for over 300 guests was provided. An excellent cook was engaged, and the place

For three months in the year Kreuth is bills, as at any other health resort. Every effort is made to render their visit as pleasant as possible. Duke Charles Theo-of Vendome, and Prince and Princess

During June, July and August the place

The duke has thus cleverly made the Albert of Belgium are yearly visitors to was turned into a regular hotel.

SIDELIGHTS ON NOTABLE PEOPLE

BY THE MARQUISE DE FONTENOY

Col. Sir William Wyllie's sensational from India native orderies for their assassination by a young native of India, on Thursday night, at an entertainment given in the Imperial Intertainment given in the Imper stitute, in London, serves to call at- wiles of the Oriental criminal. tention to the remarkable immunity. It is not, as so many people seem to believe, for exclusively ornamental to believe, for exclusively ornamental granted the necessary leave of absence tentions. High and mighty personages dia, comparatively few cases of killing of high officials by natives in Inmen of the type of the Indian aidesmen of the Bavarian hood. The money thus earned is used dia. In fact, with the exception of de-camp of the King, to shield him Alps. Early in the eighth century the by the duke to board and lodge in the the late Earl Mayo, who was slain from all danger on the part of their by a native convict, while visiting a countrymen. penal settlement on the Andaman ish crown, cannot be ascribed to placed in judicial and administrative other Asiatic and African races, which frequent.

enjoyed by high English officials in lic sentiment in England, India prior to 1906, has been due in they select should successfully act as tion of paintings and of art treas-"the shield of the Sahib." The order- ures formed by his father and by

Col. Sir William Wyllie's sensational from India native orderlies for their were taken up by a large delegation of dore, the grandson of King Max, and the officials during the 200 years which purposes that King Edward of Eng- for the purpose. have elapsed since Britain obtained land is attended at all public func- gladly accepted, and the Turks were kept Empress of Austria's two sisters, the exthe Oriental empire, until about a tions throughout the season, by half amused and entertained until the depart- Queen of Naples, and the Countess of the Oriental empire, until about a tions throughout the season, by half ure of the Chinese mission rendered it possible for them to return to Essen and the King of Wurtemberg, Princess Fredwholesale massacres of Europeans non-commissioned officers, but Indians to resume their quarters in the Essener- erica of Hanover, the Duke and Duchess during the great Sepoy mutiny of of birth and breeding, holding com- hof. 1857, there have been, until the ad- missions in native regiments. With vent to office of England of the pre- the presence in England of perhaps a sent Liberal administration, and the couple of thousand young Indians, a peculiar principles, is that owned and run adoption by John Morley of his radic-number of whom are of the same by Duke Charles Theodore of Bavaria, the famous oculist, who celebrates just a ples, the charges for the rooms being pre-

