

WEEKLY MONITOR.

MEXICO.

Miss Laura Heston returned from Bridgetown by Monday's train, where she has been visiting friends.

Miss Ethel Oakes returned from Mt. Airy last week, where she has been passing a course of studies for the last two years, to spend the summer vacation.

Epiphany was administered to Charles Heston and his family, by the Baptist minister, Rev. F. P. Jones, and also received the right hand of fellowship.

On Tuesday last week, Mr. Gilbert Smith and Mrs. John Robinson, all of this place, were united in marriage by the Rev. Mr. Geo. The young couple immediately departed for Massachusetts where they intend making their future home. They have, here, many warm friends who wish them much happiness and prosperity.

The public had the opportunity of listening to a very forcible lecture given in the Division room on Monday evening by the Rev. Mr. W. H. P. Jones, a layman in the "reign," upon the "Old and New Money." He handled the subject in a manner that would have done credit to many older heads and displayed a mind well stored with knowledge fully demonstrating that, with him, both time and money have been well spent.

He gave many historical references in support of both sides of the subject, and terminated the lecture with the thought that a life well spent, a character well rounded out with noble deeds, be confined in the grave, but will live and generations yet to come will rise up and call him blessed. He was followed with congratulatory remarks by Messrs A. B. Bertram, Ingram Oakes and Norman Beckwith.

Middleton.

The Wilmot Spring Co's factory is now running in full blast.

We also notice a telephone has been placed in Aylesford, under the management of E. O. Kelly.

Telephones have been placed in the residence of Dr. Andrews, A. P. Dodge and W. W. Dodge this week.

Dr. Miller is making arrangements to receive a soda water fountain and expects to have it in order in a few days.

Mr. John Cummings, baggage-master of the N. S. C. express, left last Saturday for Boston to join his brother in the grocery business.

A game of ball was played here on Saturday between Lawrenceville Juniors and Middleton Juniors, score 2 to 24, in favor of Middleton.

As ice cream and strawberry social will be held at the residence of R. H. Chipman on Wednesday the 23rd inst. the proceeds to go toward the new Baptist church fund.

Mr. F. A. McPherson has rented the store of Mr. J. H. Charlton, next to Reed's, on Commercial street and has opened a contact talking establishment.

A lawn tennis club has been formed here and a good time may be expected to have a few weeks. A piece of land has been obtained from N. F. Marshall about the school house, and a tennis court is being laid out.

We notice that the agent and accountant of our bank are obtaining good results in extricating houses "tied up" for the land for a second court.

Spa Spring Chills.

Capt. A. Dodge has a number of men engaged in laying the foundation for a large house.

Quite a number of our citizens will probably attend the Association at Portland on the 15th.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Jefferson, Berwick, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. Durbin on Wednesday.

Our pastor baptized five candidates on Sunday morning last at Middleton, and will administer the ordinance again on Sabbath next at the same place and hour.

The farmers have been mending their "ways," and soon will be ready to go to the fields.

Mr. Woodbury, with his staff, are busy putting in the Spa Spring tubing.

Mr. C. C. Stinson has sold his handsome black horse to a Vermont gentleman. L. B. Dodge has also sold his fine grey horse to Mr. John Moore of Melvern Square.

Paradise Plains.

Miss Winifred Longley is home to attend the Association.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Longley are very happy with their little boy.

Road making or we may say road spelling is being attended to this week under the supervision of Mr. C. E. Durbin.

Mr. Marshall has placed his "Royal" in full view of the church ready for his share of the proceeds of the Association, P. E. I., called upon friends in this place last week. He is on his way home from Bermuda where he has been spending a few months in quest of health.

On Sabbath the pastor gave his hearers a fine sermon from the words "He made the summer." He wished to encourage the study of nature and from nature up to Nature's God. At the close, a hymn, a poet's address, a reading, a prayer, and a benediction followed.

In our last we failed to notice one item of interest and prize to be won in the community, viz., the graduation of our young friend H. J. Starratt, son of B. Starratt.

He is on his way home from Bermuda where he has been spending a few months in quest of health.

Granville Village.

Mr. and Mrs. William Wallace are spending a short time with their many friends here, leaving for their New York home.

The wedding month are also very abundant and are working and harrow in the fields, notwithstanding the fine use of London Purple.

Banner says that one of our young men purposes building a nice house on the hill alongside the handsome residence of Doctor Coleman.

