor pay rent.

4. Only sich men as hate work, an' only sich wimin as want an excuse to leave home believe in fortune-tellin'.

5. If it am predicted dat a man am gwine to hev a great piece of luck he'll set down in some saloon to wait fur it.

6. If it am predicted dat he am gwine to hev a great trouble, he'll go home an blame his wife an' lik his children.

"I warn ye to let de hull business alone. A dollar a day an' a steady job will pan out mo' money in six months dar' as de fortune-tellers in de world kin bring ye in fifty y'rs. Dar' am just as many good dreams as bad, an' none of 'em am wort de powder to blow up an ole hoss."

"Signs might hev meant sumthin' a thousand y'rs ago, but dey am played out now. If you h'ar de 'death-dick' in a wall it's just as much a sign dat you am gwine to find a diamond pin in de road as it ar' dat some of de family am gwine to die afore de y'ar is out. Let us now pick up de abnormal bizness of de meetin'."—Detroit Free Press.

ABOUT THE FEET.—If the feet are tender or painful after long walking or standing, great relief can be had by bathing them in salt water.

—I called a few days ago, said a minister, on a man whose wife was very ill—hardly expected to recover.

George Stewart has taken some excellent photographs of members of the Rankin Concert Company.