Islands in his capacity as viceroy, in Until about ten years ago, the white not long in discovering the curative quali-1872; the shooting at another viceroy, man in India was apt to take the ties of the little sulphur spring on the need of a holiday, and of the sulphur Earl Lytton, by a fanatic Indian in law into his own hands, and to inflict 1879; and an attempt to poison Col. summary punishment, in the case of Phayre. British resident and plening any native surrage at the expense of the order used to retire from entertained without the expense to them-Phayre, British resident and plenipo- any native outrage at the expense of time to time to recruit. As years passed selves of a single cent. tentiary in the native court of Ba- white men and women. Justice was this hospital was replaced by one larger; roda, for which the ruler or gaekwar, sharp and swift, even although it was of that state was deposed, one cannot not always in accordance with the was the regular health record of the regular health resort of the developed into a remarkably clever Bonirecall any crime, prior to 1906, that strict letter of the law; any more bears analogy with the one perpethan penalties such as the burying ed into a farmhouse. In 1813, however, it wholly independent of outside supplies. trated last Thursday by the slayer of of the corpse of a man hung for kill- was purchased by King Max of Bavaria. He rears his own cattle, grinds his own There might possibly be some people William Wyllie, who was one of those ing in the ripped open carcass of a men against whom it would seem imbog, which, according to Indian ideas, was used as a convalescent home for the brew his own beer. By this arrangement think that the occasion was of so bepossible for anybody to have harbored defiled him to such an extent as to poor; and when at his death it passed into the working expenses of the establishment are considerably lessened, and at least out any great injury have been nost-Life is held so cheap by Orientals in at the same time bringing lasting disgeneral, and by the people of India grace on his family. This is no entertained there. It was his wish that hand to be used in the entertainment of years. (Laughter.) But those people ity from harm enjoyed by British dig- and punishment of the kind mentionnitaries, both high and low, in the ed, have been done away with by the scruples about killing a fellow-creature authority over Englishmen, which is or to the fear of the ordinary capital subversive of all native ideas of the punishment which the crime would Englishman's supremacy; and the have necessary entailed. Nor can it consequence is that killings and outbe attributed to any affection and lik- rages on the part of natives at the Story of the Great Com- replying. It is certain that the Waging of the natives for their English expense of the English in India, and masters. They are no different from in Britain, will become more and more would infinitely prefer oppression, The slayer of Wyllie will undoubttyranny, extortion and insecurity of edly be hanged unless he manages to life and property under a native die in prison before going to the scafregime, to a well ordered, benevolent fold. His execution is not likely to that the married life of Carlyle and his Minna write to a friend on the death however, only be obtained in the dusk and efficient government on the part act as a deterrent to his country- wife was not in every respect an ideal of Frau Wesendonck's son.

The strange immunity from harm course, would not be tolerated by pubpart to the prestige of the white races | King Leopold of Belgium would apamong the various nationalities of In- pear to be riding for a fall, and to years ago. It has also been due to capitulate the long list of grievances the fact that each English dignitary which they have against him; griev- hangs like a heavy curtain behind all live with her; that, with the rarest of any importance in India, is guarded ances in connection with the negotia- the acts and passages in the home life exceptions, he writes to her in the by native orderlies, who are respon- tions that culminated in the transfor- of the great musician. sible for the safety of their charge, mation of the Congo Free State into There are certain regiments of the a Belgian colony; grievances concernnative army, and certain divisions of ing his private life; grievances relatthe magnificent native constabulary, ing to his sensational and unsavory that have the privilege of furnishing quarrels with his late wife, and with these orderlies; and the native offi- his daughters; and more recent grievcers and men regard it as a point of ances over his sale abroad to the honor that their representative whom highest bidder, of all the fine collectheir duty, even by the commands of Not content with selling all his pictheir trust, that is to say, the safety thing left in his palaces of Brussels suspicion of pistol, poison or dagger, say to it all?" of their charge; and their quiet but and of Laken, and of his villa in On the contrary, the book is full of And again:

placed beyond the reach of Belgian law abroad. Belgians are beside themselves with indignation.

While much space has been devoted hotel maintained by Mme. Krupp in Essen. It is remarkable in this sense, that the principal guests, that is to say, room has been found after all the requirements and conveniences of the non-paying guests have been attended to.

of the representatives of foreign governments visiting Essen for the purpose of purchasing war material, or who stay in Essen to superintend the execution of true that in these letters we only hear the last. these orders. Emissaries from the Em- one side of the matter; but it is also perors of Japan and of Russia, from the true that, as Mr. Ellis notes, it is easy Kings of Roumania, Bulgaria, Spain, Nor- to "reconstitute" the letters of the way and Sweden, as well as from the presidents of the Central and South American republics, have all be enterime, and in the most princely fashion. large suite, to place orders on behalf of Krupp found herself somewhat in a quan-

expense, under the guidance of a young lives in the hotel, and plays the host in The invitation was are to be met there at every turn. The

Another hotel, conducted on still more Kreuth. Benedictine monks, who had their head- hotel during the three months quarters in Tegernsee, obtained possession spring and the three months of the auof all the land in that neighborhood. The tumn, poor artists, officers, professors monks, skillful doctors in their way, were and literary men; persons of education, ution. Funds were low in the Bavarian surrounded him, frowning as heavily on the streets they composed as if tained without money. they were every one inhabited by the King Max's widow and son resolved to try an experiment. They set to work to see whether the natural advantages of ten young men of the Calender's story. who blackned their faces and bemoan-Kreuth could not be turned to account ed their miseries every night." as a means of raising funds for charity.