Palatine from Windsor are beautifying the dwelling of W. H. Waterhouse, a nephew, at that of his father. Mr. Parr has been engaged in like manner on Mrs. Halliday's.

E. H. Armstrong is confined to the house by an attack of quins and besides suffering considerably, deeply laments the opportunity thus afforded the petting and pampering of the bugs are very plenty and look as if they had been well wintered.

The dwelling house of Mr. J. A. Rhodes caught fire on Sunday afternoon and before the flames were extinguished suffered considerable damage. This makes the third small fire in our village within a few months, and has been the means of fully convincing our residents that no time should be lost in securing our water system.

Hampden.

The late showers have had a very beneficial effect upon the crops, and all nature seems to rejoice.

Berwick.

A. S. Magee has returned from his European tour.

Rev. C. W. Corey occupied the pulpit of the Baptist church last Sabbath morning.

Miss Jennie Oakes returned from Mt. Airy last week, where she has been passing a course of studies for the last two years, to spend the summer vacation.

Fruit Crop of Great Britain.

A long continued drought has done incalculable damage to the fruit crop of Great Britain. The crop will be far below the average and consequently there is every prospect that prices will rise high this fall.

The long continued drought has seriously affected vegetation of all descriptions, and heavily discounted the prospects of an abundant yield of fruit of the highest quality. Trees on dry, gravelly soils have, as a matter of course, suffered the most severely, but those on strong land have shown signs of distress. Notwithstanding these facts, however, the rains that are now falling over the greater part of the country begeth to moisten the soil to a considerable depth, there will undoubtedly be moderately good supplies of apples, plums, and cherries. But with the soft fruits the case is different, for the season is too far advanced for the crop of some kinds to realize full benefit from the rains, however heavy they may be, particularly in the southern and eastern counties. Throughout the country of Kent strawberries which form one of the staple fruit crops, have suffered so severely from the drought, that a very light crop is inevitable. Indeed, the older plantations have been so injured as to be rendered worthless, and already we hear of several hundred acres having been ploughed up.

Barberries on the other hand, are showing signs of distress, but the liberal degree of moisture in bringing their fruit to maturity, are suffering, as are gooseberries and red currants, but happily in a lesser degree.

Referring to the fruit prospects in Lincolnshire, the Leeds Mercury says: "The fruit prospects in South Lincolnshire are very encouraging as they were three weeks ago. Most of the fruit trees, especially plums, have covered with comely buds. The green caterpillar, which have done an immense amount of harm, stripping the leaves off the trees, and causing a good deal of the fruit to fall off. Many of the garden crops, too, especially onions, are suffering from the ravages to a serious extent. This is attributed to the excessively dry weather."

Miss Cunningham, returned missionary from Japan, addressed a large audience in Wesleyan church Sunday evening on the manners, customs and history of Japanese.

Mr. W. A. Sutherland of Truro has moved his family to here where they will occupy rooms in Mrs. J. Robinson's house. Mrs. Sutherland's daughter of the late Dr. Sutherland will spend the summer in British Columbia.

West Paradise Dettings.

The potato-beetles are reported very numerous.

Professor Lockwood, the skillful musician, will give lessons both on piano and violin to a number of persons in this vicinity during the summer.

Some dozen neighbors of Mr. Thomas Foster assembled last Saturday and raised the framework of his new barn, forty by forty-five feet, where the old one quite crumbled.

Workman, Messrs. one of their best, crushed to death between some falling timbers. There being no room for an entire escape, he was quite badly disabled up for a little while.

Mr. Joseph Foster, eldest son of Mr. Thomas Foster, one day last week while endeavoring to secure a young calf that was running at large in their pasture, was gone in the pit of his stomach by the dam, who became enraged at his interference with her herd dog. Her horns pierced through his clothing and tore his flesh some inches in length. With the use of his hands he succeeded with much difficulty in extricating himself from the land for a second court.

Glenaville News.

Charles Potter lost a fine two-year-old colt last week by poison.

Oakes and Amos Pynes are housed with measles. They are spreading rapidly.

Princeton Sewing Circle meets at Mrs. Dalling's on Wednesdays.

Mrs. Albert Fraser, who has been confined to her bed for two months, was able to get up on Saturday.

Rev. Wm. Field, of Vermont, delivered a very timely and impressive sermon to quite a large audience Sunday morning.
