

ABOUT SUNDAY OBSERVANCE

MR. CHARLTON RIDES HIS HOBBY INTO EVERETT FIELD.

But He Could Not Prevent Justice From Rendering Verdicts On the Subsequent Three Divisions of Grand Jury. A Kick Against Inducing Immigration From the United States to Canada.

OTTAWA, March 24.—This has been a fairly good working day, and although Mr. Charlton has lost a good deal of time in the afternoon, his Sunday observations on the Criminal Code and into the appointments of World's Fair Commissioners, still a number of Government bills have been passed, and on the whole satisfactory progress has been made, so that the prospect of protraction taking place next Saturday remains good.

The bills respecting the inspection of petroleum and amending the act respecting land in the Northwest Territories were introduced and read a first time, but Mr. Foster explained with respect to the latter that it was not intended to press it this year.

The House went into committee on the bill amending the Criminal Code. Mr. Charlton moved to repeal clause 729, which permits a court to receive a verdict from a jury of Sunday.

Mr. Justice thought the repeal of the clause might induce jurors to give hasty judgments so as to get through before midnight on Saturday and avoid being locked up on Sunday.

Mr. Charlton objected to any judicial proceedings of any kind taking place on Sunday.

Mr. Justice thought it most unfair to lock the jurymen up on Sunday and prevent their going to church.

Mr. Tisdale thought that the judges could be depended on to see the law carried out in a Christian spirit. He did not think it would further Sabbath observance to lock a jury up over Sunday when the verdict may be ready a few minutes after midnight.

After some further discussion the amendment was lost by a vote in committee of 24 for to 55 against.

McMillen's Strange Idea. Mr. McMillen offered an amendment that the verdict might be rendered, but no other judicial act be performed on the day.

Mr. Justice thought that the judge ought surely to be allowed to discharge a prisoner if he was found innocent, and the clerk of the court should record the judgment.

The amendment was lost and the committee rose and reported, as the bill was not a third time passed.

The House went into committee on the resolution to provide for the salaries of two commissioners to be appointed to the Dominion of Wales.

Hon. Mr. Foster explained that what was wanted was that a member of the House should be appointed to the Senate, and the resolution was finally amended by striking out the word "services" and substituting "expenses" and was sent back to appoint one of both commissioners from the members of the House.

Mr. Charlton moved an amendment to the effect that such payment of expenses be made conditional on the Canadian section of the fair being closed on order and the resolution was reported. Six o'clock.

Divorce Bills. After recess a number of private bills were passed, including the divorce bills of James Frederic Doran, Annette Maria Coffey and Francis Schwallier.

The House then went into committee on the railway subsidy resolutions and discussed them for a few minutes.

New Appointments. To-morrow's Canada Gazette will contain the appointment of Chief Justice Laocoe to the administration of the Province of Quebec, under the absence of Lieut.-Governor Chaplain, and of Chief Justice Taylor, as administrator of the Province of Manitoba, under the absence of Lieut.-Governor Schulz.

Mr. Hugh Mackenzie Wilson, Q.C., has been appointed Deputy-Judge of the County of Brant.

The postoffice act passed on Tuesday night and stamps to the value of $30 taken.

Manitoba Settlers. In the committee on Agriculture this morning Mr. A. M. Burgess, Deputy Minister at the Interior, has been called to the steps taken to promote emigration from the United States. Mr. Carpenter thought that it was a waste of money to look after the health of the live stock of Canada because they were not successful, who had not succeeded.

States and who were not likely to be successful anywhere. Dr. Roome and Mr. McCreag also spoke against spending money to look after the health of the live stock (Animals) said that these immigrants had been brought into Canada from the United States and had no diseases.

A resolution was passed recognizing the services of Professor Robertson in connection with the dairy industry of Canada and recommending his employment on the permanent staff of the Central Experimental Farm at a good salary.

Cattle Diseases. Another resolution was passed recommending the appointment of a competent veterinary surgeon, whose duty it would be to look after the health of the live stock of the country, and to whom all communications could be addressed from persons who had reason to believe that their herds were in any way affected. This officer was to be invested with full authority, on the receipt of such communication, to take immediate and prompt measures to arrest and eradicate the disease.