One knows, as Dickens knew-none The old buildings were furbished up and new ones erected, until accommodation London; but to the stranger and the foreigner it was apt to assume the appearance of a nightmare:

thronged with visitors, mostly South "It would be far worse (says Wag-Germans, who come and go, and pay their ner), if I had to go on dining at a restaurant; I should never get away under 6 shillings, as I can neither drink beer nor the fiery English wine, > poisoned by food and drink that were abhorrent to him, but he had to explain to his charming wife how it was that he came to spend so much money on the process of being poisoned.

MR. BIRRELL AND HENRY THE FIRST

Witty and Eloquent Speech of the Irish Secretary at secretary for Ireland, recently unveiled a monument erected in the Forbury Gardens, Reading, to the memory of Henry I., by Dr. Jamieson B. Hurry There was a large attendance. Mr. Birrell, in the course of his re marks, said he was very proud, although somewhat surprised-to find himself there that afternoon in those beautiful gardens with an invitation to unveil a memorial to one of Reading's most accomplished citizens, his late King Henry I. (Laughter.) think that the occasion was of so becondition attached that a certain number the end of the paying season the duke out any great injury have been postcould not deny that in 1136 the body of that great king was laid to its last rest with every circumstance of pomp and glory in the abbey hard by. But perhaps those people deficient in the historic sense might go on to observe long time ago. (Hear, hear.) That all depended on how they counted time, and how they felt about it. It someners lived in hell, and that nine- times seemed to him an unended space tenths of this hell were the creation of time, since in days long ago, in the of Minna. And that certainly is not early sixties of the last century, when diminished by one of Mr. Ellis' notes. he was a boy at school across the Minna, as has been said, was jealous river, he made their town a place of enchantment and of secret and woncentury and the middle of the nineteenth century. They were all a long time ago. But here at all events in Reading, in those Forbury Gardens, Henry I. was their great and greatest local magnate, their pious founder, and but for him and his abbey it was with-constituency. (Laughter.) A Great Figure in English History. Outside Reading, Henry I. was also a great figure, one of the most interesting figures in the fascinating pages Here, for example, is the manner in of English history. He was, as they all lies know exactly what is expected of himself, with the money paid to them hell; only, oddly enough, the names of writing until this instant. Ach! and had been crowned king and queen—the ruin of a ruin; and it was imposplaces and people are English." It is the stockings! and the cigars! and the (laughter)—and then he was born, sible to help asking how this came not that the tale is tragical in the brush! and the knife into the bargain! like many another honest man after about. They might read it all in the their ward himself no matter how tures and statuary, the king has now ordinary sense of that word; there is No; it's really too much for a poor him, so it was said in Yorkshire. heautiful book of Dr. Hurry—(cheers) many a plotted outrage in the past; Albert comes to the throne, he will gowns, the bus lares in the Longon pand Accept my nearly conespecially outrages at the hands of find all the royal palaces entirely of the fifties, the price of lodgings, the gratulations on your birthday; you father, that tough old warrior, in the and unchallengeable for centuries, long suspected that some woman infortieth year of his age, set himself to native fanatics, crazed by religion, or empty; nothing but the bare walls.

racial hatred.

