DR. RAINSFORD'S SALOON.

Took It Under His Protection, but It Shows No Inward Epiritual Grace.
Rev. Dr. Rainsford, formerly of London, Ont., and now one of the most devoted Christian workers in New York, some time ago formulated the view which was afterwards adopted by W. T. Stead that, having in view human frailty and the precepts of human liberty, the proper course for men anxious to do away with the evils of the drink traffic was to take the sale of liquor into their own hands. In the hands of such devoted men the evils could be largely obviated and moral progress be the Recently in New York a near approach.

SHIPPED HIMSELF BY EXPRESS.

Says He's Going Around the World That Way on a Wager, PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 13.—While a quan-PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 13.—While a quantity of freight was being unloaded from an Adams Express car here yesterday morning cries of "help" were heard emanating from a box that had been shipped from Chicago. The box was securely natled, and, after it had been jostled about considerably, it was opened, and Hermann Zeitung, an Austrian, aged 30 years, was found in it in a bruised and battered condition. He said that he was making a trip of this character around the world on a wager. He was arrested on the charge of trespass and was remanded for a further hearing.
