Ottawa, Aug. 5.—By Canadian Press.—Regulations governing the marking of imports with the name of the country of origin, which comes into effect on October 1, have been drafted by the department of customs and excise practically in the form which it is expected they will be made effective.

trade, which will be held on Monday next, and at which the present draft of regulations will be laid before the exporters. It is expected that the bringing into force of the new regulations on October 1 will have a salutary effect on the movement for the use of Canadian products wherever necessary, as every article imported must, under the new law, have the name of the country of origin stamped plainly on the outside.

wrapper. In this way Canadian purchasers will be able to see at a glance whether or not they are buying "made-in-Canada" goods.