flavor of the soup, the inconvenience may be sure I shall keep it with great fortieth year of his age, set himself to the soup, the inconvenience may be sure I shall keep it with great fortieth year of his age, set himself to the soup, the inconvenience may be sure I shall keep it with great fortieth year of his age, set himself to the soup, the inconvenience may be sure I shall keep it with great fortieth year of his age, set himself to the soup, the inconvenience may be sure I shall keep it with great fortieth year of his age, set himself to the soup, the inconvenience may be sure I shall keep it with great fortieth year of his age, set himself to the soup, the inconvenience may be sure I shall keep it with great fortieth year of his age, set himself to the soup, the inconvenience may be sure I shall keep it with great fortieth year of his age, set himself to the soup, the inconvenience may be sure I shall keep it with great fortieth year of his age, set himself to the soup, the inconvenience may be sure I shall keep it with great fortieth year of his age, set himself to the soup, the inconvenience may be sure I shall keep it with great fortieth year of his age, set himself to the soup, the inconvenience may be sure I shall keep it with great fortieth year of his age, set himself to the soup, the inconvenience may be sure I shall keep it with great fortieth year of his age, set himself to the soup, the inconvenience may be sure I shall keep it with great fortieth year of his age, set himself to the soup, the inconvenience may be sure I shall keep it with great fortieth year of his age, set himself to the soup, the inconvenience may be sure I shall keep it with great fortieth year of his age, set himself to the soup, the inconvenience may be sure I shall keep it with great fortieth year of his age, set himself to the soup in If there is any truth in the stories vestige of his property beyond the bill, the effects produced by a new you! ... Now, farewell, dear, good enterprise in despair. (Laughter.) His Canterbury, attended by ten bishops veigled into both. Let a boy and a girl to the effect that Indian revolutionists have inaugurated, with the killing of Wyllie, a series of analogous outrages against public men in Engoutrages of hand again, Cauterbury, attended by ten bishops veigled into both. Let a boy and a gray and learned our language from his
to bring the wbims of the purg dog, with the will a second letter from you; may it bring the weblant of the land, it will be necessary to import dren with a right to a considerable homelier than most of these pages, be merry, and so rejoice Thy R.... the daughter of the sister of Edgar walls. portion of the estate. But these laws and one feels that the fate of Paolo What gladdens me most is that your Atheling, and therefore had the pruof course do not apply to the prop and Francesca in the accursed air was reports on your health are turning out dence and foresight to blend the blood within the walls of the church and does not understand just how it dence and foresight to blend the blood within the walls of the abbey great pened. But he usually marches within the walls of the abbey great pened. But he usually marches within the walls of the abbey great pened. But he usually marches within the walls of the abbey great pened. But he usually marches are the blood within the walls of the abbey great pened. But he usually marches are the blood within the walls of the abbey great pened. But he usually marches are the blood within the walls of the abbey great pened. But he usually marches are the blood within the walls of the abbey great pened. But he usually marches are the blood within the walls of the abbey great pened. But he usually marches are the blood within the walls of the abbey great pened. But he usually marches are the blood within the walls of the abbey great pened. But he usually marches are the blood within the walls of the abbey great pened. But he usually marches are the blood within the walls of the abbey great pened. But he usually marches are the blood within the walls of the abbey great pened. of course de not apply to the prop- and Palacese in the decardant with so well; they give me fixed hope that the may have invested or that of Richard and Minna Wagner in the whole journey will do you a world hero, with that of the fiery duke, his consecrated narliaments were even a comfortable villa at Zurich. Richard of good; and then you shall have it did not domesticate the Recording with me here as in heaven, nothing and won the crown of this realm at held, councils were held, and no single did not domesticate the Recording with me here as in heaven, nothing and won the crown of this realm at monarch or queen or any distinguish a "sundae" would put a penny in the monarch or queen or any distinguish nlate to erect a monument to the in-Angel: he tried to make a pet of the but bliss and delight!—What do you the battle of Hastings. Well, this Henry ed inhabitant of the land ever failed ventress of ice cream, they could build to them therefore the thanks of a long The Problems of His Day.

The problems that vexed the mind an Unveiling. Mr. Augustine Birrell, M. P., chief were very much the same problems his Government with the Krupps. Frau Krupp found herself somewhat in a quan

"standing" champagne is false, one His."

The languages, the Norman-French and was an old thought that noble the old English, and he had, poor man, church should have been at once deserving found herself somewhat in a quan
"standing" champagne is false, one His." his troubles with the curch. (Hear, crated and allowed to fall into com-makes because it never makes an error It costs nothing to own a NATIONAL CASH REGISTER A strong statement but true. 750,000 live merchants the world over have Let us show YOU. Post Card brings price list and full information. The National Cash Register Co. F. E. Mutton, Manager for Canade 285 Yonge Street Agent for London, A. A. ULLYO1

Always

Food Fads may come and go, but goes on forever. It contains more real nutriment than meat or eggs and is more easily digested. Try it for breakfast.

