GREWSOME FIND

he Dismembered Eody of a Man in a Trunk Taken From the Canal at Buffalo.

Buffalo, N. Y., June 21.-A trunk conaining the dismembered body of a man was found floating in the Blackwell Canal. The man's head had been cut off, both legs had been severed at the knees, and both arms and hands were erribly mangled, but were attached to he body by the tendons and muscles n his breast were a number of stab younds. The man was apparently an Italian, about 30 years of age, and veighed about 175 pounds. His features were regular. His eyes were blue and his mustache and hair were black. The pieces of clothing found on the body showed that before dismemberment the man had been dressed in a brown and black checked suit. Inside the trunk there was found a 22-calibre Smith & Wesson revolver, with every chamber loaded. There was also a three-quarter inch carpenter's saw, which had evidently been used to cut the bones. The trunk is a cheap affair, covered with brown baper. Two heavy car brake-shoes were attached to one of the handles. The Toronto, June 21.—Wheat is dull and body had evidently been in the water

JOINED FORCES AT LAST. Mole St. Nicholas, Hayti, Tuesday, June 21.-When the fleet of 37 trans ports swept up the southern coast and slowed up within sight of the doome city of Santiago de Cuba, the anxious ly awaited soldiers were greeted with ringing cheers which faintly re-echoed to the transports from the decks of the blockading warships far inshore They were answered by the troops most heartily and in kind. The weeks of anxious waiting on one side and of impatient chafing on the other were over and the army and navy had at last joined forces, and all felt that the final blow at Santiago was at hand. It was 10 o'clock on MONDAY MORNING when the lookout on board the armored cruiser Brooklyn reported seeing the smoke of several steamers away to the southeast and a moment or so later he announced that a dozen transports were in sight. Then signals were exchanged from ship to ship, gladden of CORSETS AND HEALTH WAISTS, ing the hearts of the weary block aders. Then the United States aux iliary cruiser Gloucester dashed away to meet and welcome the troops. In about half an hour later a grim forest of masts had sprung up apparently from the sea, and A MOST IMPRESSIVE SCENE was presented as the armada swept the shores where the great struggle is to take place. The transports were ranged in three shifting lines, with the battleship Indiana on the extreme right and the other men-of-war on the outskirts of the fleet. In this order the transports and their escorts steamed slowly in toward the hills where