Seasonal Allowances. Hon. Mr. Foster gives notice to-night that he will move a resolution on Monday similar to the one adopted last year with reference to the deduction from the seasonal allowance of members. Last year it was provided that 12 days should be allowed to members, but this year it was reduced to six. Of course it only applies to members who have been absent.

Col. Denison thought it gives notice that on the third reading of the act respecting the Toronto, Hamilton & Buffalo Railway Co. he will move "That the said bill be read a third time on the following to clause six: That the portion of the said railway lying between Port Credit and Mimico shall terminate at the latter place, and the said line be transferred to the Ontario & Western Railway Co."

Don's visit. Lecture by E. M. Martin, B.C.A., on Northwest and Rocky Mountain country, illustrated by Miss Light, at Art Gallery, Academy of Music, Tuesday evening next. Admission 25 cents. Tickets at Martin's, Stationer.

E. S. Nolan & Co., tailors of Hamilton, and formerly of this city, have commenced a tailoring establishment at 89 Yonge-street. The premises are not quite complete, but they will take stock in and are taking orders for spring clothing. 6348.

Dick & Wilson, architects, 170 Yonge-street. 245

BIG PROHIBITION CONFERENCE.

Important Conference of the Various Temperance Leagues Yesterday—Provincial Meeting Called for August.

An important conference was held yesterday at the office of the Dominion Alliance in this city. It was the outcome of a resolution adopted at the annual session of the R. T. of T. held in Galt last month.

The chief officers of the W.C.T.U., Ont., Dominion Alliance, S. of T., L.O.G.T., R. T. of T. and advanced prohibitionists were present, also representatives of Christian Endeavor work.

Mr. W. W. Buchanan presided in the early part of the meeting, but was obliged to leave later in the day, and Rev. W. K. Kellwell took his place. F. S. Spence acted as secretary.

After a good deal of earnest consultation it was decided that a call should be issued for a representation of provincial prohibition workers to be held in Toronto on August 22 and 23 next to discuss the position of the prohibition cause in the various provinces. The call will be signed by the heads of the bodies named and will invite co-operation from every church, society, church, clergy, league and other organization favorable to the temperance cause.

It is anticipated under the auspices under which the convention is to be held and the present critical situation will make the proposed meeting one of unusual magnitude and importance.

TIERED OFF LIFE.

Richard Freeman Tried to Cut His Own Throat.

CHATEAUX, Ont., March 24.—For nearly two years old Dick Freeman, as he is known, has been in failing health and during the last six months has been confined to bed for the greater part of the time. Of late he has been in a more cheerful mood and has been in the habit of getting up and about the house, but he was kept upon him, though it was not expected that he would attempt to take his own life.

While his brother-in-law, Mr. Thomas Hanbury, who has been attending him, has been in the habit of getting up and about the house, but he was kept upon him, though it was not expected that he would attempt to take his own life.

While his brother-in-law, Mr. Thomas Hanbury, who has been attending him, has been in the habit of getting up and about the house, but he was kept upon him, though it was not expected that he would attempt to take his own life.

While his brother-in-law, Mr. Thomas Hanbury, who has been attending him, has been in the habit of getting up and about the house, but he was kept upon him, though it was not expected that he would attempt to take his own life.

While his brother-in-law, Mr. Thomas Hanbury, who has been attending him, has been in the habit of getting up and about the house, but he was kept upon him, though it was not expected that he would attempt to take his own life.

While his brother-in-law, Mr. Thomas Hanbury, who has been attending him, has been in the habit of getting up and about the house, but he was kept upon him, though it was not expected that he would attempt to take his own life.

While his brother-in-law, Mr. Thomas Hanbury, who has been attending him, has been in the habit of getting up and about the house, but he was kept upon him, though it was not expected that he would attempt to take his own life.

While his brother-in-law, Mr. Thomas Hanbury, who has been attending him, has been in the habit of getting up and about the house, but he was kept upon him, though it was not expected that he would attempt to take his own life.

While his brother-in-law, Mr. Thomas Hanbury, who has been attending him, has been in the habit of getting up and about the house, but he was kept upon him, though it was not expected that he would attempt to take his own life.

While his brother-in-law, Mr. Thomas Hanbury, who has been attending him, has been in the habit of getting up and about the house, but he was kept upon him, though it was not expected that he would attempt to take his own life.

While his brother-in-law, Mr. Thomas Hanbury, who has been attending him, has been in the habit of getting up and about the house, but he was kept upon him, though it was not expected that he would attempt to take his own life.

