TWENTY-THIRD YEAR

THIS SWORD NOT TO BE DRAWN FROM ITS SCABARD
IN SOUTH AFRICA

Lord Kitchener Presented With the Gift From Cape Town in London
Last Night.

SEES MAKINGS OF A NEW AMERICA

Conquered Territory Ready for the Sowing of Seed for a Glorious Harvest.

London, July 31.—Amid tremendous enthusiasm, Lord Kitchener was tonight presented with a sword of honor, the gift of Cape Town. Sir Joseph Dimdale, Lord Mayor of London, made the presentation, in the course of a South African dinner, which was attended by many notable persons.

When the enthusiasm had sufficiently subsided for Lord Kitchener to make himself heard, he modestly returned thanks for the gift, and expressed the confident hope that, in South Africa, at any rate, the sword would not again be drawn from its scabbard.

Lord Kitchener eulogized Lord Milner, British High Commissioner in South Africa, and made an appeal upon his intimate and personal friendship and knowledge of the South African administrator, that he be given the confidence and support of the British nation.

Referring to the mineral and agricultural wealth of the new territory, Lord Kitchener said:
"You may assure yourselves that you have nothing less than the makings of a new America in the Southern Hemisphere."

He said the energy and money to carry out this great development was more for his hearers than for himself, but when, as in South Africa, patriotism was joined with self-interest, it was not afraid they would fail to sow the seed and reap the harvest for which he hoped that those who had recently been in South Africa had prepared.

CANADIAN UNDER ARREST.
Charged With Defrauding the Mails and Other Things.

New York, July 31.—George G. Corey of St. John, N.B., held to-day in $2500 bail for grand jury, charged with defrauding the mails, is believed by the authorities to know much concerning the mysterious murder of old Solomon S. Dingle, a New York, in 1885. After Dingle's body was recovered from the Hudson river relatives searched his office for important papers, but had been accumulating for five years, papers containing his claim to the Dingle and Drake estates in Dutchess and Putnam Counties, New York, but the papers were missing. The following year Corey advertised for the heirs to the Dingle estate, claiming he had picked up from the Hudson River a bundle containing the documents proving their claim. Many people answered his advertisement. He represents himself as one of the heirs and asked co-operation.
He induced many to advance money. The police say he got about $50,000.

MACADAMS WILL BE RELEASED Paymaster Editor's Apology Has Been Accepted by the Full Court.

Vancouver, July 31.—Editor William MacAdams, July 31, has been accepted by the full court, and the judges have wired Ottawa recommending his release.

William MacAdams, editor of The Standard, B.C., Paymaster, was sentenced to nine months in jail and an additional year if he failed to secure bondsman for his future behavior for contempt of the Judiciary of British Columbia, the charge being that he published an article in his paper characterizing the judges at contempt for a poor man to break into a British Columbia court, and all of his remarks were written in a style characteristic of the west.

A MOST EVENTFUL HALF DAY.
Saturday afternoon is a half-holiday for nearly everybody during the summer months. It is the most eventful half-day in the week. The Sunday World, published on Saturday night, has a complete record of the happenings up to 9 o'clock. It contains records of sports and games in every city.

The Sunday World will be delivered to any home in the city on Saturday night, $2 for one year.

Besides the current news, "The Sunday World" is full of good reading, sporting sketches, articles on fashions—everything that is of interest.

A GOOD CATCH.
The Grand Trunk Railway have in their show window at King and Yonge streets the result of one hour's catch by two Pittsburg fishermen at Bobca-seon. The catch consists of two bass, weighing three and four pounds, and one mackinac, weighing 11 pounds.
S. W. Whitman and F. P. Lawkins were the lucky sportsmen.

THE LIBERALS
LIGHT ON DISMAL TRAGEDY OF WAREHOUSE

A. E. RAGG, FORMER MANAGER, RETURNS TELLS STORY AND EXPLAINS HIS ABSENCE

Declares He Did Not Consider His Evidence of Sufficient Importance To Be Desired—Given a Special Hearing To-Day—Believes That Murder Has Been Done—One Victim Said He Was Poisoned.

A. E. Ragg, former manager of the Evans & Sons branch in Toronto, is in the city to-day. He will remain here until night. Mr. Ragg is supposed to be able to throw considerable light on the mystery surrounding the warehouse tragedy. He came to the city last night as a result of some rather animated correspondence between himself and Crown Attorney Dewar and the head of the local detective force. Mr.
Ragg expects to be permitted to give his testimony to-day and to be in a position to leave for Chicago on the evening train, where he is engaged in business.

