

THE Maritime Medical News

A MONTHLY JOURNAL OF MEDICINE AND SURGERY.

Vol. XIV. HALIFAX, NOVA SCOTIA, SEPTEMBER, 1902. No. 9.

Fairchild's Essence of Pepsine

is the most useful and successful of all peptic preparations—as a remedy for indigestion; as a means of administering drugs which disturb the digestive functions and impair the appetite; as a practical rennet agent.

Panopepton

presents all the elements of nutrition—the entire nutritive constituents of beef and wheat—in a completely peptonised, soluble and diffusible form. PANOPEPTON is the most nutritious, the most reliable, and the best of all foods for the sick.
