$2,000,000 IN HIS OLD COAT A YEAR

John A. Drake's Hunting Suit Saves Its Owner Almost a Million and a Half.

NEW YORK, April 19.—To the fact that Mrs. John A. Drake found in a pocket of an old hunting coat of her husband in their apartments at the Waldorf-Astoria a bundle of stock certificates Mr. Drake owes the possession of a gold mine in Montana, upon which experts have set a value of $2,000,000.

Having spent $6000 a month in developing the mine, of which he was the principal owner, Mr. Drake had prepared to sell the property to officials of the Amalgamated Copper Company and other men. They had paid $100,000 on the purchase price of $600,000 set by him. He went to get his stock certificates to deliver to the purchasers. The shares were not in his safety deposit vault at the Waldorf-Astoria. They were not in his vault in Wall-street. He telegraphed to his brother, Frank Drake, in Chicago, and had him make a search in the Chicago offices, but nowhere could the certificates be found.

The transaction was halted, and Mr. Drake, failing to find the stock, was unable to dispose of his mine.

He got word from his representatives in Montana last week that upon his property, which he had been willing to sell for $600,000, there had been discovered a five foot ledge one thousand feet long, the ore from which assayed $80 a ton, a yield more familiar to fiction than to fact.

Search for the missing certificates was then resumed. Mrs. Drake went thru all the clothes closets in the Drake apartment. In the pocket of a hunting coat, which had not been worn for more than a year, she found the certificates. She telegraphed to Mr. Drake, who had gone to Montana to investigate the reports of a strike which had come to him.

He went out with engineers and inspected the ledge. Then he decided he would not sell at any price. He returned to this city Tuesday and has since been in consultation with mining men in connection with the property.

If We Could Look at the Heart of a Pale-Faced Person!

Few people ever stop to consider what pallor to the countenance means. In the first place it indicates an absence from the blood of the rich, red, life-giving elements so requisite to health; and in the second place it indicates a weakened heart action. These two things act and re-act. If we could look at the heart of one of these pale-faced people, we would see it flabby, weak and pallid. No wonder they are easily tired, get out of breath quickly, have palpitation, are nervous and downhearted. Their muscles are poor, their stomach disordered, and their lives are seldom free from misery.

Let them take Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills; there is no remedy to equal them for making pale faces rosy, weak hearts and shaky nerves strong, flabby muscles firm, and infusing new hope and ambition into life.

Mr. W. J. Churchill, Lombardy, Ont., writes: "I was troubled for three years with a weak heart and nervousness. I could not sleep and ever so little food would distress me. I also had faint and dizzy spells, and doctored with three doctors but was growing worse. After taking three boxes of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills I feel as well as ever I did. They are the best pills on earth."

Price 50 cents per box, or 3 for $1.25 at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

PURSE SNATCHER BUSY TORONTO WOMAN VICTIM

Two Cases Saturday Night—A Number of Deaths, Two of Which Were Sudden.

HAMILTON, April 19.—(Special.)—The police are searching for a frisky purse snatcher who early Saturday evening grabbed a purse containing $4.35, from Mrs. Petty, 202 South Bay-street, at the corner of MacNab and Duke-streets, and at midnight seized a chatelaine bag containing $15 from Mrs. Fryer, Station-street, Toronto. Mrs. Fryer had not enough money left to take her home, and she was given lodgings at No. 3 police station.

The residents of the mountain and the southeastern end of the city are insisting upon the prosecution of the brute who attacked David Winn's daughter. No information has been laid yet, but the police say that Mr. Winn has promised to prosecute. Many women of the district have been assaulted.

The funeral of Mgr. Heenan will be held at Dundas Monday morning.

John Johnson was arrested to-day on the charge of stealing a watch and chain from Chas. Mills. The alleged offence was committed in a West King-street hotel last Tuesday.

Fred Thornton was taken to the cells charged with committing an aggravated assault on Chas. Harte, 155 King William-street. Harte had a nasty cut in his head.

Hundred in Crap Game.

Constables Brown, Aiken, Emmerson and Merritt broke up a crap game this afternoon on the G.T.R. right of way east of Wentworth-street. There were about a hundred in the gang, and altho they all escaped the police know the names of several, and police court cases will follow.

Mrs. Midwinter, wife of George Midwinter, proprietor of the Arlington Hotel, was found dead this evening in the bathroom of the hotel. She took a bath immediately after supper, and died while dressing.

William A. Gibb, commission merchant, 162 South Victoria-avenue, formerly of Balfour & Co., died to-day after a short illness. He was 41 years of age.

Mrs. Mary Mence died to-day at the residence of her son, Thos. J., 304 North Victoria, in her 79th year.

John Gee died suddenly Saturday evening at the residence of his son, William, 51 Tisdale-street. He ate a hearty dinner Saturday, but at 2 o'clock was seized with a paralytic stroke. He was 40 years a resident of Hamilton, and had been officially connected with the Emerald-street Methodist Church since its inception. The funeral will be held Tuesday afternoon.

Fifty Would-Be Engineers.

There are fifty applicants for the position of city engineer.

At the fire and water committee Wednesday evening the aldermen of Cataract tendencies will make another effort to throw the waterworks pump and power contract to the company. This would have the effect of putting Hamilton out of the hydro electric scheme and leaving the city at the mercy of the company.

MEXICO CITY, April 19.—The will of the late Archbishop Prospero Maria Alarcon y Sanchez, which has just been filed for probate here, shows that the prelate left a fortune of $2,000,000. His estate consists of valuable houses in this city, ranches and farms and stock in paying corporations.

He left this large fortune to Canon Emeterio Valverde, the priest who served as his secretary for several years, years. The archbishop gave liberally to charity and supported a number of poor families.

Hon. Geo. P. Graham, minister of railways and canals, spent yesterday in the city, arriving at 7.35 in the morning and leaving at 10.15 at night.

Miners to Resume.

PITTSBURG, April 19.—The miners and operators of the Pittsburg district arrived home from Toledo, Ohio, today. Both sides are well pleased that the trouble has been brought to a conclusion. President Feehan of the miners said:

"Work will be started on Monday by the miners of the district pending the final adjustment of the scale. Between 32,000 and 34,000 men will go back to the mines next week, and I

Ducks Plentiful.

BRIGHTON, April 19.—To-day's heavy north winds completely cleared Presque Isle Bay of ice and opened it for navigation. Murray Canal is still impassable on account of the ice field at the head of the Bay of Quinte.

The armies of wild ducks have arrived from the south and the water is black with them. Old residents say they never saw so many in the spring before.

GOULDS ARE TOO WEALTHY TO LIVE IN HAPPINESS

Frank Speaks of "Curse of Gold" as the Cause of Parting From His Wife.

NEW YORK, April 19.—On the best of authority it was announced late Saturday that the quarrel between Frank Gould and his young wife, Helen Kelly Gould, would be patched up. A mediator is on his way to see the husband, who is at Hot Springs, Va., or rather who started for that place. It is believed by some persons here that he did not intend to go to the Virginia resort, but started away merely to emphasize the points that he had been making in the various family quarrels that have preceded this move.

Furthermore, when the mediator meets Frank Gould, he will not represent himself as coming from Mrs. Edward Kelly, the mother of Mrs. Gould. The troubles between the young married couple, it is more than hinted, have proceeded from the intervention of Mrs. Kelly into the not unnatural small differences that have sprung up between the two.

There is a side of the disagreement that is not without pathos. When Frank Gould was leaving for Hot Springs yesterday he spoke at length of the curse of gold.

"If I were a poor man I would not have had to suffer what I did in silence. It is one of the obligations that was put upon me," he said. "I suppose that is one of the curses of gold."

The young man said that with sincerity that left no doubt of his deep feeling in the matter.

