The following is from the V. P. Journal for April:
 "A Canadian edition of Ayres' Verbalist has been issued by the Canada Publishing Co., and is being introduced into some of the High Schools. It is one of the most valuable little works on the correct use of words that we have seen. Fifty cents spent for this book will be well laid out. We append a few of the sentences picked out at random as samples of the contents: An answer is given to a question; a reply to an assertion. Evidence is that which tends to convince; testimony is that which is intended to convince. There may be little evidence in much testimony or testifying. Careful speakers say that laws, orders, purposes are executed; criminals are hanged. Most of us have few friends but many acquaintances. Students do not graduate; they are graduated. A person who takes healthful exercise and eats wholesome food will become healthy. You have a severe, not a bad, cold, since colds are not good. I will learn if you will teach me. Less relates to quantity; fewer to number. Men careful in expression like many things, love few things—wives, sweethearts, kinsmen, truth, justice and country. Since the woman loses her name she is properly married to the man. 'Miss B. was married to Mr. A.' Got married is a vulgarism. Will you have another piece of beef, etc. (not meat)? Perpetually means without end, continually means constantly renewed. We sit down, sit a horse, sit for a portrait, set down figures, set a hen. We set a hen, and a hen sits on eggs. We are sometimes as cross as a sitting (not setting) hen. A man writes under, not over, a signature. Personal property is personality, not personality. Whence (not from whence) do you come? One who talks much of himself is an egotist; one who professes to be sure of nothing but his own existence is an egoist."

TO OUR PRESENT SUBSCRIBERS.

To every subscriber who secures an additional subscriber at the regular single subscription rate of Two Dollars, the publishers will send POSTPAID one copy each of

AYRES' Orthoëpist, and AYRES' Verbalist,

Canadian Standard Editions, adapted by T. C. L. Armstrong, M.A., LL.B., published by the Canada Publishing Co., and Authorized by the Minister of Education.

The books contain 250 and 250 pp. respectively, and are handsomely bound in red cloth. These books are recommended by the Minister of Education for preparation for all the Departmental Examinations. Their price is 50 cents each. Remember that for one subscription you obtain BOTH these books. Try to get your fellow teachers and your trustees to take the EDUCATIONAL WEEKLY. Many trustees are already subscribers, and many more will become so when the merits of the WEEKLY are brought before them.

The same books will be given to every subscriber who sends in a club of FIVE new subscribers at $1.60 each.

Send in your subscriptions early, as this offer will be open only for a short time.

ADDRESS, EDUCATIONAL WEEKLY,
 Grip Printing and Publishing Co., Toronto.

PUBLISHERS' NOTE.—The Americanisms in pronunciation throughout the edition of ORTHOEPIST used last year were objected to by Canadian educationists, and have all been eliminated in the present edition, and every word in the book made to conform to the latest STANDARD ENGLISH AUTHORITIES, viz.: THE IMPERIAL DICTIONARY and STORMBOLT. A chapter has been added on Elocution that gives the essentials for Teachers' Examinations, and saves the price of an extra book on this subject, and a chapter added to VERBALIST saves the price of an extra work on English Literature.