SHREDDED

dia: a prestige that has almost wholly be bent on exasperating his people to suffer revision. The shadows in the to a few words. And the astonishing never might have been—(hear, hear)— in the bounds of possibility that they much must be said, that nevery an ever might have been—(hear, hear)—

the victories of the the point of their removing him from never might have been—(hear, hear)—

the victories of the the point of their removing him from never might have been—(hear, hear)—

the victories of the the point of their removing him from never might have been—(hear, hear)—

the victories of the the point of their removing him from never might have been—(hear, hear)—

the victories of the the point of their removing him from never might have been—(hear, hear)—

the victories of the the point of their removing him from never might have been—(hear, hear)—

the victories of the the point of their removing him from never might have been—(hear, hear)—

the victories of the the point of their removing him from never might have been—(hear, hear)—

the victories of the the point of their removing him from never might have been—(hear, hear)—

the victories of the the point of their removing him from never might have been—(hear, hear)—

the victories of the the point of their removing him from never might have been—(hear, hear)—

the victories of the the point of their removing him from never might have been—(hear, hear)—

the victories of the the point of their removing him from never might have been—(hear, hear)— the victories of the the point of their removing him from never might have been never might have n former story will seem a pure bright- thing is that Richard Wagner bore and even his friend, Mr. Rufus Isaacs, mained unsettled. (Laughter.) He be- Reading no doubt contributed to the would have had to find some other lieved that when this planet of ours melancholy result, but in reading the spun off its axis and finally disappear- history it was impossible to deny ed into space there would be no ques- that the people of Reading, their foretion of speculation or of controversy fathers, took very little interest, asswhich would be otherwise than unset-thetic or otherwise, in one of the tled, (Laughter,) However, we had to noblest structures that ever graced act in our own day according to the the country. New, happily, he was more miserable or more dispiriting which he addressed his Megaera, who knew, of course, the fourth and last the First dealt with the problems that and it was with great pleasure and with recording to be considered to the problems that and it was with great pleasure and with recording of pride and log a more miserable or more dispiriting record than that presented by Mr. W. had apparently been sending him some trifling presents:

Ashton Ellis in his translation of Wag
Washing a more miserable or more dispiriting had apparently been sending him some trifling presents;

Was the only one of William's children of courage, and on the whole as a man that he was able that day to unveil that he was able that day to unveil that he had apparently been sending him some trifling presents;

Was the only one of William's children of courage, and on the whole as a man that he was able that day to unveil that he had apparently been sending him some trifling presents: Ashton Eins in his translation of wagner's letters to his first wife. "Richard "Ach! Ach! Ach! -You quite prodi- who was born on English soil. He did of good faith, and it behooved us to do that noble cross, and thus to testify. to Minna Wagner" (2 vols. Portraits. giously good wife! Ach! Oh! Oh! how not, like so many people, come over the same. But there is Reading they that they and we, Englishmen to-Grevel. 24s. net) reminds me of Ros-shall I thank you? My, what lovely with the Conqueror. (Laughter.) Like thought of Henry the First as the gether, gloried in our history and desetti's famous remark as to "Wuther- nuts they are! I've been so busy nut- the sensible and far-seeing corpusele founder of the great abbey, on the 18th lighted to honor the memories of the ing Heights"; "The scene is laid in eating, that I couldn't get to letter- that he was he waited until his parents of June, 1121, just 788 years ago, now great men who made it. (Cheers.) lofty his rank. They have no concern summoned from Paris and from Lon- no hint of battle or murder or sud- waterman. Ach! you immensely good (Laughter.) Well, at all events, he, like —an admirable book which would for- beauty. grace and social charm, but after long and distant years, George of the place near which they stood. It for her greatest achievement—the in Incessant watchfulness at all hours, even on the occasions when danger seems least to threaten, has frustrated many a plotted outrage in the past; many a plotted outrage in the past; especially outrages at the hands of the fifties. The price of lodgings, the long of the fifties and of Laken, and of his villa in On the contrary, the book is full of the contrary.

