DRAW FOR POLSONS AND MOUNT DENNIS

Hard Tussle All the Way, With Honors Even-The Game in Detail.

In a third division T & D game, Pol-sons drew with Mount Dennis 3 goals to 3, at Victoria College grounds on Saturday afternoon. It was a hard tussle all the way with Mount Dennis playing ten men until nearly half time. Polsons had the score 2-0 at the end of the first half and scored another at the restart of the second half, but Mount Dennis came strong in the last 30 minutes and tied up the

From the kick-off Polsons carried the ball down their right wing towards their opponent's goal, but it was shot past. Spasmodic attacks by off the mark. Spasmodic attacks by Mount Dennis very seldom got past Powell and Harrison. Good work by White and Russell on Polson's right was spoiled by the inside men's ineffectiveness in front of goal. A hard rasping shot from Russell was tipped over the bar by Banks, who repeated his good work in a minute later by stopping a dead-on shot from Gow. Welsh broke away down the Mount Dennis left wing but his cross was cleared by Polson's backs. McGrath, when placed 10 yards in front of the Dennys' goal, raised high over the when placed 10 yards in front of the Dennys' goal, raised high over the bar. Polsons scored the first tally from a foul kick near their opponent's goal, Russell shooting the ball against the post from which it rebounded into the net. From a long forward pass by Gow, McGrath scored No. 2 for the Ironworkers. Play was centred around the Dennys' defence when helf-time was called.

half-time was called.

Polsons scored their third goal a minute after the final half had commenced. White worked the ball down the right wing and centred to Gow, who gave Banks no chance to save his final shot. Mount Dennis replied to this reverse by forcing the play downfield and securing a corner, which, however, was easily cleared. After some quiet play Petrie skimmed the cross-bar of Polson's goal with a long shot from the right. Mount Dennis at this period had more of the play than formerly and but for their poor shooting would have had better results. Finally Clark beat White with a hard, low shot, after receiving a nice pass low shot, after receiving a nice pass from Welsh. Welsh added another for the Dennys' from close in. A grand scramble in front of the Mount Dennis goal was cleared after the ball had come in contact with a dozen heads and feet. Woodley broke away and scored the third and equalizing goal for Mount Dennis shortly after which However, if Welsh was acting a part when he was outpointed by Shugrue, Ritchie and White it was the cleverest work in that line ever seen in a ring. From a ringside seat it appeared that Welsh has steadily been losing stamina and to some extent his speed and skill.

CHAMPION WILLARD TO SHOW IN GOTHAM

Will Likely Meet Coffey in Open Air Bout on Labor Day at Brooklyn.

By Iconoclast. NEW YORK, July 24. John Weismantel, who is making the matches for the open air boxing shows at Ebbets Field, announces that hereafter the bouts will be held on Tuesday evenings. But John has one bout in view which he is willing to hold on Monday. That would be between Jess Willard, heavyweight champion of the world, and Jim Coffey, the Dublin giant. The Monday on which he would change his plans is Labor Day Weismantel figures that the crowl hat can be accommodated at Ebbets Field, as proved by previous bouts there, he will be able to offer inducements that will bring the champion out into the open, literally and figuratively, and induce him to do some-thing in the way of defending his thing in the way of defending his title. Coffey has an immense personal following, and that with the prestige of Willard's championship should tax the capacity of even such a large place as Ebbets ball park. Coffey is generally conceded to be the logical opponent for Willard, and Willard is quoted as perfectly willing to meet the big Irishman if proper inducements are offered. As they must have some place to box, if they ever do box, it might as well be at Ebbets Field, and Weismantel's hopes are not without foundation.
