Unitarians, are greater persecutors than even John Oalvin was so the the poble minded Earl of Aberdeen was forced to remonstrate with the persecutors of Lausanne: - So Mr. Wright does not gain anything by it. #### UNITED STATES.

Colonel C. Keefe, of the Eifteenth New York Regiment, has been cashiered by sentence of Courtmartial for the following offences :- Horse-stealing, drunkenness, rowdyism, disobedience of orders, ab sence without leave, and insubordination. This is probably one of the officers swelling about our streets in full uniform .- Montreal Commercial Advertiser.

A large placard, emanating from Rochester, advertising for recruits for the service of the United States, was found posted up in one of our principal saloons yesterday morning, but was soon removed by a public officer and carried as a prize to the po-lice court. The placard was ornamented with two eagles, one on either side of what was evidently intended to represent a prancing horse with a sworded soldier in all his glory stop of it. The eagles may have represented north and south, for no distinction could be discovered between them, but the horse and its rider were very black, as if in mourning for some great disaster, probably Bull's Run. The high bailiff has given instruction to the police to destroy any similar placards that may be posted in the city calculated to mislead our Canadian youth. -Kingston News.

How the North Musters to Arms as one Man to AVENCE THE BULL RUN DEFEAT .- It is useless to disguise the fact, that there is a strong pressure upon the President and cabinet by men high in military station to resort immediately to drafting, to fill the ranks of our army to the number required to carry on the war successfully. At the present rate of recruiting to our regular army, the new regiments will not be filled up before January, thus keeping out of service our best regular officers at the time when their services are most required. The 23,000 increase of the regular army ought to be in the field before the 1st of October; but how to get the men without a draft is the question. It is feared by many persons here that the stoppage of all news respecting the condition of the army is lulling the North to a fatal security, and that we are credited with twice the number of troops on the line of the Potomac we really have in camp. If such be the case let it be known that while we have plenty of men to guard Washington, we want 60,000 more troops to make an effective forward movement. With the complications likely to arise in Kentucky within the coming month, and with what additional aid General Fremont will require, 200,000 more men can find enough to do.-Washington Cor., of the N. Y. World. CALLING ON THE AMERICAN PRESIDENT .- One morning, after the installations of one of President Lincoln's predecessors at the White House, a shabby-genteel looking man presented himself at his parlour, and after the usual salutation and shaking of hands, expressed his joy at seeing the old gentleman " at last hold the situation of chief magistrate of the country, to which his bravery, talents, and his unimpeachable rectitude entitled him." "We have had a hard time of it," said he, "in our little place; but our exertions were unremitting; I myself went round to stimulate my neighbours, and at last the victory was ours. We beat them by a majority of ten votes, and I now behold the result of that glorious triumph!" The general thanked him in terms of studied politeness, assuring him that he would resign his office in an instant if he did not think his election gave satisfaction to a vast majority of the people; and at last regretted that his admirer's zeal should have been so severely taxed on his account. "Oh, no matter for that sir." said he ; I did it with pleasure-I did it for myself and country (the general bowed) and I now come to congratulate you on your success.—(The general bowed again.) I thought, sir, that as you are now president of the United States I might perhaps be useful to you in some official canacity. TEMBER next. The beauty and salubrity of the po-(The President looked somewhat embarrassed.) y made choice of your Cabinet Ministers?" "I have," was the reply. "Well no matter for that; I shall be satisfied with an embassy to Europe." "I am sorry to say there is no vacancy." "Then you will perhaps require a head clerk in the department of the State?" "These are generally appointed by the respective secretaries." "I am very sorry for that; then I must be satisfied with some inferior appointment." "I never interfere with these; you must address yourself to the heads of departments." "But could I not be a postmaster in Washington? Only think, general, how I worked for you!" "I am much coliged to you for the good opinion you entertain of me, and for your kind offices at the last election; but the fact is, the postmaster for the city of Washington is already appointed." "Well, I don't much care for that, I should be satisfied with being his clerk."

"This is a subject you must mention to the post-master." "Why then," exclaimed the disappointed candidate for office, "hav'nt you got an old black coat?" It may well be imagined that the grateful president complied with this final request of his importunate visitor .- National Review.

A MUSHROOM ARISTOCRACY AND COMMERCIAL INSE-CURITY .- How is it that the first result of the political crisis has been a terrific crash among the commercial firms? Two months had not clapsed from the time of the first overt act of secession ere business houses began to suspend; and the period since has been filled up with a constant succession of heavy failures. In certain branches of trade, the dry goods especially, probably not more than half the engagements maturing during the last seven months have been duly provided for, the other half having been either openly failed upon or privately arranged by renewals and temporary loans. The pressure that has produced this state of things is undoubtedly severe beyond anything known in our trading history; but the conviction cannot be evaded that our commercial system must be somewhere radically rotton, to have snapped so early under the test .- N. Y. World.

The following remedies are offered to the public as the best, most perfect, which medical science can afford. Axer's Cathartic Pills have been prepared with the utmost skill which the medical profession of this age possesses, and their effects show they have virtues which surpass any combination of medicines hitherto known. Other preparations do more or less good; but this cures such dangerous complaints, so quick and so surely, as to prove an efficacy and a power to uproot disease beyond any thing which men have known before. By removing the obstructions of the internal organs and stimulating them into healthy action, they renovate the fountains of life and vigor, — health courses anew through the body, and the sick man is well again. They are adapted to disease, and disease only, for when taken by one in health they produce but little effect. This is the perfection of medicine. this antagonistic to disease, and no more. Tender children may take them with impunity. If they are sick they will cure them, if they are well they will do them no harm.