Coroner Young said that Mr. Ragg might be permitted to give his testimony to-day if the situation was argued enough. In that event, the evidence would probably be taken in the office of the Crown Attorney, and that, as far as he knew, it would be public.
That would, however, be determined wholly by the representative of the Crown. A coroner's investigation was supposed to be public, but, in the estimation of the Crown, it was in the interest of justice to withhold any phase of the evidence, it would undoubtedly be done.

The Crown Attorney refused to be interviewed on the case, and refused to admit that he knew Mr. Ragg was in Toronto last night and would remain here during Friday.

Motives Not Understood.
Mr. Ragg arrived in Toronto last night, and declared that he desired to keep out of the way of the reporters until this morning, at least. He was in a hurry to get to Chicago, and he felt that his motives for not desiring to remain in Toronto until the inquest was completed had been improperly interpreted. It was for this reason Mr. Ragg returned to the city. It was at least his intention to sacrifice time, but he felt from the communications received from the Crown Attorney and the detective department that he could better afford this personal loss than to be placed in the position of impeding justice.

"Emphatically, I know nothing that can possibly be of value to the au-

THINKS IT IS MURDER.

A. E. Ragg, former manager of Evans & Sons in the city. He will probably give his testimony to-day. The jury will not be called together for that purpose.

Mr. Ragg says that he has been placed in a false light largely by a telegram from Crown Attorney Dewar failed to reach him, and that he would have come to Toronto immediately had he received that message. He declares emphatically that he knows nothing that will throw light on the tragedy, and that he would not appreciate the interest of the authorities in his opinion.

At the same time, Mr. Ragg expresses the opinion that murder has been committed, and that the victim was poisoned. He says that he is familiar with the interior of Evans & Sons' warehouse and stock.

but, at the same time, I don't see how we can get away from the indications that some of the employees or others of close acquaintance with the interior arrangements are responsible for any tragedy that has been committed in this connection. The same is true of the attempt to enter the safe.

"I don't understand why Arnott White, the assistant of George Whalley, and a reliable young man, should not have told while he was before the coroner's jury about hearing Edward Geen say, 'I believe I am poisoned.' That's exactly what he said to William Scott, foreman of the establishment, the Monday morning following Geen's strange death. Scott immediately reported the statement to me."

"Why did you not report it to the authorities at the time if you thought it such a suspicious circumstance?" "I did not ascribe special importance to it at the time, for the chain of peculiar events had not developed then."

"I did not even talk to White about it.
In fact, at first I was not sure that the statement had not come from Whalley, so slight an impression had it made on my mind. It is only significant in the light of more recent circumstances. If Geen was poisoned, who poisoned him? If he thought he was poisoned strongly enough to suggest such a thing to Arnott White, why did he not continue to work in the basement and not seek medical aid?
These are queries that occur to me, and I confess they did not at the time been told."

"I had been told that Geen's landlord had reported that he was taking prussic acid daily as a heart tonic at the time of his death. That suggested that he had taken an overdose of the drug and might have accounted for his statement to White that he believed he was poisoned."

Should Exhume Body.
"If Edward Geen was poisoned as a result of taking an overdose of prussic acid he certainly could not have worked after partaking of the deadly fluid?"

WINDSOR, July 31.—A rumor is abroad in Windsor that John A. Auld, M.L.A. for South Essex, has signified his willingness to resign and accept a government position. This is accounted for by some by the fact that the government party wants William Mc-Kee, ex-M.L.A., to act as party whip.
Mr. McKee acted in this capacity during his last term, and should Auld resign, it is said an effort would be made to put McKee in his place.

Others say that Mr. Auld's willingness to resign is due to his foreseeing a near destruction of the Liberal party in South Essex. A family quarrel, it is said, has broken out in the government ranks in this district, and Auld is discouraged by the split among his supporters. H. F. Sutherland, M.P., says he considers the report unfounded.

SAYS TWO SMELTERS ARE CLOSED
Crow's Nest Coal Co. Has Mining Industry at Its Mercy.

The World received the following despatch from a citizen of Greenwood, B. C., last night: "Edwards Rogers' statement that smelters are not closed on account of shortage of coke is not true. Greenwood smelter and Sunset smelter are both closed for this reason. The Coal Commissioner is sending half a supply of coke to each smelter. The Sunset smelter to accept this because it was unable to run until adequate coke is secured. The Granby smelter is getting only half a supply of coke, two furnaces being idle.
The Crow's Nest Coal Company has the mining and smelting industries at its mercy, and unless coke is supplied, all the mines and smelters must close."

CHIEF OF MAFIA CONVICTED.
With Two of His Band Given Thirty Years.

Bologna, Italy, July 31.—The trial before the Assize Court here, which had been going on for some time, of Trapani, Fontana, and Palizzolo, the last named, formerly Deputy Mayor of Palermo, on charges of murder, was concluded at 11 o'clock to-night. The jury returned a verdict of guilty against Trapani and Palizzolo and against Signor Micali and against Signor Nubarolo for the murder of Signor Nubarolo. Sentences of thirty years' imprisonment each were imposed upon the three guilty men, who are members of the Mafia.

