and we are fully authorised in saying that the most cordial and active co-operation was tendered to and experienced by them while there. A strong Petition to His Majesty was got up and very numerously signed, in favor of the projected Rail Road from St. Andrews to Quebec and every encouragement given by all parties that could have been anticipated or desired. The report of the deputation is most gratifying to the association, and the manner in which the gentlemen composing it have discharged the trust reposed in them gives unlimited satisfaction, and merits the best thanks of the public.

Married.

At On Tuesday last, at Digdeguash by the Reverend Alexr. Mac Pher, Mr. David Coldburn, to Miss Isabella Kennedy, both of St. Patrick's Parish.

Died.

Suddenly at St. Stephen, on the 30th Nov. Mr. PETER M'DIARMID in his 83d year.—

Mr. M'Diarmid was a native of Pedalbane in the Highland of Scotland, and came to America in 1778 with the 74th Regiment in which he was a Sergeant.

He served with that gallant corps (of which there are few survivors) during the rebellion, alias the Revolutionary war, under Colonel John Campbell at Baggaduce on the Penobscot River now called Castine, which place they defended with the aid of part of the 82nd, under General M'Lean, against the whole Naval and Military force of what is now the United States.

At the peace of 1783 Mr M'Diarmid came with that part of the Regiment that were disbanded in this country, to St. Andrews and shortly afterwards removed to St. Stephen, where he has ever since maintained the character of an honest man and good member of society.—Communicated

At Halifax, on Sunday last, JAMES HOWE, Esquire senior Editor of the Halifax Royal Gazette, in the 82nd year of his age—a man, much esteemed and respected by all who knew him.

St, Andrews, Jan. 5th 1836.

THE SALMAGUNDI,

Or, News of the Day.

THIS DAY is published, a SPECIMEN NUMBER of a new periodical, of a novel character, bearing the above appellation, will be commenced on the beginning of January 1836. While it will furnish its patrons with the leading features of the news of the day, its principal object will be to serve up a humorous compilation of the numerous lively and pungent sallies which are daily floating along the tide of Literature, and which, for the want of a proper channel for their preservation, are positively lost to the reading world. Original wits and humorists of our time will here have a medium devoted to the faithful record of the scintillations of their genius. It is not necessary to detail the many attractions which this journal will possess, as the publisher will furnish a specimen number to every person who desires it—(those out of the city will forward their orders, postage paid)—☞ and he pledges himself that no exertions on his part shall be wanting to that no exertions on his part shall be wanting to make each succeeding number superior in every respect to the preceding ones.

The SALMAGUNDI, will be printed on large imperial paper, equal in size and quality to that which is at present used for the Gentleman's Vade Mecum. It is calculated that more than will be furnished in this Journal in one year—these in addition to an extensive and choice selection of Satire, Criticism, Humour, and Wit, to be circulated through its columns, will form a Literary Banquet of a superior and attractive order; and the publisher relies with perfect confidence on the liberality of the American public, and the spirit and tact with which this expensive undertaking will be prosecuted to bear him successfully and profitably along with it.

The terms of THE SALMAGUNDI will be two DOLLARS per annum, payable invariably in advance. No paper will be furnished unless this stipulation is strictly adhered to. ☞ Clubs of three, will be supplied with the paper for one year by forwarding a five dollar note, postage paid.—☞ The papers that are sent out of the city will be carefully packed in a strong envelope, to prevent them rubbing in the mail.

☞ THE SALMAGUNDI will be published on alternate weeks—otherwise it would be impossible to procure the numerous Embellishments which each number will contain—and the general interest it will afford must be enhanced by this arrangement.

☞ All orders must come post paid.

Address, CHARLES ALEXANDER.

TO THE PUBLIC.

WE The Undersigned having heard that rumours are afloat detrimental to the character of the Branch Pilots out of the Port of St. Andrews N. B. as a Body, think it necessary to state that several qualified Pilots, at Sundry times, offered their services in the line of their profession, to Masters Commanding vessels owned by Nehemiah Marks, Esquire, and that these services have been uniformly rejected. On a recent occasion Capt. Hutton of the Nehemiah, in reply to several of our number who offered him their services, stated that Mr. Marks would not allow him to take a pilot as the vessel was not insured. We are of opinion that in consequence of the Nehemiah having no Branch Pilot on board, she went ashore on Saturday the 29th August last.