Give them to some patient who has been prostrated with bilious complaint: see his bent-up, tot-tering form straighten with strength again; see his long-lost appetite return; see his clammy features blossom into health. Give them to some sufferer whose foul blood has burst out in scrofula till his whose foul blood has burst out in scrofula till his skin is covered with sores; who stands, or sits, or lies in anguish. He has been drenched inside and out with every potion which ingenuity could suggest. Give him these PILLS, and mark the effect; see the scabs fall from his body; see the new, fair skin that has grown under them; see the late leper that is clean. Give them to him whose angry humors have planted rheumatism in his joints and hones; have him, and he spreaches with main; he bones; move him, and he screeches with pain; he too has been sonked through every muscle of his body with liniments and salves; give him these PILLS to purify his blood; they may not cure him, for, alas! there are cases which no mortal power for, alas! there are cases which no mortal power can reach; but mark, he walks with crutches now, and now he walks alone; they have cured him. Give them to the lean, sour, haggard dyspeptic, whose gnawing stomach has long ago eaten every smile from his face and every muscle from his body. See his appetite return, and with it his health; see the new man. See her that was radiant with health and loveliness blasted and too early withering away; want of exercise or mental anguish, or some lurking disease, has deranged the internal organs of digestion, assimilation or secretion, till they do their office ill. Her blood is vitiated, her health is gone. Give her these PILLS to stimulate the vital principle into renewed vigor, to cast out the ob-structions, and infuse a new vitality into the blood. Now look again — the roses blossom on her cheek, and where lately sorrow sat joy bursts from every feature. See the sweet infant wasted with worms. Its wan, sickly features tell you without disguise, and painfully distinct, that they are eating its life away. Its pinched-up nose and cars, and restless sleepings, tell the dreadful truth in language which every mother knows. Give it the Pills in large doses to sweep these vile parasites from the body. Now turn again and see the ruddy bloom of childhood. Is it nothing to do these things? Nay, are they not the marvel of this age? And yet they are done around you every lay.

Have you the less serious symptoms of these distempers, they are the easier cured. Jaundice, Costiveness, Headache, Sideache, Heartburn, Foul Stomach, Nausea, Pain in the Bowels, Flatulency, Stomach, Nausea, Fain in the Bowels, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, King's Evil, Neuralgia, Gout, and kindred complaints all arise from the derangements which these PILLS rapidly cure. Take them perseveringly, and under the counsel of a good Physician if you can; if not, take them judiciously by such advice as we give you, and the distressing, dangerous diseases they cure, which afflict so many mil-lions of the human race, are cast out like the devils of old—they must burrow in the brutes and in the sea. Price 25 cents per box—5 boxes for $1.

Through a trial of many years and through every nation of civilized men, AYEN'S CHERRY PECTORAL has been found to afford more relief and to cure more cases of pulmonary disease than any other remedy known to mankind. Cases of apparently settled consumption have been cured by it, and thousands of sufferers who were deemed beyond the reach of human aid have been restored to their friends and usefulness, to sound health and the friends and usefulness, to sound health and the enjoyments of life, by this all-powerful antidote to diseases of the lungs and throat. Here a cold had settled on the lungs. The dry, hacking cough, the glassy eye, and the pale, thin features of him who was lately lusty and strong, whisper to all but him Consumption. He tries every thing; but the disease is gnawing at his vitals, and shows its fatal symptoms more and more over all his frame. He is taking the Cherry Pectoral now; it has stonged his cough and made his breathing easy: stopped his cough and made his breathing easy; his sleep is sound at night; his appetite returns, and with it his strength. The dart which pierced his side is broken. Scarcely any neighborhood can be found which has not some living trephy like this to shadow forth the virtues which have won for the CHERRY PECTORAL an imperishable renown. But its usefulness does not end here. Nay, it accom-plishes more by prevention than cure. The count-less colds and coughs which it cures are the seed less colds and coughs which it cures are the seed which would have ripened into a dreadful harvest of incurable diseases. Influenza, Croup, Bronchitis, Hoarseness, Fleurisy, Whooping Cough, and all irritations of the throat and lungs are easily cured by the Chenny Prectoral if taken in season. Every family should have it by them, and they will find it an invaluable protection from the insidious prowler which carries off the parent sheep from many a flock, the darling lamb from many a home.

Authenticated evidence of these facts, with directions for the treatment of each complaint, may be found in Ayer's American Almanae, of which we publish three millions, and scatter them broadcast over the earth, in order that the sick every where may have before them the information it contains. Druggists and dealers in medicine generally have them for distribution gratis, and also for sale these remedies, prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayen, Practical and Analytical Chemist, Lowell, Mass. SOLD BY

Lyman, Savage, & Co., at Wholesale and Retail; and by all the Druggists in Montreal, and throughout Upper and Lower Canada.

RELIEF IN TEN MINUTES. BEYAN'S PULMONIC WAFERS.

The most certain and speedy remedy ever discovered for all Diseases of the Chest and Lungs, Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Consumption, Bronchitis, Influenza, Hourscness, Difficult Breathing, Sore Throat, &c. &c. THESE WAFERS give the most instantaneous and perfect relief, and when persevered with according to directions, never sail to effect a rapid and lasting cure. Thousands have been restored to perfect health who have tried other means in vain. To all classes and all constitutions they are equally a blessing and a cure—none need despair, no matter how long the disease may have existed, or however severe it may be, provided the organic structure of the vital organs is not hopelessly decayed. Every one afflicted should give them an impartial trial

To VOCALISTS and Public SPEAKERS, these Wafers are peculiarly valuable; they will in one day remove the most severe occasional hoarseness; and their regular use for a few days will, at all times, increase the power and flexibility of the voice, greatly improving its tone, compass and clearness, for which purpose they are regularly used by many professional vocalists.
