> His Majesty, The King. Perhaps one of the events of late years, charged with greatest interest. has been the crisis in the British cabinet, the general e ection and return of the Liberal Parliament to power, though with greatly diminished major ity. The magnificent ceremony of the opening of Parliament by the king has become a historic function of great power and munificence, attended and espected by every civilized nation of the world So that it can be readily inderstood that moving pictures taken of a scene so gorgeous and at a time so momentous will be of the greatest nterest to those who are awaiting pending results. Not only that, but i is possible that a number of people have not had the chance of seeing His Majesty in his robes of office. Consequently Starland, Limited, is to b congratulated on their enterprise in having had these pictures taken and the management takes delight in announcing that commencing today at 2 p.m., scenes of this great affair o state will be shown as an extra attraction at every performance.
