Two Killed by Collision Of Freights Near Guelph

Fireman Snowden, of Stratford, and Brakeman Wall, of Toronto, Dead.

Early this morning two Grand Trunk freight trains collided two miles and a half east of Guelph on the Stratford division. The weather was very foggy and the crews of the trains were unaware of their danger until the two heavy engines were close together. The crews had no time to jump and Fireman Thomas Snowden, of Stratford, and Brakeman Harvey Wall, of Toronto, were instantly killed. THE WAR NEWS.

An official despatch from the front says the Japs are now in complete control of the Korean frontier. Unconfirmed despatches record a number of Russian reverses in the vicinity of the Yalu although this is denied by a despatch from Paris. Another report from the French capital declares that Makaroff left Port Arthur yesterday morning and engaged the enemy at sea. No details of this fight have been received. During the last week the Mikado's fleet have been seen cruising off the Liao Tung Peninsula possibly with the intention of covering a landing of troops. Kuronatkin is busy preparing New Chwang for an attack which is hourly expected by the Russians.