Ostend, such as silver, chandeliers, homely—sometimes of over-homely—sometimes are accomplishment with sale abroad. Indeed, when Prince at the contract of the contract o

Within the walls of the church and does not understand just how it hap-

I. had a long and difficult reign, and during some portion or another of a tower so tall that it would make the Avenging Demon. In 1836, when say to that.

Richard was twenty-three, he married He calls her "kitten," and "pussy," to detain them by talking about any these long centuries to visit Reading Washington monument look like a these long centuries to visit Reading Washington monument. by the newspapers to the enumeration of the long list of ironworks, iron and coal an actress, and from that year till the "rattlesnake" and "viper" would have clesiastical, military or domestic, and yet suddenly, son who first made ice cream, they tell abbey or church. And yet suddenly, us that it was the wife of a young steamboat lines, shooting ranges, etc., whether the husband ever experienced subject to the sway of young Frau Bersubject to the young Frau Bersubject to the sway of young Frau Bersubject to the subject to the sway of young Frau Berthank Krupp, and of her husband, the former secretary of legation. Von Bohlen, that was wholly on happy woman is always expressed in the assets of the concern being estimated the one side; perhaps Wagner was not terms of the fond lover who is foolish,

The inhabitants of Reading, men and women just like his hearers, stood and women just like his hearers, stood apparently guiltily by and allowed the derive wife. They were one in achieved

The inhabitants of Reading, men and women just like his hearers, stood apparently guiltily by and allowed the derive wife. They were one in achieved

The inhabitants of Reading, men and women just like his hearers, stood apparently guiltily by and allowed the derive wife. They were one in achieved. the assets of the concern being estimated the one side; pernaps Wagner was not letters of the company always quite devoid of reproach. There and knows that he is foolish. There should be one in blameless life and of sound character, immortality.—Baltimore Sun. mitred abbot of Reading, a man of ment; they should be one in fame and at over $110,000,000, no mention has been was a Frau Wesendonck, for example, made of the Essenerhof, a remarkable of whom Frau Wagner was jealous, devotion; letters in which Richard repicturesque old chroniclers, who, he picturesque old chroniclers, who, he gateway of his own home. The monks gateway of his own home. The monks. even in this matter she seems to have married life, with its trials and priv- and could be obtained on the stalls of his companions were scattered pennibeen ever since the day that Thomas tions. be egotistical, that he had a right to and implores her to remember the ond-hand booksellers of Reading were a Becket hallowed the church, and MINARD'S LINIMENT RELIEVES say: "I have work to do, and that good alone, to forget all that had been among his earliest and most indulgent ever since Henry I. erected the ab- NEURALGIA. bev. They, the monks, had been owners of great properties and dispensers of great charity, the main features of the place, the authors and builders of Reading; and yet in the hour of their and tried the temper of this great king displacement and their shame apparently nobody lifted a hand on their that troubled us in these days. His behalf. How that might be he could Wagner visited London in 1855, and was a time of conciliation. His was a not stop to consider, and indeed to do wretched Minna. When a man writes some of his experiences and sensations time of the mitigation of racial jeal- so would be dangerous. (Laughter.) to his wife that London is really very are curious enough. His letters from ousies and the obliteration of the signs But that unhallowed event did not octained in the Essenerhof for months at a dear, that the omnibuses cost much London remind me of a passage in of battlefields still within the memory cur in the reign of the first Henry, but more than in Paris, that his dinner "Little Dorrit," when Mr. Arthur of man. It was a time of the beginning of the eighth, and between the two Some two or three years ago a Chinese only comes to so much, that he can- Clennam, "newly arrived from Mar. of empire. He had to deal with rival there was a considerable gap. But it envoy arrived from Pekin, with a very not get it at a cheaper rate, that the seilles by way of Dover sat in the languages, the Norman-French and was an odd thought that that noble

INVENTOR OF ICE CREAM.

