NEW CANADIAN BOOKS

A NOBLE PATRIOTIC POEM.

Canada: A Metrical Story

By CHARLES CAMPBELL

Author of New Brunswick Prize Ode on the Queen's Diamond Jubilee.

Printed on fine deckle-edge laid paper, with attractive cover, designed by J. E. Laughlin, in gold and colors. Tied with ribbon.

Price 25 Cents

This is a dignified, spirited poem, a brief summary of the leading events in Canadian history. In this Jubilee year it makes a most appropriate holiday gift.

THE UNNAMED LAKE

And Other Poems

By FREDERICK GEORGE SCOTT

Author of "My Lattice," "The Soul's Quest," Etc. Printed on fine laid paper and bound daintily in white and roan.

Price 75 Cents

Like all of Mr. Scott's works, these poems are marked by exquisite beauty and finish. Be sure to get it.

Between Earth and Sky

And Other Strange Stories of Deliverance

By EDWARD WILLIAM THOMSON

Author of "Old Man Savarin," Etc.

Cloth, Illustrated, $1.25

This is a splendid collection of stories. Mr. Thomson is at his best in the short story; his style is almost perfect. Included with this volume is the story of "Petherick's Peril," that won for its author the large cash prize offered by the Youth's Companion some years ago.

SECOND EDITION.

AT MINAS BASIN

And Other Poems

By THEODORE H. RAND, D.C.L.

Price $1.00

The first edition of this popular book was exhausted within eight months of issue. To the second have been added nineteen new poems, including the exquisite one, "Lady Dorothea," that appeared in the Globe recently. Another fine new poem is "The Ballad of the China."
