BOOKS OF THE MONTH.

The Making of the . . .
. . . . Canadian West

By REV. R. G. MACBETH, M.A.,

Author of "The Selkirk Settlers in Real Life."

WITH PORTRAITS AND ILLUSTRATIONS.

Price $1.00, Postpaid.

CONTENTS: Musings on the Old—The Pathos and Perils of Change—Armed Rebellion—The Plot Thickens—Some Counter-Efforts and their Results—Collapse of the Rebellion—The Making of a Province—Contact with the Outside World—A "Boom" and Another Rebellion—Campaigning on the Prairies—Rebellion at an End—Religious and Educational Development.

Unusual interest has been excited by this book. The advance orders awaiting its issue evidenced the faith of the booksellers in the public demand—one dealer alone taking 250 copies. The work is one of the most intensely interesting and historically valuable contributions yet made to the literature of the West. The numerous engravings and portraits make it a veritable picture-gallery such as has not before been gathered into the covers of one book. Every Canadian public and private library should have this volume on its shelves.

The Standard Bearer . . .

~~~~~An Historical Romance

By S. R. CROCKETT,

Author of "The Raiders," "Cleg Kelly," "Lads' Love," etc.

12mo. Paper, 75c.; Cloth, $1.25, Postpaid.

"I HAVE read 'The Standard Bearer' with the deepest interest. It is to my understanding the best of Crockett's works. It is more racy of the soil and national characteristics of the period in Scotland than any of his former works. The style is less strained, the plot and characters are developed with less effort—particularly in the first half of the book.

"The quaintly entitled 'Foreword' inclines one to the belief that the framework of the story is historical and the characters taken more fully from living representatives than is the case in the majority of novels."

MARY AGNES FITZGIBBON.
