Brigade Matters.

FURTHER CORRESPONDENCE.

St. John's, 13th, 1911.
Dear Sir:—I beg to acknowledge receipt of your letter of the 2nd inst. in reply to mine of the same date, addressed to His Excellency in reference to the proposed Coronation Parade.

Our Governing Committee notes that His Excellency has determined to inaugurate an order of precedence amongst the Brigades of this Colony and to establish the claims of the C. L. B. upon as firm a basis as may be by giving his proposed arrangement all the weight of his official sanction. Against this we respectfully but firmly protest.

We note also that His Excellency, having secured the assent of the other three Corps to his proposals, abandons all attempts to reason the matter and arbitrarily intimates in effect that if we do not choose to accept our position under an arrangement which we have time and again repudiated we must submit to the penalty of exclusion from this parade in honour of His Majesty's Coronation. As we are not prepared to forfeit our independence as a Corps, we must only accept the penalty should His Excellency enforce it, however objectionable and unjust it may be.

We think we are correct in saying that it has been a recognized principle in inter-Brigade negotiations that no brigade should be coerced by any combination of the other brigades. We regret to note that His Excellency has no hesitation in apparently using the assent of the other three Corps to his invitation as a reason for doing what they themselves expressly decided they would not do.

We note further that His Excellency is of opinion that the C. L. B. could not abandon the parade, no matter how much they might desire to abstain from it, inasmuch as His Majesty the King is "Patron" of that organization. The C. L. B. did decide to abandon the parade simply because its claims to precedence were refused recognition. The ground of its claim to privilege has been stated by that Corps to be priority in date of local organization only. The same ground has been apparently irrevocably accepted by His Excellency as a convenient solution of the difficulty entirely in opposition to our protest.

We were not aware until so informed by His Excellency that His Majesty is Patron of the C. L. B. If that Corps had stated that fact and had suggested that on that account on this occasion it would like to be placed in a position to do special honour to His Majesty, we would have regarded it as a privilege to have extended any courtesy in our power with that object in view. We should have been pleased indeed to have concurred in the C. L. B.'s point of honour on the occasion of His Majesty's Coronation under these circumstances and to have drawn with the other Corps for the other positions. We refer to this point very respectfully. The C. L. B. never mentioned the subject. They rested their claims on an alleged right arising out of the fact that they happened to be organized locally earliest and on no other ground whatever, and freely stated that they would not parade with any Brigade which did not acknowledge their contentions.

We were not aware until His Excellency informed us that the C. L. B. had any "desire to meet our views." On the contrary we felt quite sure that they had not. It is true that the representatives of all the Brigades seemed desirous of avoiding a rupture and came to a conclusion with that in view, not to parade at all, but we would again point out that the danger of a rupture would never have arisen except for the presentation of the C. L. B.'s claim to precedence and their persistent demand for its unqualified recognition.

We beg to state that His Excellency's wishes and desires will always receive our careful and respectful attention and whenever practicable we shall comply therewith. On this occasion, however, we cannot refrain from protesting against His Excellency's action in concluding an arrangement against our well-known objections—an arrangement which he knew beforehand would have the effect of excluding a section of His Majesty's most loyal subjects from participating in the public festivities in honour of His Majesty's Coronation.

We do not quite understand the concluding paragraph of your letter. We fail to see how the possibility of any dispute on the Parade ground could have occurred to His Excellency. I have the honour to be, Sir, Your obedient servant, CHAS. H. HUTCHINGS, T. C. Fitzherbert Esq., Major M.G.B. Private Secretary.

Coronation Concert!—The final rehearsal for the massed bands and the Choir will take place this evening at the Prince's Hall. Bands at 7:30; Choir at 8 o'clock. Everyone who intends to take part is particularly requested to attend. Tickets of admission will be distributed only to those who are present.—June 19, 11

THIRTY-SEVEN YEARS ABSENT.—Mr. Peter McGuire, of Toronto, arrived there last week on a visit to his parents, who are yet alive after an absence of 37 years from Newfoundland. He is now settled in California, and in his travels travelled over the greater part of the United States. He has done well while abroad and will leave here again in August. He and his wife are in this time and will be in St. John's.

FROM THE GOVERNOR.—Government House, St. John's, Nfld., 17 June, 1911.
Dear Sir:—The Governor asks me to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of this day's date.

