E., Croton—72 handkerchiefs, 9 washcloths, 4 safety pins, 12 helpless shirts, 48 kit bags, 12 pillowcases, 32 towels, 3 boxes writing paper, 1 package absorbent cotton, 23 packages tobacco, 17 cakes soap, rum, Sir John French Chapter, I. The 7th Regiment Chapter is now devoting all its energies to the work of raising money for the purchase of an ambulance for the London camp. The fund is rapidly growing, and tag day, June 17, will doubtless bring it up to high water mark.

The Campbell Becher Chapter met on June 12 in their rooms, and tag day. It was decided to subscribe for the city papers, to be sent to the members of the Pioneer Battalion, St. Andrews by the ship, and an informal dance will be held at the pavilion, Springbank, on June 16. Proceeds for the blind soldiers' fund.

CANADIAN WAR CONTINGENT
The following has been received from the secretary of the C. W. C. A., London, England, acknowledging the notice of shipment of boxes to Queen's Canadian Military Hospital, Shorncliffe:

LONDON, MAY 25, 1916.
Dear Mrs. Campbell—I have just received your letter of May 6, notifying me that you have shipped us twelve cases of hospital supplies. It is wonderful to me how much you contrive to do, and in addition to what you send us, to look after your sick and wounded at home, must mean a tremendous amount of work.

I am very grateful for your promise to do what you can to send us the supplies I mentioned in a previous letter. We really need such things more than surgical dressings or hospital linen and garments. However, I am delighted to tell you that we were able to send out a very fine consignment the other day to one of the needy French hospitals, and among the articles forwarded were a considerable number sent in by your chapters. I think myself it is nice to feel that the name of the Daughters of the Empire is being thought of in connection with the splendid supplies for the sick and wounded in the French hospitals. With grateful thanks,

Sincerely yours,
ELIZABETH MCLEAREN BROWN,
Honorary Secretary Ladies' Committee,

[Correspondents are requested to make their inquiries as brief as possible, and to write on one side of the paper only. It is impossible to give replies within a stated time, as all letters have to be answered in turn. No letter can be answered privately.]

A Business-Like Way.

Dear Miss Grey—In reading your page today I see where "Elizabeth Anne" was asking for tobacco coupons. I have only two or three but will send them in, and if anyone else sends some for her just slip them in for her.

Has anyone got any more white satin flags? I would like very much to get them, and as many as possible. In return I have embroidery pattern in grapes for an oval centrepiece; a rose with scroll and edging for pillow slips, and a large waterlily with two leaves suitable for corner of a square lunch cloth.

For those that prefer crocheting I can send insertion patterns suitable for cover set cover tops, with directions, or I have a few narrow edgings which are real pretty. I have a few readings also which I will exchange for flags. With those wanting embroidery patterns, insertion patterns or readings, please send at least one dozen flags for each pattern? I will leave my address with Miss Grey. If readers will pay postage to me on flags, I will pay postage back on patterns.

I saw where someone was asking how to take ring left by gasoline out of goods. I had a light colored skirt and I got it soiled so I tried gasoline, and it left a ring, so I got some wood alcohol and dampened the ring with it, then scraped on pipe clay until well covered and dampened with turpentine. Leave until dried and then brush off. It sometimes helps to put on twice. It took all the ring off mine, and is fine to remove stains. It is best to try it on a sample first, as it may not be so good for some cloth as others. Thanking you in advance, I remain,

THE NEIGHBOUR.
Ans.—You are to be commended for your business-like way of offering to exchange, and should surely receive some flags in answer. Your envelope was sent on to "True Patriot" at the time; if she did not reply, I am sorry.

Twenty-One's Socks.

Dear Miss Grey—I'm sending my address for the soldiers' names who need socks. If you will send me two names I think I can manage them—or rather, socks for them. As "Twenty-One" is a "mere man," I don't suppose it occurred to him to mention whether the socks were large or some of our boys' socks. It really is rather necessary to have an idea of their size to knit socks that they could wear. If he has sent any particulars would you please send them on to me, too? If "Jett" wants to knit for the whole four of the soldiers (I'm convinced she is thoroughly energetic), whose names "Twenty-One" sent in, why let him wait for the next contingent of names? I'd hate to see anyone overloaded with laundry!

I missed "Twenty-One's" first letter, so may I ask if he wanted cookies just as all good (?) little boys like cookies or has he no relatives to bake them for him? Now, don't get cross, for I think "Twenty-One" is a brick, and I'm glad that at least I have one thing in common with him—21 the 2nd.

SWASTIKA.
Ans.—I understand that it is "Jett's" intention to send socks to the four of them, so shall keep your envelope until "Twenty-One" supplies two more.

Sometimes a Success—

Sometimes a Failure.

Pupils of equally good ability should always make an equally great success with their musical study. The fact is, however, that they do not. The reason that many students fail is that they are in the hands of incompetent teachers. The only sure way is to study at an institution such as the L. C. M., where teachers must be competent in every respect.

Words and Music.

"The Armada" wants words and music of "Where River Shannon Flows" and "I Don't Want to Play in Your Yard." Afraid I do not know what will clear your pipe. It is a white one? Then it might help to rub French chalk into the material and leave for a few hours before brushing it out. The watch case may be cleaned with vaseline, though this is apt to darken the leather.

This Bush Yields only 2 1/2 ozs. yearly.

A very small yield considering the size of the bush. It takes about 6 1/2 bushes to yield a pound of ordinary tea—and about 10 bushes to yield a pound of Red Rose Tea, as only the tender shoots and buds are used to produce the distinctive flavor and richness which characterize this high-grade tea. In sealed packages only. Try it.

RECOLLECTIONS

After an absence from my home town of many years' duration, my return was accompanied by pleasing sensations, mingled with sadness. It was a pleasure that throughout the long years so many had borne me in kindly remembrance, while an aching pain marked the absence of others once so familiar.