While his brother-in-law, Mr. Thomas Hanbury, who has been attending him, has been in the habit of getting up and about the house, but he was kept upon him, though it was not expected that he would attempt to take his own life.

While his brother-in-law, Mr. Thomas Hanbury, who has been attending him, has been in the habit of getting up and about the house, but he was kept upon him, though it was not expected that he would attempt to take his own life.

While his brother-in-law, Mr. Thomas Hanbury, who has been attending him, has been in the habit of getting up and about the house, but he was kept upon him, though it was not expected that he would attempt to take his own life.

While his brother-in-law, Mr. Thomas Hanbury, who has been attending him, has been in the habit of getting up and about the house, but he was kept upon him, though it was not expected that he would attempt to take his own life.

While his brother-in-law, Mr. Thomas Hanbury, who has been attending him, has been in the habit of getting up and about the house, but he was kept upon him, though it was not expected that he would attempt to take his own life.

While his brother-in-law, Mr. Thomas Hanbury, who has been attending him, has been in the habit of getting up and about the house, but he was kept upon him, though it was not expected that he would attempt to take his own life.

While his brother-in-law, Mr. Thomas Hanbury, who has been attending him, has been in the habit of getting up and about the house, but he was kept upon him, though it was not expected that he would attempt to take his own life.

While his brother-in-law, Mr. Thomas Hanbury, who has been attending him, has been in the habit of getting up and about the house, but he was kept upon him, though it was not expected that he would attempt to take his own life.

While his brother-in-law, Mr. Thomas Hanbury, who has been attending him, has been in the habit of getting up and about the house, but he was kept upon him, though it was not expected that he would attempt to take his own life.

While his brother-in-law, Mr. Thomas Hanbury, who has been attending him, has been in the habit of getting up and about the house, but he was kept upon him, though it was not expected that he would attempt to take his own life.

While his brother-in-law, Mr. Thomas Hanbury, who has been attending him, has been in the habit of getting up and about the house, but he was kept upon him, though it was not expected that he would attempt to take his own life.

THE CYCLONE DOWN SOUTH

ITS PATH WAS TWENTY MILES IN WIDTH.

It Cleans Out Towns, Kills Many People and Destroys Property. Houses Lifted Up and Blown Away—Many Families Homeless—Play of Fantastic Lightning Along the Route—Astray Wrecked.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., March 24.—The path of the cyclone which entered Tennessee yesterday in a southeasterly direction from Mississippi appears to have been about 20 miles in width, although serious damage was confined to a much smaller area. The winds are down in all directions. There is no telegraphic communication with Nashville and intervening points, and little news is obtainable from places visited by the cyclone.

This city barely escaped. A heavy rain fell and a high wind blew at the time the cyclone raged, and it became as dark as night for 30 minutes. Heavy damage was done to trees and small buildings. A train from Birmingham, Ala., arrived late last night, and reports much damage between here and Byhalma, 20 miles east. At 2:30 o'clock this morning the wire at Kelly, Miss., was tapped, and details telegraphed to Memphis, and the reports were not exaggerated.

A despatch from Nashville, Tenn., says: Half of the state passed under the influence of the cyclone, from town to town, which covers 80 acres of ground, was torn to pieces by the cyclone, entailing an enormous loss.

The country 500 in number, which was moved out of the mess hall when the building collapsed.

At Bardonia, a suburban town, was obliterated by the storm and fire. The damage to Nashville property alone is over $100,000. The cyclone plowed its way down the Cumberland Valley and destroyed property and life, but wires are down and nothing definite can be learned.

Another despatch from Memphis says: Not a house escaped the storm's fury. Only a few are left standing and they are badly damaged. The houses of Robert Cox were lifted up and blown away. The house of Robert Stevens is a heap of ruins.

The residence of D. N. Harris, a prominent planter, was wrecked and the houses of four of his tenants were blown away. The house of S. Hudel were blown down. The dwelling house of W. C. Roggs, which faced north, was turned out north face south.

From Chattanooga, Ga., says: A despatch from Indianapolis, Ind., says: A storm, which assumed the proportions of a cyclone, visited Indiana about 9 o'clock last night and left devastation and suffering in its track. In Indianapolis, 50 houses were wrecked in one neighborhood in the northwestern portion. Many families were rendered temporarily homeless. The magnitude of the storm was not known until day dawned.

