GUBERNOR PRESENTS PRIZES.

Previous to the commencement of the Armistice Night Dance in the C.C. Club last night His Excellency the Governor presented the prizes won at the Armistice Sports during the summer. He congratulated the winners. His Excellency referred to the sale of poppies in connection with the sale of poppies. He expressed the thanks of the Governor to Mrs. W. B. Fraser and her committee for their splendid efforts in connection with other G.W.V.A. projects. Lord Besson greeted His Excellency upon the conclusion of his remarks. The dance was then commenced, over 100 couples participating. The G.C.C. Club under Capt. A. Bulley provided the music and played some excellent selections in a manner which was beyond criticism. Supper was served during the evening by the Auxiliary under the supervision of Mrs. M. Wilson and Mrs. Janet Smith. At the conclusion of the after dance, "The Forever Blowing Wind" was a string of multi coloured balloons floated upon the heads of the dancers, producing a very picturesque effect. Dancing was continued until an early hour this morning and all who attended appeared to have had a most enjoyable time.

Personal.

Mr. F. W. Hayward, who accompanied his daughter, Mrs. W. R. Chesnut, to Halifax, on her way to St. John's, returned to-day's express. The Deputy Colonial Secretary, Mr. Bess, C.M.G., arrived on to-day's steamer. Mr. and Mrs. Donald Morison left for California. Mr. W. M. Willock returned by the steamer from a honey-moon trip to Scotland. Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Rogerson announced the engagement of their eldest son, Francis Blakie, to Arthur Holmes, son of Rev. A. A. and Mrs. Holmes. The wedding will take place about the 15th inst. Mr. and Mrs. J. Mitchell, who has been some time in New York undergoing treatment, had a very successful operation performed at the hands of Dr. Stewart. Mr. Mitchell's speedy recovery now is looked forward to.

Liquor Importations.

Over 2155 cases of whisky, brandy and wine arrived by the steamer from the Continent yesterday. Last night there was a shortage at the Xmas stores and it is evident that a repetition will not occur this year. The total quantity of bottled liquors since the first part of August is about 9,700 cases.

Argyman Recovering.

Mr. M. Bourne, the Methodist Minister who recently accidentally fell from the roof of the hospital, is now on the road to recovery, according to a message received yesterday by his mother. The bullet has been dislodged in the spine, and the doctors under whose care Mr. Bourne has been, have decided to leave it in place. Mr. Bourne was taken to Strathcona Hospital after his accident.

Sachem Arrives.

His Excellency, Capt. G. L. Hayes, 7th Army, from Liverpool, arrived in port yesterday afternoon bringing the port passengers, and about 700 tons of general cargo—H. Abed, Mrs. J. Kearney, Mrs. E. Good, R. Grieve, G. Johnson, H. Luscombe, S. Miroc, Rev. J. Ross, Mrs. I. Saunders and Miss G. Saunders, P. Verge, H. Verge, W. M. and Mrs. Willock, Mrs. E. R. Watson. The ship sailed again at 1 p.m. to-day for Halifax and Boston.

Excellent Results.

Over $1000 was collected yesterday for the Poppy Sales, and this very considerable sum will be divided between the Memorial Fund and the G.W.V.A. funds. Mrs. W. B. Fraser and her committee deserve every praise for such an excellent result.

The Poppy Girls.

We can boast of heroes with us,
 And of others dead, I'm sure,
 While their brave deeds daily knit us
 To their memories evermore.
 Yesterday around our city,
 Winning eyes as bright as pearls,
 Smiling, rosy-cheeked and witty
 Were our own dear Poppy girls.

Many hundreds had admired them
 As they stood near every square;
 'Twas their souls' love which inspired them
 To the cause they hold so dear.
 Everyone their work respected
 Those brave maidens of our Sale;
 And their hearts' love was reflected
 In the sweetness of their smile.

We have read of Spartan mothers
 How they trained and reared their sons,
 But we also know of others
 Who had faced the bombs and guns;
 And for love of them we're sighing,
 For their deeds to us appeal,
 Many of whom now are lying
 Far away 'neath Flanders' fields.

'Twas for love of those here dwelling
 Who fought with the dead o'er there,
 That those maidens fair were selling
 Poppies on each street and square
 And through all the coming ages
 By our offspring may be seen
 Written on our history's pages
 All the good they've done, I ween.

To each true and gentle maiden
 I most freely deff my hat,
 Yesterday with poppies laden
 'Twas a grand work they were at;
 Among our ladies there are many
 That we deem our choicest pearls,
 But to me as good as any
 Are the St. John's Poppy girls.
 NATIVE.
 St. John's, Nov. 12, 1921.

Passenger Lost His Life.

The Sachem which arrived in port yesterday reports a very sad occurrence whilst the ship was on the passage out from Liverpool, when one of the passengers, a Mr. E. H. King, lost his life. How the accident happened is unknown, as none of the ship's crew or passengers saw him fall overboard, but the last seen of him was on Tuesday evening and it is believed the unfortunate man lost his life that night, as he could not be found on board the ship Wednesday morning. Mr. King, was a comparatively young man and was coming out to spend a vacation with his brother, Rev. A. T. King, Congregational minister, at Little Bay East, Fortune Bay. The unfortunate man leaves a widow. The sad affair cast a gloom over the ship, and sincere sympathy is felt for his widow and relatives on his sudden and untoward end.
