Political Issue Lacking-Monroe Doctrine No Protection to Canada.

Canadian Press Despatch.

MONTREAL, Dec. 13.—Sir Wilfrid Laurier was entertained at a banquet by the Montreal Reform Club in the club rooms last night and he gave a spirited address, dealing chiefly with the war.

"The moment Great Britain is at Canada also is at war," Sir Wilfrid declared, and thruout his address he emphasized this point. He expressed entire accord with Premier Asquith's war policy, and while he professed not the slightest fear of a German invasion, he thought there might be some danger on the frontier. He look it that the government at Ottawa was alive to any danger. On the question of supporting the Dominion Government during the war, Sir Wil-frid said he would prefer to retire from public life rather than embarrass the government at the present time long as the war lasts," he said. "the Liberal party will support the government in any effort to provide for the defence of the empire."

Might Accept U. S. Aid. Referring to the German ambassador at Washington on the Monroe Doctrine, Sir Wilfrid said the doctrine was not international and he would not attempt to apply it. Said he: "If Canada had to be saved we would not have recourse to the Monroe Doctrine,

Touching very gingerly on politics, Sir Wilfrid stated that all political discussion had been abandoned for the present time, but he would say to the Liberal party, "Do not be dishearten As to the talk of a possible early election, he said there was no political issue just now, and he did not think the government would appeal to the