At Gary, a suburb, many houses were wrecked and several of the smaller ones were carried away. Many of the residents passed the night in the streets.

Fantastic Lightning. The storm was accompanied by a heavy fall of rain and a fantastic play of lightning. The residence of W. C. Roggs, which faced north, was turned out north face south.

The Capital City Coffin Works lost its first order. Along the route, trees were uprooted. Advice from all parts of the state indicates much property damaged and some persons killed.

The loss which occurred in this city, will amount to many thousands of dollars. No lives were lost in this city and only a few persons were injured, and those not seriously.

At Logansport a three-story flouring mill was wrecked and the roof fell. The mill was wrecked and the roof fell. The mill was wrecked and the roof fell.

At Logansport a three-story flouring mill was wrecked and the roof fell. The mill was wrecked and the roof fell. The mill was wrecked and the roof fell.

At Logansport a three-story flouring mill was wrecked and the roof fell. The mill was wrecked and the roof fell. The mill was wrecked and the roof fell.

At Logansport a three-story flouring mill was wrecked and the roof fell. The mill was wrecked and the roof fell. The mill was wrecked and the roof fell.

At Logansport a three-story flouring mill was wrecked and the roof fell. The mill was wrecked and the roof fell. The mill was wrecked and the roof fell.

At Logansport a three-story flouring mill was wrecked and the roof fell. The mill was wrecked and the roof fell. The mill was wrecked and the roof fell.

At Logansport a three-story flouring mill was wrecked and the roof fell. The mill was wrecked and the roof fell. The mill was wrecked and the roof fell.

At Logansport a three-story flouring mill was wrecked and the roof fell. The mill was wrecked and the roof fell. The mill was wrecked and the roof fell.

At Logansport a three-story flouring mill was wrecked and the roof fell. The mill was wrecked and the roof fell. The mill was wrecked and the roof fell.

At Logansport a three-story flouring mill was wrecked and the roof fell. The mill was wrecked and the roof fell. The mill was wrecked and the roof fell.

At Logansport a three-story flouring mill was wrecked and the roof fell. The mill was wrecked and the roof fell. The mill was wrecked and the roof fell.

At Logansport a three-story flouring mill was wrecked and the roof fell. The mill was wrecked and the roof fell. The mill was wrecked and the roof fell.

At Logansport a three-story flouring mill was wrecked and the roof fell. The mill was wrecked and the roof fell. The mill was wrecked and the roof fell.

At Logansport a three-story flouring mill was wrecked and the roof fell. The mill was wrecked and the roof fell. The mill was wrecked and the roof fell.

QUITE A UNIQUE SITUATION.

Sir Julian Paucotote Is Now an Ambassador—The First One Holding That Title in Washington.

WASHINGTON, March 24.—The State Department has received official information that Queen Victoria has raised the rank of Sir Julian Paucotote, the secretary, British Legation, from that of envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary to that of ambassador, and that his credentials as such are on their way here.

Under the provisions of the diplomatic and consular appropriation bill of March 1, 1893, President Cleveland is authorized to confer the same rank upon our representative in London.

Hiberto no ambassador has been accredited to the United States, because the United States did not confer that title upon any of its ministers abroad, and reciprocity is always observed in diplomatic representation.

Sir Julian Paucotote will be the first minister to Washington to hold the title of ambassador, but it is highly probable that the re-appointment of all the British and Austrian will be prompt to follow the example thus set by England and France.

An interesting question thus arises as to whether or not the change of title will necessitate the re-appointment of all the British and Austrian will be prompt to follow the example thus set by England and France.

The Canadian Club at Hamilton Have a Dinner. Hamilton, March 24.—The Canadian Club dinner last night was a very successful one. The club was in the chair, and the vice-chairman was in the chair, and the vice-chairman was in the chair.

At Hamilton, a suburban town, was obliterated by the storm and fire. The damage to Nashville property alone is over $100,000. The cyclone plowed its way down the Cumberland Valley and destroyed property and life, but wires are down and nothing definite can be learned.

Another despatch from Memphis says: Not a house escaped the storm's fury. Only a few are left standing and they are badly damaged. The houses of Robert Cox were lifted up and blown away. The house of Robert Stevens is a heap of ruins.

