A Great Sanitarium.

The largest sanitarium in the world is that situated at Battle Creek, Michigan—the buildings alone covering several acres of ground. Men and women with overtaxed brains and shattered nerves repair from all parts of the world to this wonderful institution. Scores leave daily to return to their vocations whole in mind and body. Electricity, water, light, and in fact, all of nature's curative agencies are by means of the most modern appliances utilized to help build up broken-down constitutions and made to minister to human comfort. GREAT ATTENTION IS GIVEN TO DIET. A specially prepared wheat food, called Life Chips, is served daily on account of its strengthening qualities and because it is very easy to digest. This food proved itself so potent as a cure for chronic indigestion and became so popular as a substitute for porridge that it has been placed for sale with the grocers of United States and Canada, and is now to be had in almost every grocery store—the price to the consumer being 10 cents a package. So that to purchase Life Chips is like bringing a little of the sanitarium into one's home. The medical men in charge of the institution have little faith in the use of drugs.

RECIPE AT MASONIC HALL.
The hall at the Masonic Temple was crowded last evening when a recital was given by the vocal pupils of Miss K. Moore, of the London Conservatory of Music, among the soloists being Mrs. Fred Stone, Mrs. B. McCann, Misses Frances Cullis, Nora Dean, Margaret Gilbank, Jessie Grant, Lucie Harrison, Ellison, Marian Robb and Lillian Scott, and Messrs. John Doherty, Geo. Gower and Chas. Percy. Miss Gertrude Moore, of St. Thomas, pianist, and Miss Mabel Webb, violinist, ably assisted. The closing cantata, "The Snow Queen," in which over forty voices participated, was also a credit to Miss Moore's training.

TOMORROW'S BIG PICNIC.
Dominion Day the big midsummer fair will be held at Queen's Park, and if favorable weather favors the occasion, a splendid day's amusement is insured each and every visitor.

The picnic will be one of the largest ever held in the park, and the programme is assuredly one of the best. Lovers of good horses will be furnished with every inducement to visit the park, for there will be excellent speeding contests, as well as keen competition for the finest turnouts.

For the pacing and trotting events the following horses have been entered: R. J. Wood's Grocery Boy, W. R. Woodhall's Big Indian, Wm. Gray's Black Bird, Dr. Fred. Wood's Lady Black, Dr. Wood's Jubilee, G. W. Ross's Geo. Hamilton, Wm. Jenkins' Ada J., Norman McLeod's Lady Mac, Frank Sage's Sunbeam, Dr. Barnes' Gaffer, Mr. Wurtleg's Queenie, Jas. McCartney's Dr. R.

There will also be half-mile and three-quarter mile running races, with good horses in the entries.

Much interest centers in the contest for gentlemen's single turnouts, some very fine horses and outfits being entered.

There will also be dainty booths, where appetizing refreshments may be obtained, and attended by young ladies dressed in white. One of the most important of the horse will be "Robbie" at the Well, where everything may be purchased.

A midway has also been fitted up, and this will prove a great attraction for all.

In the afternoon there will be a baseball match and other athletic sports, and in the evening a balloon ascension, and a band concert. A number of prominent Londoners will also speak on interesting topics during the afternoon.

The best of meals will be obtainable on the grounds at a moderate price.

Wise Ways of Women

No "prizes" offered with common soaps will long tempt the wise woman to use common soaps. The wise woman soon she will pay dearly for "prizes" in the quality of soap, in the damage to her clothes and hands.

The wise woman could her health—so soon ruined if she were to continue breathing steam of adulterated common soap. The wise woman recognizes the difference between such soaps as Sunlight Soap—Odeon Bar.

The Irishmen also took occasion to extend hearty congratulations to Mr. James Magee, K. C., a member of the I. B. The death occurred in this city on Tuesday, at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. M. McNeill, of Elizabeth Bailey, wife of the late Joseph B. Crawford, aged 80 years, 3 months, and 12 days. The funeral took place this afternoon to Ingersoll.

GRAND OPENING OF JUBILEE RINK.
What promises to be one of the best ballrooms in London will be opened tomorrow evening with a hop given under the auspices of the Aberdeen Imperial, Manhattan, Rambler and Rocket Chais. Mr. C. W. Smith has spared no expense to make everything up to date. The decorations will be a permanent fixture and to floor especially will meet the approval of those fond of dancing. The new floor is built on the American plan, out of southern pine, and is supported so as to render it very resilient. Tony Vitale's orchestra has been engaged and the assembly hops will go on every Friday evening. Refreshments are to be served and checkroom provided for the guests. As the floor contains over 12,000 square feet, or room for 1,000 in dance at the same time, there will be no danger of crowding. The ventilation is double from bottom to top, and the rink will therefore be cool, even in the summer time. The rink will doubtless be accorded a liberal patronage each week.

MAIN—GARNETT.
A church wedding of much interest took place at Delaware yesterday at 11 o'clock in the morning, the contracting parties being Miss Mary Lane Garnett, of Delaware, and Mr. George Edward Main, formerly of this city, but now of Winnipeg. The Episcopal Church was beautifully decorated for the occasion. The wedding march was played by the organist of the church, the choir assisting in the service. Following the wedding guests to the number of about 25 were entertained at the home of the bride's mother, which was decorated with marguerites and maidenhair ferns. Mr. and Mrs. Main left for a trip east prior to taking up their home in Winnipeg.

—Mr. John Lamont, of Brussels, who was instantly killed by being struck by a spring pole on Tuesday last, was nephew of Rev. Dr. McCrea, of Westminster. Mr. Lamont was a young man highly educated, prosperous and respected by the whole community.

PRETTY WEDDING
IN WESTMINSTER

Marriage of Mr. John Aikenhead, of This City, and Miss Clara C. Murray.

Today is the last chance this year that engaged or unengaged-as-yet couples will have a chance to have a June wedding. Yesterday being the last Wednesday of Cupid's strong month, there was a large number of weddings. Weddings are invariably followed by honeymoon trips, and if anyone doubted that there was any falling off in the interest being taken in this part of the affairs, then they should have visited the Grand Trunk station any time last evening, where there was every evidence that the ancient custom of rice-throwing had been indulged in to a great extent.

AIKENHEAD—MURRAY.
A pretty wedding was solemnized at the beautiful home of Mr. Peter Murray, postmaster of Wilton Grove, at high noon on Wednesday, the 29th inst., when his daughter, Miss Clara C. was united in