Palizzolo was accused of having, as the head of the Mafia, procured the murders of Signor Micali and Signor Nubarolo. The latter, who was a former Mayor of Palermo and a director of the Bank of Sicily, was robbed and killed in a railroad car near Palermo in December, 1890.

The proceedings against Palizzolo were considered particularly important in the efforts of the Italian government to overthrow the Sicilian Mafia.
Bologna was the place where the trial in order that witnesses and judges might not be intimidated by the Mafia.

Vessel With Broken Tail Shaft
Towed Into Cape Town.

Cape Town, July 31.—The British port the New Zealand steamer Wai-Kiddle of the Waiakato said that on June 30 the tailshaft of the Waiakato broke. He decided to cut the stern tube and endeavor to connect the shaft with patent couplings. This necessi-600 holes in 2 1/2 inches of steel. The task was successfully accomplished and after six hours' steaming the shaft coupling slipped and was useless.

TWELVE HUNDRED TROOPERS
CAMPED ABOVE A TOWN
AWAKE STRIKERS

Shenandoah Resumes Its Usually Tranquil Life, Tho Not Under Marital Law.

FOREIGNERS BLAMED FOR RIOT
One Man Succumbs to Injuries Received—Wounded Men Treated and Jailed.

Shenandoah, Pa., July 31.—Twelve hundred state troops are camped tonight on a hill overlooking Shenandoah.
Down in the town, some riotous and police fought the bloody battle last night, all is quiet, and the indications are that so long as the militia remains the peace of the community will not again be broken. The thousands of idle men and boys in this vicinity who had been gathering in large numbers and marching from place to place did not repeat their demonstrations to-day, and the authorities consequently had little or nothing to do.

The major portion of the population here is made up of foreigners, and, as a rule, they kept close to their homes during the day. It is claimed by the citizens of the town that the foreign element was solely responsible for the trouble. Contrary to popular belief, Shenandoah is not under martial law.
The local authorities and the sheriff of the county have not relinquished control of the town or county, and they remain in as complete control as their respective affairs as they did before the troops reached here. The soldiers are nearly in camp on the outside of the town. It was deemed advisable, however, by the brigadier-general to establish a strong guard in certain places of the town.

The mine workers are greatly interested in the calling out of the troops. They assert that this action was entirely unwarranted and is an unjustifiable expense on the part of the state. The strikers thru their officials are making an effort to have the soldiers withdrawn. The first step in this direction was taken this afternoon, when a telegram was sent to the Governor requesting him to send a personal representative here to investigate the conditions and express the belief that after such investigation he will learn that the presence of the troops is unnecessary.

Of the twenty or thirty persons who were beaten with clubs or struck by bullets during last night's rioting, the man Joseph Beddall, died to-night at 10 o'clock. The police say that he was shot and the strikers who were also shot by bullets will recover.
Most of the wounded strikers claim that they were merely onlookers.

The district attorney and the sheriff are prosecuting an investigation, with a view of placing under arrest all those who participated in the riot. Several of the wounded strikers called at the miners' hospital to-day to have their injuries dressed, and after the doctors got thru with them, they were treated and taken to the Pottsville jail.

KING SOLOMON'S MASONIC APRON.
From The Mirror Craftsmen.

We are rejoiced to learn by a special able to the Globe and reprinted in The Evening Telegram of Toronto, that our distinguished fellow-countryman, Mr. J.
Ross Robertson, Past Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Freemasons of Canada, has for still another time been brought into Masadoe touch with H.H.H. the Duke of Connaught, who is today recognized as the first Mason in the world. This exchange of Masonic courtesies and the fra-terization of our distinguished Past Master with a royal duke will be hailed with satisfaction by every member of the craft in Canada.

We have also heard that while Mr. Robertson is in the Old Country he is negotiating with a poor lone widow a Scotch town for the purchase and possession of the original apron worn by King Solomon when he was engaged at his craft building the Temple. If Mr. Robertson succeeds in getting this memento of the early days of Masonry it will be a source of delight to the men of the plumb and of the con-pass. Mr. E. T. Malone, who also stands high in the order, intimated to us on our last trolley visit to the city that there was every possibility of Mr. Robertson's securing King Solomon's apron for this country.

The Only Hat.
There's only one hat this season, and that's the Panama hat—there's only one place to buy the Panama, and that's at Dimsen's. The hat having a real sun shade necessary by their building operations—adding up a four-story addition to their big establishment. Remember, they're all real Pan-amas. See the window displays and satisfy yourself.