The Governor has not inaugurated any order of precedence as you have indicated. Learning that the Brigades were at issue in respect to precedence His Excellency pointed out the practice of the British Army to each Brigade, and suggested its adoption. Three of the Brigades were of the opinion that it would be convenient to follow that practice and stated that they would turn out on that basis. The Methodist Guards declined to do so. Surely it can not be contended that three Brigades, perfectly satisfied with the order followed by the British Army, should abstain from parading because one Brigade declined to conform to the views of the majority.

But whether that be so or not the Governor has no authority to dictate in the matter and does not desire to do so. His Excellency simply states that in his opinion the Brigades should turn out, and having pointed out to them a means of avoiding the difficulty of precedence without any suggestion of inferiority, he leaves it to the Brigades to act as they please and three Brigades decide to parade. His Excellency will regret the absence of the Methodist Guards if they adhere to their determination not to attend, as they are a fine body of young men who do credit to the Colony, but he cannot abate his view that in default of any better precedent followed by the British Army should be followed in Newfoundland. I have the honour to be, Sir, Your obedient servant, (Sgd.) T. C. FITZHERBERT, Private Secretary, Major C. H. Hutchings, Methodist Guards.

The Bonavista Here.

The S. S. Bonavista arrived at Harvey & Co. at 4 a.m. yesterday from Montreal, having called at Charlottetown, Summerside and Sydney. The ship had a fine run down the St. Lawrence River, and left Montreal on Sunday morning last. She left Sydney on Friday at noon and had foggy weather all the way to port, especially Saturday evening and night, when the sides fog she experienced a terrific thunder storm with vivid lightning and torrents of rain. The ship necessarily had to come to anchor. Her rate of speed, she brought a three-fourths cargo including 80 head of cattle, 30 sheep, pigs, etc. Her passengers were Dr. Carnell, Mrs. Meyers, Mr. Morgan, Mr. Woodcock, Mr. Kelly, Miss Donnelly, and 20 passengers disembarked at Sydney.

Struck by Lightning.

Mrs. Cook, of Avondale, was sitting in her kitchen last evening about 3 p.m. when lightning struck the house. She was reading a book and had her feet on the fender of the stove when the lightning took the boots clean off her feet and passed down through the kitchen floor, tearing a wide rent in the board. Mrs. Cook's feet were badly burned and she swooned off with pain and the fright. Dr. Jones and Rev. Fr. Sheehan were called in and gave her all the attendance possible, after which she rallied but was not able to walk. It is believed, however, that she will get the use of her feet in a few days.

Narrowly Escaped.

Yesterday morning four boys who often go to Long Pond, took a canvas canoe owned by some men who are mowing out the grass and rowed down the pond. When they got to the foot of it, above the bridge, they overturned the boat and all were thrown into the water. They would have been drowned but that one of the number could swim and he assisted the others to the shore, but a short distance from the shore they were pretty nearly exhausted, and had the accident occurred in the middle of the pond all would have been drowned.

Billy Rendell Injured.

About 1 p.m. to-day Billy Rendell was taking a free ride up town on Horwood's long cart. He fell off near Pat. Shea's. The cart passed over his leg. He roared with pain, crawled into the lane and lay down. A crowd that gathered behind him, and he was broken, but that his leg was somebody in the crowd suggested to Billy that it was dinner hour at the A. A. Food Shop. He then stood up and covered the ground like a Marathon runner.

Was Well Known.

Patrick Keen, of Convent, Lane, who was drowned from the Bellaventure Friday was well and favorably known in St. John's. He leaves a wife and two children to mourn him as well as a father and mother. He was a member of the Freeman's Union and was in the service of Harvey & Co.'s boats for some time. Last year, on Labor Day, he took third place in the walking match on St. George's Field during the sports.

DAMAGED BY LIGHTNING.—Mr. P. Walsh's house at Woodford's, was struck by lightning and badly damaged by lightning. The bolt ran down through the roof close to the chimney and did considerable damage.

OBITUARY.—Mr. Wm. Thorn, a well known resident of Torbay, died there last night in his 85th year. Mr. Thorn was an old time planter and fisherman, was honest and upright and respected by all who knew him. His funeral will take place at 2:30 p.m. Wednesday.