suddenly finds himself engaged. bravely and finds that he enjoys both

The Sultan of Morocco's expedition against El Roghi has met with a that the principal guests, that is to say, those for whose use it is chiefly designed, are never called on to pay for their ac that the principal guests, that is to say, those book shops for which he was are never called on to pay for their ac that the principal guests, that is to say, contrived to transmute a trifling cut into an open sore. And then Wagner far from faultless; excuses her evil famous—(cheers)—for here he might was raised. And yet there they had a Nubian giant of immense proportion. The rebel troops numbered about 2,000, and were commanded by

Blue blood is a

Good red blood is a matter of matter of birth.

Abbey's Effer-Salt

Get rid of the Headaches, the Pimples and Bad Breathpurify the Blood-with Abbey's Salt.

AT DRUGGISTS, 25c. and 60c.

in particular, that the relative secur- longer possible. Summary justice, Kreuth should remain a charitable insti- the non-paying guests. nitaries, both high and low, in the ed, have been done away with by the great eastern dependency of the Brit- present regime. One finds natives Richard Wagner And His First Wife historic sense might go on to observe that Jan. 4, 1136, was a very

poser's Unhappy Marriage.

of any foreign power. There is a striking instance in Egypt, where every native hates the English, although he owes to the latter his prostored in their eyes his negity and well-being made for striking in their eyes his negity and well-being made for compromising in their eyes his negity and well-being made for compromising in their eyes his negity and well-being made for compromising in their eyes his negity and well-being made for compromising in their eyes his negity and well-being made for strike and wesendoners son.

"May God hold every blow of Fate away from that cold woman spoilt by away from that cold woman spoilt by away from that cold woman spoilt by and well-being made for Carlyle's occasional acrimonies, and for Carlyle's tortured providence. I was always thinking, and over-emphasized self-represented an ideal wesendoners son.

"May God hold every blow of Fate away from that cold woman spoilt by hear.) And so in the crisk of apostolic stripes if discovered. (Hear, happiness, but I believe there is a acrimonies, and for Carlyle's tortured providence. I was always thinking, and over-emphasized self-represented to make the country.

"May God hold every blow of Fate away from that cold woman spoilt by hear.) And so in the crisk death, will be regarded by them as no discovered. (Hear, happiness, but I believe there is a acrimonies, and for Carlyle's tortured providence. I was always thinking, and the crisk death was formed as the crisk death was hereafter, by defiling his remains in and over-emphasized self-reproaches, only our Lord God would suddenly the manner described, which, of one must still admit that though the check such sauciness through the illbeen good, yet it might have been bet- gives me a shudder."

A Supreme Failure.

I do not think that I have ever read ever called on to pay are those for whom world agrees that he had a right to ground of ill-health and "nerve-strain" be permitted to observe that the sec-The Essenerhof is maintained by Frau work is much too important to be amiss; entreats that their remaining creditors—(laughter)—and he extended Krupp at a loss estimated at considerably ruined and annulled by your petty days may be spent at least in calm, over $100,000 a year, for the entertainment rages, your petty jealousies, your petty if not in happiness. These appeals life.

not wholly without reason, though calls to Minna the early days of their was glad to say, were now reprinted,

It is agreed, I suppose, on all hands, of Frau Wesendonck; and thus does whole sum of the marriage may have ness of a child-and now see! O, it ter. But if one turns from the do- It gives me a shudder! For I do not mestic his tory of the Carlyles to the think that I have ever seen such virumestic history of the Carlyles to the lent hypocrisy, malignity, and blasna Wagner, then this judgment will phemy as here appears condensed inness when brought into comparison with this truly horrible woman for with the sheer black misery that thirty years; that he did his best to fashion of an ardent lover. The Forebearance of Wagner.

quarrels, your petty grievances, your were quite unavailing; the termagant tornadoes in a doll's teacup." It is remained, it seems, a termagant to dary, as all the best rooms in the hotel knows to what sort of a letter he is "Ten thousand responsible houses hear.) He (Mr. Birrell) was afraid this plete ruin. It was no easy task for a

Wagner in London.