NOTES AND COMMENT CHILDREN ANDCHIDISHEESS

Between Two Clashing Statements One Choice Morsel of Truth
ond of a row of tres in an orchard, and the plowboy is resting and
and smoking on full pay. His excuse for this kind of work is one of the the team had been put tour the plow
and this horse is breathless and co
and this horse is breathless and co
red with sweat. He looks

THE SUMOA SCHOOL LESSON

The Home
"For Tea Y

THE PROPHET'S BIRTHAY

|  | has its own particilar trace In | pee pri | , |
| :---: | :---: | :---: | :---: |
| midable obstacle in the way of com |  | and mounting to the upper story | $\underbrace{\substack{\text { tre } \\ \text { grape } \\ \text { rivite }}}_{\text {cte }}$ |
| prehensive arbitration and lessen- |  |  |  |
| at the Guililhall meeting that | carpets of every deisn hanging temptingly round |  |  |
| chtering news might be expected | dors. Then comes the |  |  |
| It shows that the effect of the A - | (the jewelers, the leather mat | ${ }^{\text {a }}$ | dos |
|  |  | decoratio was artist | that |
| have been impresed and are taking | And Down hile |  |  |
| notice, ander int ise ing ies materer | wind these quaint pathwass, wide |  |  |
| yond their noses, Let the | courts wherein an ampent mosure with its graeeful minaret stands. | wonderfil among the soft green of |  |
| tions proced. and interested. She | To | the | ing |
|  |  |  |  |