The residence of D. N. Harris, a prominent planter, was wrecked and the houses of four of his tenants were blown away. The house of S. Hudel were blown down. The dwelling house of W. C. Roggs, which faced north, was turned out north face south.

From Chattanooga, Ga., says: A despatch from Indianapolis, Ind., says: A storm, which assumed the proportions of a cyclone, visited Indiana about 9 o'clock last night and left devastation and suffering in its track.

At Gary, a suburb, many houses were wrecked and several of the smaller ones were carried away. Many of the residents passed the night in the streets.

Fantastic Lightning. The storm was accompanied by a heavy fall of rain and a fantastic play of lightning. The residence of W. C. Roggs, which faced north, was turned out north face south.

The Capital City Coffin Works lost its first order. Along the route, trees were uprooted. Advice from all parts of the state indicates much property damaged and some persons killed.

The loss which occurred in this city, will amount to many thousands of dollars. No lives were lost in this city and only a few persons were injured, and those not seriously.

At Logansport a three-story flouring mill was wrecked and the roof fell. The mill was wrecked and the roof fell. The mill was wrecked and the roof fell.

At Logansport a three-story flouring mill was wrecked and the roof fell. The mill was wrecked and the roof fell. The mill was wrecked and the roof fell.

At Logansport a three-story flouring mill was wrecked and the roof fell. The mill was wrecked and the roof fell. The mill was wrecked and the roof fell.

At Logansport a three-story flouring mill was wrecked and the roof fell. The mill was wrecked and the roof fell. The mill was wrecked and the roof fell.

At Logansport a three-story flouring mill was wrecked and the roof fell. The mill was wrecked and the roof fell. The mill was wrecked and the roof fell.

At Logansport a three-story flouring mill was wrecked and the roof fell. The mill was wrecked and the roof fell. The mill was wrecked and the roof fell.

At Logansport a three-story flouring mill was wrecked and the roof fell. The mill was wrecked and the roof fell. The mill was wrecked and the roof fell.

At Logansport a three-story flouring mill was wrecked and the roof fell. The mill was wrecked and the roof fell. The mill was wrecked and the roof fell.

At Logansport a three-story flouring mill was wrecked and the roof fell. The mill was wrecked and the roof fell. The mill was wrecked and the roof fell.

At Logansport a three-story flouring mill was wrecked and the roof fell. The mill was wrecked and the roof fell. The mill was wrecked and the roof fell.

At Logansport a three-story flouring mill was wrecked and the roof fell. The mill was wrecked and the roof fell. The mill was wrecked and the roof fell.

At Logansport a three-story flouring mill was wrecked and the roof fell. The mill was wrecked and the roof fell. The mill was wrecked and the roof fell.

At Logansport a three-story flouring mill was wrecked and the roof fell. The mill was wrecked and the roof fell. The mill was wrecked and the roof fell.

SHOT DEAD NEAR GANANOQUE.

THE RESULT OF A QUARREL OVER PROPERTY.

Two Old Men Attempt to Terminate Another by Shooting in Order to Secure Possession of a House—One Shot Through the Door and Killed the Other.

GANANOQUE, Ont., March 24.—A case of shooting occurred to-day about eight miles east of here, by which John Fitzsimmons lost his life. The ownership of a house and small piece of land in the locality mentioned and near the St. Lawrence River was in dispute. Fitzsimmons claimed it by right of purchase from all the heirs but one, and Mrs. Joles claimed it as the heir whose interest had not been purchased.

Three weeks ago Mrs. Joles' family moved into the house and took possession of the property, which was previous to that time unoccupied. They lived there undisturbed for two weeks, when one night John Fitzsimmons and three of his sons appeared at the door and demanded the house.

There was considerable resistance, and the assault was the cause of several charges for affray, etc., at the police court here. The cases were tried here on Monday and Tuesday, when the Police Magistrate reversed his decision to-day.

This morning he dismissed all but two of the charges and fined John Fitzsimmons and one of the sons $5 each and costs for assault.

A Dual Decision. Whether this decision was taken as upholding Mr. Joles' rights to the property or not, is not known; but this forenoon she and her husband took their effects back to the place where the shooting occurred, and he went over to the house. Just as they stopped at the door the door was opened by one of the sons and John Fitzsimmons appeared in the doorway and forbade them entering. Shipman attempted to parley with him and attempted to go in the house. Fitzsimmons, according to Shipman's story, fired several times with his revolver and the head with it. Shipman retreated and Fitzsimmons retired to an inner room and closed the door.