THE TOBACCO ARRIVES.—The S. S. Tobacco, Voemah, arrived here from Liverpool yesterday morning. She left Saturday night week and had fine weather until Saturday night last when she had the full benefit of the thunder storm of that night. She has 400 tons cargo, a small mail, and sailed at 3 p.m. to-day taking one passenger, Miss Hocken.

Struck by Lightning.

R. C. Church, Avondale, Destroyed as Result of Saturday Night's Thunder Storm.

Yesterday morning the Postal Telegraph Offices and Reid Nfld. Co. were appalled over the wires that the R. C. Church, of Avondale, had been struck by lightning. The building, after the steeple had been struck by lightning, Watchman Thomas McGee, who is a servant with Mr. E. Kennedy, saw the lightning strike the tower from his position on Mr. Kennedy's premises, and he says that almost instantly the building was in flames as the current of electricity shot down through it. It took McGee less than 5 minutes to reach the structure but when he did so he could see that it was doomed. At great personal risk McGee forced an entrance to the Church and succeeded in saving the Chalice and the Sacred Host which it contained. He also grasped some vestments, but the fire had gained such headway that when he emerged these were partly burned in his hands. The Sacristy being in the Church he could not get to it and all the beautiful and costly vestments, silver plate, etc., for the use of the altar, the handsome altar furnishings, valued at a considerable sum, were destroyed together with the whole building which by 11:15 p.m. was a mass of ruins. The people notwithstanding the prevalence of the worst electrical storm witnessed in that section for years, were quietly at the scene in hundreds and worked hard to save the Church but to no purpose. The fire having had too much headway, it was found that the only way of preventing the flames from reaching the new Presbytery erected last year at a cost of $10,000, and were successful in saving it. This fine Church was started by Bishop Ronald McDonald in 1886 and was finished in 1900. It was a handsome wooden structure capable of seating between 500 and 700 comfortably, and often over 1,000 persons attended the services there. It was alone in its kind in the spot where the handsome structure stood. Rev. Fr. Sheehan is the Parish Priest of Avondale, and the loss to him and his parishioners, who freely gave their labour to build the Church, is a severe one, especially so considering that not a cent of insurance was held on the property. It is a sad coincidence that Rev. John Roe, former Parish Priest of the place and who ministered there while the edifice was being constructed, died only a day before the Church was destroyed. The loss is an irreparable one to all the people of that section of Harbour Main.

Deaths at Salmonier.
"You have all seasons for your own. Never before in the parish of Salmonier has the meaning of these words been so forcibly brought to the minds of the people, as when on June 3rd two of the inhabitants of the North Side were laid in their last resting place. Death visited the home of John Dinn and claimed as his victim Catherine Dinn, his aged mother, and wife of the late Laurence Dinn. Mrs. Dinn, who was well known throughout the parish, both for her generous disposition and interest in church work, was 68 years of age. Almost all the large circle of families surrounding her are her descendants, as she leaves, to mourn her death, eight children—three sons and five daughters, and forty-one grandchildren. Yet sad to say not one of her sons was present at her death. There was not one of the large gathering of people that attended her funeral that did not sympathize with her heart-broken sons, who arrived from fishing just at the moment when the funeral service was about to take place. Although the privilege of having her sons near her at her last moment was denied her, she was privileged as hers, that of receiving a short while before her death the rites of her church. Let us hope that Mrs. Dinn is now enjoying that reward that is due a good and pious Catholic.

Deaths of other victims was the darling child of William and Katie Tremblait. The feelings of the little one's father on returning from fishing to hear of the sudden death of his little one, can be better imagined than described. To know that their little one is now enjoying a happier home than this earth can supply her is a great consolation to the bereaved parents; yet when the many incidents of her innocent childhood are recalled, who can fail to sympathize with the grief-stricken parents when they give way to that grief which is natural to parental affection. To the sorrowing friends of the two deceased members of the people of Salmonier extend their most heartfelt sympathy.

Thunder Storm.

A fierce thunder storm raged Saturday night last. It began at 4 p.m. and continued till after midnight. Rain fell in torrents. The lightning flashes from ten till 12 at night were frequent and vivid. The thunder storm broke first in the west and worked right round the horizon to the east, frequent flashes of lightning causing intervals of daylight brightness. The only destruction so far reported as the result of the storm is the destruction of the church at Avondale.
