While trying to find her way in the dark in one of the rooms of her home on Thursday evening Miss Evelyn Smith tripped over a chair and in the fall received a cut on the lower lip which necessitated the insertion of a stitch or two. A splendid shower of canned fruit, pickles, etc., was given Mrs. Edward Swan on Friday evening. It will be remembered that the lady suffered a great loss a few days previous to the shower through the breaking of a swing shelf and the consequent destruction of her season's canning operations. While working one of Mr. Gid Litt's race horses at Ketterson Park on Thursday, the driver of the animal met with a nasty accident. Adams, of Listowel, spent a few days visiting at the home of his son, Mr. Chester Adams, and other friends in town. Mr. Adams has been a reader of the Advocate since its first issue, nearly 63 years ago, and has been a subscriber to this paper since the day of his marriage in the year 1866. Previous to his marriage the Advocate entered his father's home. He compliments this journal by saying it is improving with age and is the best paper that enters his home.

Mrs. Gibson, of Brucefield, and Mrs. Todd, of Hensall, have been visiting at the home of their niece, Mrs. Fred Pearce, South Ward. Large Potatoes.
The abundant potato crop this year has yielded many large specimens. One left at the Advocate office and grown on the farm of Mr. Wm. Cook, Huron road west, weighed one pound and eleven ounces. If any other grower has a large one we would like to see it.

I. O. D. E. Meeting.
During a delightful meeting of Mitchell Chapter I. O. D. E., held on Thursday at the home of Mrs. S. A. Hodge, Mrs. F. J. Greenaway, London, gave a most enlightening account of the National Annual in Vancouver, at which she represented ten chapters, among them the local one. This year $381,532 was raised by the 27,000 members of the Order. During the war $5,000,000 was contributed for war work, besides the supplies sent to soldiers. Now the chief tasks of the Order are the Canadianization of the new-comer and enabling the sons and daughters of fallen or disabled soldiers to obtain secondary education. To aid in the former, libraries and pictures are sent to schools where the attendance is largely foreign-born, while in the latter case Canadian burials and overseas scholarships are awarded. Mrs. T. S. Ford, in an appreciative speech, moved a vote of thanks to Mrs. Greenaway and this was seconded by Mrs. W. A. Stuart. An honorary secretary of the War Memorial Hospital at London, Mrs. Greenaway urged a sympathetic consideration of the appeal soon to be made for funds, and extended an invitation for the formal opening of this children's hospital on Oct. 28th. The rooms were gay with a profusion of asters in purple and white. In the tea room Mrs. W. A. Stuart and Mrs. Burritt were assisted by several of the charter members. On Friday afternoon a business meeting was held in the Public school.

A Great Treat in Store.
The "evergreen" Jim Fax, the comedian, is at the head of the company appearing in the Opera House under the auspices of the Lyceum Association on Thursday evening, the 12th inst. Mr. Fax has been before the public for a great many years and has always been noted for his clean, caustic humor. Besides appearing in individual humorous selections, he and his supporting artists will appear in a number of comedy sketches in costume. Mr. Chas. Stanley is the possessor of an exceptionally fine baritone voice, being soloist in High Park Presbyterian church, Toronto, and is rated as one of the finest baritones in the city. Miss Lina Crane, soprano, is equally prominent as a soloist in Toronto and being gifted with a wonderfully sweet and clear voice, has a great future ahead of her in her chosen profession. Miss Mamie Mason, entertainer and pianist, also comes very highly recommended as an artist with a pleasing personality. Her music makes a most favorable impression with her audiences. The Lyceum Association are making a radical departure this season in the sale of tickets. Heretofore they have sold "season's" tickets for a series of entertainments through the fall and winter months. This method they are now discontinuing, and instead of a series, they are substituting individual entertainments of merit when available. The association is also making a radical reduction in the scale of prices heretofore prevailing in the hope that popular prices will bring these attractions within the reach of an increasingly large number of people. In future reserved seats will be 50 cts., and rush seats 35 cts. Reserved seat plan will be open on Saturday, Oct. 7th, at 9 a. m., at Cameron's jewelry store.

PRUETER & SON

Make Young Men Marry.

That young men of today need to be encouraged rather than discouraged from marrying, was the view of the lower house of the Provincial Anglican Synod, at London last week which refused to endorse the principle of making 21 years the minimum age for young men entering upon holy matrimony. Marriages and divorce were the principal subjects under discussion at the last day's session of the Synod, but a resolution was passed recommending segregation and better care of mental defectives. "I think young men should be compelled to marry before reaching a certain age and we should not place impediments in their way," stated Dean Tucker.
