DEATH OF MRS. COWAN
An Esteemed Resident of King Street Succumbs to Short Illness.

The death of Mrs. Mabel Cowan, wife of Mr. Martin Cowan, of the street railway company, took place last evening at the family residence, 765 King street. News of the sad event will come as a great surprise to the many friends of the deceased, for during the past week Mrs. Cowan was in the best of health and spirits, and was able to be about the same as usual. A few days ago blood poisoning developed, and despite the efforts of some of the city's leading physicians the attack proved fatal.

Mrs. Cowan was 25 years of age, and had resided in London the greater part of her life. She was born in Glenora, and is survived by her husband, a sister, Miss Winnie Reynolds, and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Reynolds, of Rectory street.

The funeral will be held at Webster's burying ground on Wednesday.

Paderewski is arranging an Australian tour for the coming season, limited to about nine weeks. He will sail for Australia and adjoining lands. He will give thirty-five concerts, leaving Europe on a steamer via Suez and returning by same route. There are not many large cities in that section of the globe, hence the limited range of performance. He will use an American piano on the tour—a Steinway.

LONDON AND DISTRICT.

—Mr. K. G. Seabrooke has taken a position with the Hastings Hat and Cap Company.

—Rev. Allan Bell, of Chatsfield, Minn., a London Old Boy, recently best services at St. Andrew's Church yesterday.

—The firemen were called to a chimney fire at the corner of Chester and High streets, at 1:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

—Both services at the First Presbyterian Church yesterday were conducted by Rev. E. H. Savers, of Brucefield, formerly of Westminster.

—Mr. Kinsey Evans, formerly of this city, has been appointed accountant and chief clerk in the office of the manager of the Grand Trunk, Milwaukee and Michigan fast freight lines at Detroit.

—The death of Humphrey A. White, son of Mr. D. G. White, of Gravelly, occurred at Catella, Alaska, on July 19. The late Mr. White was 34 years of age.

—The congregation of St. Paul's Cathedral meets next Thursday evening to consider matters in connection with the appointment of a successor to Very Rev. Dean Innes.

—The Methodist Church choir at "The Grove, London" township, will have their annual ice cream social and entertainment at the church on Wednesday evening, 12th, and a very pleasant time is assured.

—The employees of the Karm organ factory and the Bain wagon works, of Woodstock, had an excursion to Detroit this morning, going to Sarina by G. T. R., and from there by boat. There were eight carloads of excursionists on the train that passed through this city at 8 o'clock.

—Miss Margaret Smith, sister of the late James Smith, of Sarina, died at her home, 420 Dufferin avenue, Miss Smith had been ill for quite a long time. She was a member of St. Andrew's Church. The funeral was held this afternoon at Woodland Cemetery.

CHICAGOANS LEAVE.
A large number of Chicagoans who have been here on the Old Boys' excursion leave for home this evening at 7:15 o'clock.

MRS. JOHNSTON INJURED.
The many London friends of Mrs. (Dr.) Johnston, of Sarina, wife of Dr. Johnston, M. P. for West Lambton, will hear with regret of an accident which befell her on Saturday last. While crossing Front street, in Sarina, she was knocked down by a horse and rider, sustaining a fracture of the left arm, besides cuts about the face and body. The horse took fright at a street car, and plunged forward upon the unfortunate lady, who was run over by the vehicle.

DEATH PEOPLE IN COURT.
Police court this morning was adjourned before 10:30. The offenses for which people were tried were not of a serious nature, and the door of the prisoners' room was not opened. All the cases heard were of minors. Three boys, whose trial had been adjourned several times, were charged with being disorderly. They were again remanded. Two girls, one of them a daughter of a railway engineer, were charged with vagrancy. No evidence was taken. The latter was allowed to go, her parents agreeing to take her home and in the future keep a watchful eye over her, while the Indian girl was remanded until Aug. 17.

The wedding, which was of a strictly private character, was performed in St. Anne's Episcopal church, and was witnessed by only the immediate relatives of the bride and groom. Rev. Lawrence Skelton, of Mitchell, while the duties of bride-maid were performed by Miss Alberta McIntyre, of Victoria Hospital nursing staff. The bride was doubly attired in white Swiss muslin and carried white roses. The bridesmaid also was prettily gowned in white Swiss muslin and carried pink roses. The wedding march was played by Miss McLeod. The gifts showed a high esteem in which the young couple are held, among them being a silver tea service from the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. Craig, of Belmont, and two cut glass vases from Victoria Hospital nursing staff. The groom's gift was a watch, for Nebraska in a few days, where Dr. Craig has been practicing since leaving London.

At 6 o'clock on Saturday evening a very quiet wedding was solemnized at the residence of Mr. J. A. Moyer, 486 Oxford street, when Mrs. Moyer's sister, Mrs. Nellie Schmidt, late of the Victoria Hospital nursing staff, and Dr. James W. Craig, of Axtell, Neb., U. S., were united in marriage by the Rev. H. D. Moyer, of Belmont. The groom was assisted by Dr. J. W. Atkinson, of Mitchell, while the duties of bride-maid were performed by Miss Alberta McIntyre, of Victoria Hospital nursing staff. CATHOLICS ASKED TO GIVE PRAYERS FOR NEW POPE

Reference Made in Churches to Election of Successor to Pope Leo.

In nearly every Roman Catholic church in the diocese of London the "Te Deum" was sung at one service yesterday as a mark of thanksgiving for the selection of a successor to the late Pope Leo XIII. Reference was also made from many pulpits to the elevation to the papal chair of one who it is expected will prove a worthy head of the church, and in every instance the prayers of the faithful were asked for the Pope.

Rev. Father Aylward, the rector of St. Peter's Cathedral, is absent from the city on a holiday, and in his absence high mass was celebrated by Rev. Father Egan. Rev. Father Staley, of St. Basil's Church, Toronto, was a visiting clergyman in the city.

At St. Mary's Church, East London, the "Te Deum" was sung, and Rev. Father McKee, the rector, made reference to the election of the new pope, which had attracted so much attention throughout the world. He asked the congregation to pray for the new occupant of the papal chair.
