PERSONAL NOTES FROM LAWRENCETOWN

Lawrencetown.—Mr. J. E. Kissman and wife, accompanied by their son, Dr. Murray, and daughter, Miss Hilda, were recent guests at the home of Mrs. J. E. Shaffer, having motored from Wolfville on Friday, returning home the following day. Mr. C. Messenger, of Middleton, who accompanied the motor party, was a guest at the same home.

Mr. Edward Freeman, one of Lawrencetown's sons who started his career in the Lawrencetown Drug Store, afterwards taking the Pharmaceutical course at Halifax, and now being a prominent druggist in Windsor, accompanied by his wife and child, is now spending his vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Freeman, Bridge Street.

Mr. L. S. Messenger, our local twirler, went with the Middleton baseball team around the South Shore. He returned on Thursday last and reported having participated in some real good games. Mr. Messenger is a left hand pitcher and has concealed considerable speed in his makeup and when he does let loose, other pitchers in the League find some difficulty in keeping the pace.

Mr. Carl Beals, a former resident of Lawrencetown, and recent graduate of Acadia University, who is now living with his parents at Bedford, is receiving the glad hand of many of his former associates around the town, and appears to be in the best of health. While in town Mr. Beals is the guest of his friend, Mr. Malcolm Shaffer.

Mrs. R. R. Ritchie, who has been vacationing at Clementsport for a few days, has returned home, and is now back at her work. During her absence the vacancy was filled by Miss Grace Daniels, formerly of the staff of Shaffers Ltd., having recently completed a business course at Mt. Allison.

Mr. Wilfred Prince, who occupies a position in the office of the United Fruit Co., at Kentville, and who has been in their employ for the past few years, was at his home on Tuesday evening, returning on Wednesday of same week.

Mr. H. F. Sanford, proprietor of the Gem, has gone to Bedford for the annual shoot. While there Mr. Sanford will be one of three occupants of a tent, and a good time is assured. He expects to return Saturday.

Recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. T. James were: Mr. and Mrs. Benj. Waters, of Wareham, Mass., who are at the present time sojourning in Digby before returning to their home in the U.S.A.

Miss Nina Banks, accompanied by Miss Stoddard, and Miss Shankie, left on Thursday last for Wolfville, where they are to attend the Summer School of Methods.

Miss Jessie Butthly, who has been spending her vacation at Margareville, has returned home, and resumed her work at Mr. H. F. Hamilton's.

Miss Lena Stairs, of Dartmouth, who is a telephone operator in the harbor city, was a recent guest of Mrs. Graham, of this town.

Mr. George T. Palfrey, who has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Palfrey, of town, has returned to his duties.

Miss Dorothea Landies, of Sackville, has been visiting at the home of Capt. and Mrs. Morris during the vacation period.

Mr. S. C. Morse, who has been visiting his parents during his vacation, returned to his work at Windsor on Monday.

Miss Phoebe Apt, who has previously been clerking in the Gem, has returned to her home at Victoria Beach.

Miss Albee and Mrs. John Banks, who have been visiting in the U.S.A., returned home on Tuesday last.

Local Happenings

Services in St. James' Church will be as usual on Sunday.

The monthly meeting of Baptist W.M.A.S. will meet in the vestry of the church on Tuesday evening, August 8th at 7.30.

The tern schooner J. Scott Hankinson arrived here on Friday and will take to Boston a second cargo of vinegar about 1500 casks from M. W. Graves and Co.'s factories.

Great credit is due Mr. B. Banks of Co. trelea, in the building of the Poole bridge of St. Croix Cove, as it is a very solid built bridge, and we hope it will stand for many years.

Preparations are being made for Chautauqua which opens here on Aug. 31st, continuing to Sept. 3rd, both dates inclusive. It is expected to be more than usually successful this year.

Rev. I. D. Lytle, of Clementsport, who inserted a classified ad. in The MONITOR last week notified us that he disposed of all his offerings within limitations we receive. As Mr. Lytle said "Advertising pays". The MONITOR gets results.

Bridgetown Tennis Club will be represented at the Provincial Tournament at Bridgewater next week by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ruggles, Miss Ethel Daniels, Mrs. F. R. Fay and Miss Elizabeth Ruggles. The local players will take part in singles, ladies doubles, and mixed doubles.

The government has decided to extend the "spur" another hundred feet to enable the largest ocean steamer which is likely to come here—the Keyingham for instance—to work all her hatches at once. Digby will likely become quite an important winter port commencing next winter as we understand that besides the Becker line another large line of ocean carriers will use the port as a loading port.—Courier.

The Van Arnam Minstrels played to a full house here on Wednesday evening last and by general consensus of opinion are by far the best aggregation which has ever visited the town. They gave an evening of clean wholesome entertainment, splendid singing, good line of jokes from the end men. The choruses were excellent work by Jack Duncaen, the rapping act, was a revelation. All the specialties were of the highest class.

The choir members of the Baptist Church held their annual picnic on Thursday last. Fifteen in number motored to Margareville. The place selected, coupled with the charm of a perfect summer's day overlooking the waters, could not fail to fill the picnickers with delight. Dinner and supper were enjoyed in a shady grove and the ladies are indeed to be complimented on these two productions. A vote of thanks was tendered Mr. Dixon, the choir-leader, for his efforts in making the day a success.

We would call attention to the advertisement in another column of the Upper Granville Women's Auxiliary annual lawn party, and sale of work to be held this year on the lawn of Mr. Bartlett Gillis, Upper Granville, to-morrow (Thursday) evening. Those who have attended these functions in the past will recall some delightful evenings and doubtless plan to go again. The rendezvous is just a pleasant walk from town and the moon is at the right phase. Ice cream will be a special feature. It to-morrow evening is stormy, the gathering will be held Friday.

