

the last figure of the date should be stamped on at the time of presentation. Although I have not been able to verify the fact, I have no doubt that this medal was substituted for the twenty-five electrotype medals issued for treaties numbers one and two.

29. Obv. VICTORIA REGINA. Crowned head of the Queen to the right; under the head, in small letters, J. S. & A. B. WYON, SC.

Rev. A wreath of oak leaves; size 51 m.

30. Obv. DOMINION OF CANADA CHIEFS 1872 MEDAL on an outside circle; within the circle VICTORIA D: G: BRITT: REG: F: D: Veiled and crowned bust of the Queen to the left; under the bust J. S. WYON, SC.

Rev. INDIANS OF THE NORTH-WEST TERRITORIES on an outer circle; within the circle JUVENTAS ET PATRIUS VIGOR CANADA INSTAURAT, 1867. Britannia, to the right, seated with a trident in her right hand, while with her left she presents a scroll inscribed CONFEDERATION to four females with emblems representing the industries of the four confederating provinces. By her left knee is a large lion; size 94 m.

31. Obv. VICTORIA REGINA. Bust of the Queen, as on the last; under the bust J. S. & A. B. WYON.

Rev. INDIAN TREATY NO—, below 187—. A prairie scene, with the setting sun to the left and an Indian encampment to the right; in the foreground is an Indian in war feathers clasping hands with a British general officer. At their