Cases of Bush of Ottawa and Brigden Semi-Final on Satur-Vivian, T.R. and A.A. Are Left Over.

• The Hamilton Rowing Club will repre-ment the Ontario Rugby Football Union

At the executive at a meeting at the king Edward Hotel last night.

The Bush charges of professionalism were not proved one way or the other; the accused party falling to appear before the meeting, as ordered.

The meeting was at a deadlock for a cansiderable time, arguing the T.R. and A.A. protest from all angles. Secretary liugh Gail came to the respue with a very sportsmanlike motion. The great player and coach proposed "that as it does not in anyway hurt the standing of the Ottawa St. Patricks and as the O.R.F.U. has an open date on Saturday and thru the non-appearance of Bush to answer the charges made against him that the Ottawa game in question be thrown out and that Hamilton Rowing Club and T.R. and A.A. play is Hamilton, on Nov. 28 to decide the G.E.F.U. senier series."

Mr. Gall also suggested the following smendment be another solution, and it was carried handly: "That the T.R. and A.A. ottawa game be thrown out and that the Hamilton Rowing Club be awarded the championship of the O.R. U. for the sesson spit and the Bush matter be left over until a later date.

The meeting, was of the spinion that this was the only way out of the difficulty and the only way out of the difficulty and the only way that would vindicate them in the eyes of the Rugby world.

Secretary Walter Trivett of the Ontario branch of the Amateur Athletic Association of Canada stated that he had reforred back the Bush case to the Ontario Union.

In the short time that was given the A.A.U. of C. that body was unable to ex-

In the short time that was given the A.A.U. of C. that body was unable to establish the identity of the Bush in question. As it will be remembered an affidavit was submitted at a former meeting of the O.R.F.U. and was signed by one Harry B. Bush, claiming that he was an amateur in every sense of the word. The T.A. and A.A. charges were that Bush, who played for the St. Patricks in the disputed game, was, according to information handed them, a professional wrestler. Ottawa was emphatic in the statement that the Bush who signed the affidavit was the Bush who played in the gamen mentioned. The Athletic Union found that there is a professional wrestler by the name of Bush who has performed in bouts in and around Ottawa. They were under the impression that the disputed man's Christian name was George, while the man who signed the affidavit was Harry B.

Fresident Daly of the Ottawa St. Fatricks informed the union secretary that Bush was unable to appear before the meeting last night, but that he was willing to appear before the A.A.U. of C. officers in Ottawa or any other representative body of men chosen by the entative body of men chosen by the nion in Ottawa and clear himself. Representative Ryan of the Ottawa Representative Ryan of the Ottawa Citis presented a sworn declaration charging that Vivian, the TR. & A. halfback, was playing under an assumed name, contrary to the Amateur Union and Ontario Union laws also that he had naved professional Rugby for two or more clubs in England, and that he had been refused permission to play by the Ontario British Rugby Union and admitted before that body that he had signed a professional form in England, and that his name was Himan, Hian, Hyman or Hiam.

his name was Himan, Hian, Hyman or Hiam.

Vivian asked permission to appear before the meeting, and stated that his name was not Vivian, but Hiam, and that the reason he played under the name Vivian was to keep his wife, who was then in the old country, in ignorance of the fact that he was playing Rugby in this country. He claimed that his full name was William Charles Hiam, and that he was quite within his rights in using Vivian, as it was the name of his step-father, but that he never signed a professional form anywhere. The matter was left for further consideration, when sworn declarations will be presented by both sides.

Mr. DeGruchy moved that Mr. Ryan's charges be accepted and gone into fully, and if they can be proved to the satisfaction of the union that Mr. Livingstone be asked to withdraw from the union.

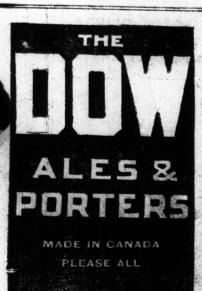

A motion was passed that the O. R. F.

Rough play came in for considerable discussion, and a motion was passed cen-soring McKelvey and Hayes of the Ham-liton Rowing Club for crude work on the field, and that a repetition of this by these players will mean expulsion from the union.

The O.R.F.U. wish it to be known that

Wonder Where Jonah Quilty Will Play Next

Ottawa Journal: There are several little features of the two titanic gridiron struggles staged at Hamilton and Toronto on Saturday. First, it may be noted that not one of the six touchdowns scored in the two games were converted, and this fact cost Argonauts the game in Hamilton. When O'Connor went over for his try, had he converted it, Argos would have won by 10 to 9. He falled, and the score resulted in a draw.

McGill scored two touchdowns against Varsity, and Laing failed to convert either of them. Varsity scored their last fifteen points on three tries and all of them were unconverted. It may be that McGill owes the fact that they lost the championship to Silver Quilty, the Ottawa boy—not on account of his work, but the fact that he has never played on a championship team, and also that he has Jonahed every team he has played with. Ottawa Colless were unable to win the Intercollegiate while Quilty was a member of their team, and Ottawa failed to Intercollegiate while Quilty was a member of their team, and Ottawa failed to land the Big Four last year with Quilty a member of the fourteen.

