CONTESTS FOR ENDURANCE.

To be a fair stand-up boxing match, in a 24 ft. ring, or as near that size as practicable. No wrestling or hugging allowed. The rounds to be of three minutes' duration, and one minute time. If either man fall through weakness or otherwise he must get up unassisted; ten seconds to be allowed him to do so; the other man meanwhile to retire to his corner, and when the fallen man is on his legs the round is to be resumed and continued until the three minutes have expired, and if one man fails to come to the scratch in the ten seconds allowed, it shall be in the power of the referee to give his award in favor of the other man. A man hanging on the ropes in a helpless state, with his toes off the ground shall be considered down. No seconds or any other person to be allowed in the ring during the rounds. Should the contest be stopped by any unavoidable interference, the referee to name time and place for finishing the contest as soon as possible, so that the match must be won or lost, unless the backers of both men agree to draw the stakes. The gloves to be fair-sized boxing gloves of the best quality, and new; should a glove burst or come off, it must be replaced to the referee's satisfaction. A man on one knee is considered down, and if struck is entitled to the stakes. No shoes or boots or shoes with spriggs allowed. With the exceptions herein mentioned the contest shall be governed by the rules of the London P. R.