OBITUARY

Our community received a shock on Monday, the 24th, when the report went out that Mrs. S. B. Marshall had received a telegram announcing the death of her father, Mr. Lemuel Messenger in St. Louis, Miss., where he was spending the summer with his son, expecting to return home in a short time.

Our brother was born at Paradise, N.S., September, 1848, and was the eldest of a family of eight children.

In 1878 he was united in marriage to Miss Susan Charlton, of Williams- ton, and moved to their home in Clarence and by their united efforts built for themselves a home. Twenty-six years ago under the ministry of the late Rev. R. B. Kinley, he united with the Clarence Baptist Church. Though of a retiring disposition he gave evidence continually of his firm trust in his Saviour. He was for years a member of Glenoe No. 812 Div. S. of T., always seeking to promote the good of the Order.

He leaves to mourn, four children, who will miss the cheerful smile and the best wishes of a loving father: Fred, of St. Louis, Miss.; Mrs. A. E. Wells, Westwood, Mass.; Mrs. S. B. Marshall, of Central Clarence, and Vernon B., on the homestead, also two sisters: Mrs. Mary Allen and Mrs. Major Slocum, of Bridgetown. Four brothers remain: Elias, of Bridgetown; Daniel, of Paradise; Henry and William, of Central Clarence. Also four grand children.

The funeral took place on Sunday afternoon from his late residence and was largely attended. Bridgetown, Lawrencetown, Middleton and Nictaux being largely represented. The floral tributes were many and beautiful, testifying to the esteem in which he was held by his large circle of friends. Pastor Smith conducted the service and spoke words of comfort and assurance to the large number who had gathered to pay their respects from Ps. 39. 4. W. E. Reed was funeral director. The four brothers acting as pall bearers: Elias, Daniel, Henry, and William. Burial at Fairview, Lawrencetown. We commend the sorrowing ones to the care of Him who doeth all things well.

PHINNEY'S COVE

Mr. and Mrs. Prescott Whitfield passed through our village on the 25th on a motor trip. They were accompanied by Mrs. Lendley Banks, of Hampton, and her daughter, Mrs. Rice, and two grandchildren. A short call was made on Mrs. Enos Munroe. Mrs. Banks and Mrs. Munroe were girl chums forty years ago and had not seen each other since.

Mrs. Chamberland is home from the States spending the vacation with her brothers and sisters, Messrs. Marvin and Harley Farnsworth, and Mrs. Winnifred Young of this place, and Mrs. Alton Bent, of Beaconsfield. Mr. and Mrs. Edmond Bent went to Hillsburn on the 26th to attend the wedding of Mrs. Bent's brother, Mr. Irving Sarty.

Mr. Otis White and his mother, Mrs. Handspiker, drove to Clementsport on the 26th. Mrs. Handspiker will remain a while with her daughter, Mrs. Dan Long.

Mrs. Emma Chute has returned home after visiting friends at Lawrencetown and North Williamston.

Miss Helen Beaver, of Lynn, Mass., is spending the vacation with her grandmother, Mrs. Frank Chute.

Mr. James H. Young, of Lake Brook, visited his sister, Mrs. Watson Bent, on the 15th.

W. K. Crisp took a party of seven of our boys on a picnic to Rumsey's Lake on the 20th.

Mr. and Mrs. Enos Munroe visited friends in Lake Brook recently.

VIRGINIA EAST

Mr. and Mrs. E. Banks and daughter, Miss Mildred, of Walpole, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Robar.

Miss Dorothy Wambolt and brother, Master Clayton, of Clementsvalle, spent Sunday with relatives in this place.

Mr. Arthur Pauley and daughter, Miss Jennie, of Victoria, spent Sunday with his sister-in-law, Mrs. J. Riley. A surprise party was given for Mr. Roy Orde on Saturday evening. All had a very pleasant time.

Mr. and Mrs. Truman Hamilton, of Bear River, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Odour Robar.

Mrs. Mary Riley, of Bear River East, spent a couple of days with her son, Mr. J. Riley.

Miss Adella Hamilton, of Bear is visiting her friends, Mr. and Mrs. Odour Robar.

Mrs. Elizabeth Robar has gone to Tupperville to visit her son, Mr. Elmer Robar.

Miss Daisy Spurr, of Lequille, is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Jas. Robar.

WESTVILLE BALL TEAM HERE TODAY

Westville baseball team play here this evening at 6 o'clock. Pictou County is always to the fore in athletics as well as other matters and the visitors expect to give the local team a good argument.

cessions for I.O.O.F.
Tablet For Capt. Cro

The Town Council held a regular monthly meeting on Friday the volume of business to be dealt with was not large. A O.K.'d were ordered paid.

Mayor Warren, Councilor Longmire and H. B. Hicks pointed as representatives to the Seventeenth Meeting of the Nova Scotia Palliates which assembles at this year and holds session 29th, 30th and 31st.

As previously forecasted, the Council voted to purchase of a bronze tablet placed on a suitable four Riverside Cemetery to perpetuate memory of Capt. John founder of the town of Bridgetown.

The matter of a possible Home Oddfellows was brought up. Council voted to supply the established there with water for the nominal sum of $8 year. Water pipes have been laid out Jeffrey Street to the street limit of the town. work accomplished affords satisfaction to the ratepayers that part of the town.

Bridgetown Debentures, 5 year debentures and $3.00 year debentures in denominations $500 each and bearing interest are now on the market and a probability that a number will be purchased locally. Procedure has followed in a number of provincial towns, and is whereby citizens with some investment can get good interest and at the same time practical faith in the future of the town.

After the conclusion of so many matters of routine the Council adjourned.
