

teers. only (in conformity with the wish of his Majesty the King) and the other for Belgian and English Volunteers. Mrs Chambers' Brussels prize will also be shot for by Belgian and English Volunteers.

The distance will be 110 yards and 250 yards.

Tri-National prizes will be numerous, open to all Volunteers, for any military regulation rifle. Special prizes will be shot for under regulations to be hereafter made, and which will be published with the detailed shooting arrangements for Ghent.

Lodgings.—Accommodation for 1000 Volunteers has already been secured at various hotels, for bed with substantial breakfast, at rates varying from 5 to 10 francs per diem. The hotel proprietors require early application, and that a deposit must be paid. Special forms with reference to hotel accommodation will be issued. Further arrangements will be made for the accommodation of the remainder of the Volunteers and duly notified.

Railways.—The council have induced the English railway companies to make liberal arrangements as to fares, and I hope that the Belgian Government will make equally generous concessions, so that the cost of transport from London to Brussels and back shall be at a very low rate. The South Eastern and London, Clatham and Dover will issue return tickets to Dover, at 10s first class, and 8s second class. The Great Eastern will issue return tickets to Antwerp at single fares, and the following companies will also issue return tickets at single fares from all country stations above thirty miles distance on their lines to London, viz: the London and North Western; the Great Northern, the Great Western, the Midland, the London and South Western, the London, Brighton and South Coast (on special application); the Manchester Sheffield and Lincolnshire, the North British, the Caledonian, the Lancashire and Yorkshire, the North Eastern, the Cambrian, the Mid Wales, the Newry and Armagh, the Brecon, Merthyr, the Rhymers, and the Pembroke and Tenby. To obtain these special railway return tickets it will be necessary for Volunteers to show their vouchers at the booking offices and have them signed or stamped.

Greatcoats.—Application for regimental greatcoats, which will be issued from the War Office stores at cost price (23s 3d), to be made on special forms, accompanied with remittance to Captain Mercier, Honorary Secretary.

Important notice.—Vouchers.—Only those who are accredited by the Council of the Anglo Belgian Prize Fund, and who produce vouchers signed by Captain Mercier, Honorary Secretary, on behalf of the Council, will be recognized by the Ghent or Brussels authorities, be allowed to participate in any way whatever in the competitions or entertainments offered by the cities of Ghent and Brussels. These vouchers will be forwarded in due course.

HOW REPUBLICANS ARE GOVERNED.

The Liberals and Democrats of New York City are running a man for the office of Mayor, who according to his published record, is about the lowest and worst specimen of a man that could be picked up from the slums of that city. The N. Y. Tribune, however, thinks he is a nice sort of a person and evidently calculated to shine as a public man, and as the party the Tribune represents appear to have the majority in New York, it is very likely this Mr. O'Brien will be the next Mayor of the great city. In order that our readers may see what kind of material is used across the lines to make public men of, we give a brief resume of his history which has lately been published. From this it appears that he is a man.

- I. Who cannot read and write.
- II. Who has been convicted of rioting and petty larceny.
- III. Who has worn Penitentiary stripes as a thief.
- IV. Who altered and falsified his account as Sheriff.
- V. Who falsely swore that one bill against the city for $104,000 was true—thereby committing perjury.
- VI. Who confided to the President of the United States (U. S. Grant) that he had put 10,000 fraudulent ballots in New York ballot boxes to help elect him President.
- VII. Whom the records of Congress show to have been concerned with McCunn and Barnard in the immense naturalization frauds of 1868.
- VIII. Who is an inveterate gambler, who sometimes gives fraudulent checks in payment of his losses.
- IX. Who is a proved blackmailer.

The country must be bad off for material when it selects such characters to occupy the highest position in the land. But it unfortunately happens that in a large city like New York, where every body has a vote, the rabble rule the roost, and in order to secure this vote in the present Presidential election, the Greeley party think it a good stroke of policy to accept the nominee of the rabble for the office of Mayor of New York. A pretty state of things, truly.—Belleville Intelligencer.

GENEROUS.—Mr. F. Keon, learning, a few days ago, that the Volunteer Company was considerably in debt, handed Capt. Burnet his account against them, receipted, remitting the whole amount.—Orilia Expositor.

REMITTANCES Received on Subscription to THE VOLUNTEER REVIEW up to Saturday, the 5th inst.:
