SCREWING UP COURAGE.

Madrid, Nov. 25.-The Premier, Senor Canovas del Castillo, was questioned today on the subject of the contradictory reports circulating as a result of the unexpected return of the captaingeneral of Cuba, Gen. Weyler, to Havana, from Pinar del Rio, where he had been personally conducting the operations of the Spanish troops against the insurgents under Antonio The Spanish Premier said in substance that there was no truth in the report that Gen. Weyler had been ed, and it was equally untrue that his recall was contemplated. On the contrary, he added, the Govern-ment had given Gen. Weyler a free hand in the task of suppressing the insurrection, and the Ministers had onfidence that he would be successful.

More Evidence in the Russell Case-The

Earl's Billets-Doux to Lady Scott. London, Nov. 25 .- The trial of Lady Selina Scott, mother of Countess Russell; John Cockerton, an engineer: Frederick Kast, a groom, and William Aylott, a valet, charged with criminal libel by Earl Russell, son-in-law of Lady Scott, was continued before Justice Hawkins at the Central Criminal Court, otherwise the Old Bailey, today. Earl Russell was again on the stand, and, continuing his testimony, he said that at Christmas, 1892, he received a card, saying: "God grant that next Christmas all will be forgotten, and that you will be with the people who love you." Witness later identified a letter, written by Lady Scott and addressed to a private detective named Dickman, containing the following words: "Anyone who proves anything will not only get my thanks, but enough to start in life, for although we have enough evidence to hang an ordinary man, it is not quite sufficient for every
