Mr. Kinloch, the inspector of material at the yards, under Mr. Hoare, for the Quebec Bridgo Co., made weekly reports to the consulting engineer, Theodore Cooper of New York, who could stop the work whenever he deemed it necessary. He could not say whether or not Mr. Hoare had that authority.

C. H. Kinloch, 2inspector, testified that he reported to Mr. Hoare, and that he was supposed to see that the iron was in good shape before it went into the bridge. DOES THIS INTEREST YOU?

A prominent physician, famous his success in the treatment of kidney and bladder diseases attributes a great deal of his success to the following simple vegetable prescription: One ounce Fluid Extract Dan-

One ounce Compound Sala-Four ounces Compound Syrup

Mix, shake well, and take in teaspoonful doses after meal and again at bedtime. Your druggist can supply the ingredients, and the mixture can be prepared at home at very little expense. This, the doctor says, acts directly on the kidneys, assisting them to filter the poisons from the blood and expel same in the urine, at the same time restoring kidneys to healthy, normal We feel that a great many readers will be pleased to learn of this simple prescription, and knowing the ability of the physician whose formula it is, do not hesitate to recommend it to any sufferer.

MEETING RESUMES TO-DI

Mayor and Ald. Lees and Baird in Mix-Up-A Serious Assault Case.

HAMILTON, Sept. 10,-(Special.)-Wm. McCabe, Locomotive-street, was arrested by Constable Brennan tonight on the charge of aggravated assault on J. M. Barker of the Flamboro Hotel. McCabe is accused of having thrust the point of an umbrella right thru the palm of Barker's hand. It is said that McCabe got into an altercation with Barker in the hotel and that the latter attempted to put him out.

The meeting of the city council looks as tho it is going to be a continuous

Last night the aldermen talked so much that nothing was done, and it was necessary to adjourn until to-night, when another adjournment had much that nothing was done, and it was necessary to adjourn until tonight, when another adjournment had to be made until to-morrow night. The mayor denied that he said he was ashamed of last night's meeting, and Ald. Lees took a similar stand with reference to a statement to the effect that he had criticized the mayor's action in ruling that the council be adjourned at 11 o'clock. Ald. Baird defied Mayor Stewart to have him ejected from the council chamber because he persisted in talking about something which had no bearing on the business in hand.
