

Figure 1. Preliminary GSETT-3 alpha network. The filled symbols represent existing or planned stations. The open symbols denote additional stations that are proposed to be located in certain general geographical regions so as to improve the global coverage. The additional stations could be chosen either from existing stations or by installation of new facilities.