Then Silver went to McGill. For the first time in three years they lost the championship, and Quilty played for them. And at that Quilty was a star of it the game Saturday.

Frobably four of the best flying wings in Canadian Rugby faced each other in the two games—Isbister and Murphy in the two games—Isbister and Murphy in the Tiger-Argo game, and Quilty and Gage in the McGill-Varsity struggle. Quilty probably played the best game of the four of them, but the other three were largely responsible for their teams' showing.

WESTERN CÁNADA BOARD OF REVIEW

Auxiliary to Western Trotting Association With Power to Deal With Protests.

WINNIPEG, Nov. 24.-Another milestone in the progress of racing has been passed in Western Canada. The American Trotting Association, at their congress in Chicago last May, granted permission for the formation of an auxiliary board of review for Western Canada, with power to settle all disputes arising out of the western circuit, or circuits adopting the rules of the American Trotting Association.

The executive committee was organized at Winnipeg with the following officers: Chairman, I. G. Ruttle, Calgary; secretary, W. J. Stark, Edmonton; directors, R. W. Hamill, Regina; A. C. McCrae, Winnipeg, and W. I. Smale, Brandon.

Fresident Ijams of the American Trotting Association of Chicago was present at the organization meeting and gave a very interesting synopsis of the history of the American Trotting Association during its 28 years' existence. He also stated that the association had never been a money-making concern, and practically all of its assets consisted of its own office at 137 South Ashland boulevard, Chicago. He stated that the reason so many protests were made was because the horsemen did not make themselves familiar with the rules. He said that while he had some hesitancy at first in granting the authority invested in the newly-organized western executive board, since meeting the members he now felt that the step had been fully justified and would work out to the great advantage of horsemen in Western Canada. Mr. Ijams also expressed his pleasure in the enthusiasm associated with racing in the west, and said that he had watched the growth of the amount of money offered for racing with interest and considerable surprise.

The meeting dealt with a number of protests and would visit future meetings as frequently as possible. stone in the progress of racing has been passed in Western Canada. The Ameri-

RUGBY PLAYERS GET THEIR DRILL

Varsity Team in a New Role -Down to Hard Work Tonight-Gossip.

Varsity's champion Rugby team (aid aside their headgear and trick formations) yesterday afternoon. They forgot for once that they were a Rugby machine, and demonstrated that they are one in spirit with the rest of the undergraduate body when they turned out for military instruction. The oval at the Stadium was altogether too slushy for a regular Rugby practice, so the Varsity team and Prof. Williams laid a conspiracy whereby the sadly-neglected soldiery training would be secured. Over the field where those self-same players sounded the death knell of the McGill championship aspirations the squad marched, turned to the right-about, left-wheeled, marked time, and went thru all the evolutions which the rest of the students were accustomed to perform on the front campus.

Prof. Williams gave the new Intercollegiate champions a thoro drilling, and most of the squad were of the opinion that they were fast qualifying for the Varsity Officers' Training Corps. Just before dusk the discipline was relaxed and the chafing collegians had an opportunity to boot the pisskin around for a few moments. The blue and white cavorted around like champions. They are due to take a more strenuous workout this afternoon, and will keep up the good work for two weeks until they are sent into the Dominion final against the winners of the Big Four and Ontario Union.

Gerald Wagle will be an absentee from the Tiger line-up on Saturday, and possibly for the rest of the season. Wagle vate banquets catered for.

Argonaut-Tiger Seats

The reserve seat sale for the Argonaut-Tiger game will open at 207 Yonge street, Thursday evening, at 6.30 o'clock. Argonaut season ticket holders can get their seats at five o'clock tomorrow afternoon at 26 Toronto street. The prices are as follows: Box seats, $1.25; main stand, $1; Sections N. O and P, in bleachers, 75 cents. Other bleacher stands, 50 cents.

had three ribs broken on Saturday, and this will keep him out of the game. Coach Marriott has not decided upon the team as yet, but in all probability Wren will start in place of Wagle. The rest of the team will line up the same as on Saturday last, but Tout Leckle will likely be used in some part of the game.

Captain Jack Williams of St. Patricks says that little would be gained in having St. Patricks and Torontos replay their protested game in Ottawa. In fact, should it take place and St. Patricks win, another protest would surely follow. The Ontario Union stipulated that in the event of St. Patricks and Torontos being ordered to saw-off, the Saints should have the snow moved ten feet back of the line and the griddron cleared altogether. This, according to Williams, is impossible, and he has warned the C. R.

League communicate with E. H. Poolor, 15 Cificora avenue, phone Hillcrest 2409, before Monday, Nov. 30.
