BE IT REMEMBERED, that on the sixth day of May, in the fortieth year of the Independence of the United States of America, A. D. 1816, WILLIAM MC CARTR, of the said district, hath deposited in this office, the title of a book, the right whereof he claims as proprietor, in the words following, to wit:

"History of the American War, of eighteen hundred and twelve, from the commencement until the final termination thereof, on the memorable eighth of January, 1815, at New-Orleans: embellished with a striking likeness of general Pike, and six other engravings."

In conformity to the act of the Congress of the United States entitled "An act for the encouragement of learning, by securing the copies of maps, charts, and books to the authors and proprietors of such copies, during the times therein mentioned." And also to the act entitled, "An act supplementary to an act, entitled, "An act for the encouragement of learning, by securing the copies of maps, charts, and books to the authors and proprietors of such copies, during the times therein mentioned," and extending the benefits thereof to the arts of designing, engraving, and etching historical and other prints."

D. CALDWELL,

Clerk of the District of Pennsylvania.
