

RAILWAYS—Continued.

- Union Pacific, President Chas. Francis Adams re-igns and is succeeded by Sidney Dillon.—Nov. 26.
- RIOTS.—Ann Arbor, Mich., conflict occurs between militia and students; one man killed and several injured.—Nov. 13.
- Ann Arbor, Mich., nine militia men arrested for complicity in killing a student during riots.—Nov. 15.
- Annapolis, Ohio, serious conflict between whites and negroes through a lynching case; further trouble feared.—Nov. 9.
- Bishopville, S. C., conflicts between negroes and whites, troops despatched to the scene.—Nov. 24.
- Ohina, conflict between tax collectors and mob results in death of four rioters.—Nov. 24.
- Columbia, S. C., quelled by the militia, two negroes fatally shot.—Nov. 26.
- Galway, Ireland, several fights take place between military and police; the Connaught Rangers ordered away from Galway in consequence.—Nov. 13.
- Madrid, Spain, University students celebrate anniversary of riots of 1884, serious conflict with the police.—Nov. 19.
- Rosario, Argentina, several people killed and a number wounded during election riots.—Nov. 11.
- Transylvania, faction fight occurs in a church, six persons killed and sixteen injured.—Nov. 17.
- Rossa O'Donovan, receivers appointed for "United Irishmen."—Nov. 17.
- Ripon Earl of, seriously ill in London, Eng.—Nov. 6.
- RUSSIA.—Dolgorouki Prince, arrives in Paris to enquire into the murder of General Selwerskoff.—Nov. 22.
- Grand Duke Nicholas, who recently became insane, now completely paralysed and in comatose condition.—Nov. 2.
- Large numbers of convicts ordered from prisons to assist in labor on the Siberian Railway.—Nov. 19.
- Minister of Agriculture resigns because the tariff is relaxed as concerns Germany and Austria.—Nov. 20.
- Moscow, serious riots reported, several hundred peasants killed and wounded by soldiers.—Nov. 18.
- St Petersburg, press advises extension of Caucasian railway to Kars in view of hostilities between Russia and England.—Nov. 7.
- St Petersburg, severe frost prevails, all the rivers frozen.—Nov. 20.
- Tariff Committee propose to increase duties so as to isolate Russian trade from the rest of the world.—Nov. 18.
- Warsaw, large numbers of Jews leave bound for Brazil.—Nov. 10.
- SALVATION ARMY.—England, the Duke of Fife sends General Booth £100 towards his relief fund.—Nov. 13.
- England, General Booth asks for £100,000 to begin his scheme of relieving the poor, £30,000 annually afterwards.—Nov. 12.
- England, Gen. Booth receives a donation of $5,000 from the Earl of Derby, towards his regeneration scheme.—Nov. 24.
- London, Eng., Gen. Booth's fund amounts to $300,000.—Nov. 25.
- Scotland, Aberdeen, Marquis of Huntley (Conservative) elected Rector of the University by 430 votes against Pro. Bryer (Liberal) 352.—Nov. 22.
- Scotland, Glasgow, Rt. Hon. J. A. Balfour, chief secretary for Ireland, elected Lord Rector of University by 948 votes, against the Earl of Aberdeen 717 votes.—Nov. 26.
- SHIPPING.—Accidents, SS. "Vancouver" from Liverpool to Montreal encounters heavy gales, Captain Lindall and quartermaster swept overboard and drowned.—Nov. 6.
- Austrian brig "Virgo" runs ashore at Far Rockaway, position dangerous.—Nov. 14.
- "Belvidere" steam whaler spoken near San Francisco by steamer "Hounslow," former out of coal and provisions; crew suffering from frozen limbs.—Nov. 20.
- "Boston" SS. from Glasgow, long overdue, arrives at Yarmouth, N.S.; she had to put in at the Azores for coal.—Nov. 24.
- "Brazilian" SS., the last ocean steamer of the season, leaves Montreal.—Nov. 24.
- "Galipao" SS. founders two miles off Folkestone, Eng., after being in collision; no lives lost.—Nov. 24.
- "Cassius" SS., arrives at Aberdeen from Montreal, having lost 137 cattle through stormy weather.—Nov. 22.
- Casualties. 300 head of cattle reported lost from SS. "Linda" in a severe storm on the Atlantic.—Nov. 13.
- "City of Pueblo" SS. with 4000 tons coal seized at San Francisco, to satisfy two notes of $100,000 each due by owners.—Nov. 26.
- Collision, San Francisco, Cal., schooner "Mayflower" run down near, by SS. "Wilmington," crew saved.—Nov. 1.
- Dalmatia, vessel with laborers and animals for Island of Brazza capsizes; thirty-eight persons and a hundred animals drowned.—Nov. 18.