To-day Mrs. Gould, when pressed for a statement on the subject, said:

"There is nothing to say in any way. The newspapers really make a person's life miserable, and I don't think they quite realize that in many cases they may be responsible, by the lies they print, in causing and keeping trouble in the family. I am not afraid of any story that can be printed, even if made up, and I am sorry, but I cannot and will not see anyone."

Anyone who knows the ordinarily calm temperament of the Gould family in the matter of publicity can appreciate how much this affair has thrown the younger Goulds off their balance when they make statements of this kind. Added to all this is what Mrs. Edward Kelly said of the affair:

"Too much money and idleness have been the curse of my daughter and her husband. The same is true of many other young couples who are on the rocks of domestic happiness. It is the curse of money."

Even tho it is admitted that papers have been filed in the supreme court by Mrs. Gould, asking for a limited divorce from her husband, this, it is believed, will hardly stand in the way of a reconciliation. The charges made in these papers, it is said, are so trivial that no court would take notice of them.

MARINE

BUFFALO, April 19:—All the chief engineers on the ships of the package freight lines entering this port have signed individual agreements with their managers, and by their action eliminated all danger of a strike when navigation opens on the great lakes. The engineers are to receive the same wages as paid last season. The "open shop" clause was eliminated from practically all the agreements signed. The chief engineers will appoint their first and second assistants, subject to the approval of the management.

The Tonawanda Lumber Association and the longshoremen adopted rates for unloading vessels at the Tonawandas during the season of 1908. The scale is the same as that in force last year.

OWEN SOUND, April 19.—(Special.)—The first movement out of the steel tonnage which wintered here, and which was valued at nearly four million dollars, began last night with the departure of the Mackey Line Dundee, which cleared for Erie, Pa., to load coal. She was followed to-day by the Strathcona of the Mackay Line for Lake Erie ports to loan coal. The Winona and Glenellah are expected to clear at once.

The Northern Navigation Company's steamer Doric is loading cement for Fort William and will leave as soon as ice prospects are favorable. The Regina, which carried a cargo of cement in storage during the winter, is completing her cargo and will leave as soon as prospects for getting thru brighten up.

All the other steam tonnage in the harbor is about ready to sail on receipt of orders.

WHY GOLD IS GOING.

Europe's View of the Outward Flow From America.

NEW YORK, April 19.—The Post's London cable says:

It is believed here that the gold movement from New York to Paris, which has begun this week, is partly connected with some relatively small French advances of gold to you during your recent crisis, and partly also to Germany's indebtedness in Paris. A really serious drain is not at the moment expected. The heavy strinkage in your merchandise exports, as compared with recent months, is, however, recognized. It is ascribed entirely to the cotton trade, and is an effect of "over-selling" by your exporters during the panic period; that influence now being naturally aggravated by the sudden trade reaction, in Europe as in America.

Underlying the present stagnation on the stock exchanges, conditions, tho mixed, seem to be gradually improving. Numerous commercial difficulties of the less important sort are accurring here and in Paris, yet capital is steadily accumulating at both places.

It will be absorbed, however, in the numerous large impending loans, which include a £5,000,000 Transvaal issue. As a rule, these operations are not likely to take cash abroad.

The future borrowings of your railways are somewhat feared as an influence. We, however, shall not lend more than moderately in that direction.

The immediate financial future depends mainly on the course of your export movement. If these shipments are not large, money rates here will probably remain around the present level, and may even show a slight upward tendency later in the year. But really heavy exports from New York would demoralize our money rates and force them to a lower level.

The action of the German government, in not announcing the definite result of last Saturday's large loan emissions, is greatly criticised. The money was genuinely required, among other things, for the extension of railway enterprises; but it was doubtless hoped also that foreign subscriptions would be large enough to help, thru the remittance of capital to ermany, that country's general financial situation. Such hopes have unquestionably been disappointed.

The readjustment scheme of the Speyers' "tube" enterprises removes an important cloud from our market. A drastic reorganization had been expected; hence the announcement is hailed with relief. Under the present management these underground railways have been increasingly popular, hence the moderate optimism entertained for their future.