Retired Through the Door. At this time Shipman, who had been hunting ducks, came along with his gun, loaded with shot. Shipman took the gun and, going to the door, called out that he was not afraid, but as he could not get in, he fired into the house. The inside door, expecting Fitzsimmons would open suddenly and would be covered by the shot. But the door did not open and in the excitement the gun held by Shipman went off, accidentally, as he says, in the direction of the door. The shot, which had been intended to kill Fitzsimmons, struck him in the head, and he fell dead.

Shipman then came to Gananoque and surrendered to the Police Magistrate. Shipman was held until the head. His wounds are treated, but there is some danger of his not recovering. Waiting in his room in charge of the chief constable, and will be taken to Brockville jail to-morrow.

First—By about a late afternoon bill to hold an inquiry. Fitzsimmons was a large man, 57 years old. One of his sons is a merchant and postmaster at Rockport.

English Members to Be Paid. By a majority of 45 the British House of Commons has resolved to pay the salaries of its members.

London, March 24.—The House of Commons to-day, by a vote of 270 to 229, passed a resolution to pay the salaries of its members.

London, March 24.—The House of Commons to-day, by a vote of 270 to 229, passed a resolution to pay the salaries of its members.

London, March 24.—The House of Commons to-day, by a vote of 270 to 229, passed a resolution to pay the salaries of its members.

London, March 24.—The House of Commons to-day, by a vote of 270 to 229, passed a resolution to pay the salaries of its members.

London, March 24.—The House of Commons to-day, by a vote of 270 to 229, passed a resolution to pay the salaries of its members.

London, March 24.—The House of Commons to-day, by a vote of 270 to 229, passed a resolution to pay the salaries of its members.

London, March 24.—The House of Commons to-day, by a vote of 270 to 229, passed a resolution to pay the salaries of its members.

London, March 24.—The House of Commons to-day, by a vote of 270 to 229, passed a resolution to pay the salaries of its members.

London, March 24.—The House of Commons to-day, by a vote of 270 to 229, passed a resolution to pay the salaries of its members.

London, March 24.—The House of Commons to-day, by a vote of 270 to 229, passed a resolution to pay the salaries of its members.

London, March 24.—The House of Commons to-day, by a vote of 270 to 229, passed a resolution to pay the salaries of its members.

London, March 24.—The House of Commons to-day, by a vote of 270 to 229, passed a resolution to pay the salaries of its members.

London, March 24.—The House of Commons to-day, by a vote of 270 to 229, passed a resolution to pay the salaries of its members.

London, March 24.—The House of Commons to-day, by a vote of 270 to 229, passed a resolution to pay the salaries of its members.

London, March 24.—The House of Commons to-day, by a vote of 270 to 229, passed a resolution to pay the salaries of its members.

London, March 24.—The House of Commons to-day, by a vote of 270 to 229, passed a resolution to pay the salaries of its members.

London, March 24.—The House of Commons to-day, by a vote of 270 to 229, passed a resolution to pay the salaries of its members.

IS YOUR NAME ON THE VOTERS' LIST?

Do you want to vote for Toronto at the next General Election in Ontario? If so fill in the following blank and send it to "The World" office.

Every resident male of full age is entitled to a vote. Don't imagine that because you have not voted the recent election, you will certainly have a new list has been prepared and four-fifths of the young men are left off.

Whether you vote Conservative or Reform send in your name at once and it will be added if it is not already on. Don't delay. There are only a few days left.

PROBABLY ON A TOOT.

Baron Hastings Figures in a London Police Court and Has a Heavy Fine Imposed on Him.

LONDON, March 24.—George Manners Latley, who has a seat in the House of Lords as Baron Hastings, was arrested at the Marlborough Police Court to-day on a charge of having acted indecently toward a girl in Regent's Park.

His Lordship, who is about 35 years of age, looked very much ashamed when he was called upon to answer the charge. The evidence of his disgraceful conduct was so clear that the court found him guilty and sentenced him to pay a fine of £50 or be imprisoned for three months. The case has caused a great sensation, as Lord Hastings is the Prince of Wales's son and the Princess of Wales's son-in-law.

THE DUNLAP.

Some Reasons Why One Should Be Made a Member of the Dunlap.