SHIPPING—Continued.

- Dynamo-pipe on "City of New York" explodes; several passengers and firemen rendered unconscious by the fumes.—Nov. 16.
- Galveston, Texas, fire breaks out on SS. "Bona," 1,200 bales of cotton destroyed.—Nov. 5.
- "Gerona" SS. arrives in Montreal after being out 16 days of continued storm.—Nov. 13.
- "Kurir" SS. collides with a barque off Elsinore, seven persons drowned.—Nov. 10.
- "La Normandie" SS. quarantined at New York; small-pox epidemic amongst emigrants from Havre.—Nov. 19.
- "L. P. Leathers" SS. burnt near Fort Adams, five of the crew perished.—Nov. 27.
- "Linken" barque set on fire and abandoned at sea.—Nov. 24.
- "Nevada" SS. springs a leak and sinks near Kewannee, Wis., crew saved.—Nov. 15.
- "Newcombe" tow barge driven ashore and wrecked at Oswego; loss $30,000.—Nov. 23.
- New York, Inman and White Star lines decide not to race their vessels across the Atlantic any more.—Nov. 8.
- Ofoten, Norway, forty fishing boats sink in a gale, one hundred and twenty-eight damaged; and twenty-eight fishermen drowned.—Nov. 26.
- "Ocean Queen" schooner, seized at Souris, P. E. I., for violating the fishery laws, fined $400.—Nov. 26.
- "Polly M. Rogers" schooner ashore at Pigeon Island, Lake Ontario, crew saved.—Nov. 25.
- Schooner "Menagere" seized at Codroy, Nfld., for smuggling whiskey, crew arrested after a fight with the customs officers.—Nov. 7.
- Schooner "Ocean Wave" capsizes in Lake Ontario; crew supposed to be lost.—Nov. 10.
- "Serica" SS. arrives at Dundee from Montreal, with loss of 187 cattle through stormy weather.—Nov. 24.
- "Serpent" H. M. S., cruiser of 1170 tons burden, wrecked off the coast of Spain, 267 men drowned, only 3 saved.—Nov. 12.
- SS. "Serpent," bodies of 21 of the sailors of, washed ashore.—Nov. 14.
- "Sudbourn" SS. collides with another ship, and sinks; 11 of the crew are missing.—Nov. 26.
- Three bodies recovered from wrecked steamer "Vizcaya."—Nov. 6.
- "Uppingham" SS. ashore at Hartland, twenty-one persons rescued; first officer lost.—Nov. 24.
- "Waterwitch," bottle picked up at Marblehead beach containing the following:—"Foundered at sea barque 'Waterwitch,' 15th Sept., 1890. Forward to 12 Bow Street, London, adrift in a boat; ten lost. A. Carter."—Nov. 25.
- "Westbourne" SS. wrecked in the Black sea, six of the crew drowned and twelve die from exposure.—Nov. 26.
- Whaler "Charles Morgan" arrives at San Francisco and reports loss of 6 men who left the vessel in a small boat in September last.—Nov. 10.
- Sing-Sing, a desperate criminal named Charles Brown escapes from.—Nov. 29.
- Sitting Bull, the prime mover in the Indian uprising in North Dakota, reported a prisoner and in irons.—Nov. 20.
- SOCIALISTS.—Berlin, decide to admit women into their associations.—Nov. 24.
- Berlin, Germany, hold a street demonstration; several persons injured police arrest seven of the leaders.—Nov. 25.
- Berlin, Germany, Herr Tabbert, a prominent socialist, released, after serving his term of imprisonment.—Nov. 12.
- Kiel, Socialists elect both their candidates for the first time for the Reichstag.—Nov. 5.
- SPAIN.—Cholera spreading in Valencia, 99 deaths reported in 8 days.—Nov. 3.
- King of, reported seriously ill and not likely to live.—Nov. 10.
- Madrid, large tobacco factory burnt; loss $200,000, several thousand persons left idle.—Nov. 11.
- Madrid, Minister of Justice instructs police to report a number of fatal accidents at bull-fights in recent years; some reform is contemplated.—Nov. 19.
- The Queen Regent refuses to interfere on behalf of the Pope in Italy.—Nov. 5.
- SPORTS.—Football, Hamilton v. Queen's Coll., Toronto, at Toronto, championship match won by Hamilton by 8 to 6.—Nov. 22.
- Football, Harvard v. Yale, at Springfield, Mass., annual match, Harvard won by 12 to 6.—Nov. 22.
- Football, Toronto v. Detroit University, at Detroit, won by Toronto, by 3 to 1.—Nov. 27.