NEWS AND VIEWS OF SPORT

Bouts on Wednesday night were:

New York—Jack Curley proved that his former defeat of Harry Cutch was no fluke by repeating the trick at the Sharkey A. C. This time Jack put his man out in the second round.

Pittsburg—Owing to the illness of Frank Klaus, the fight scheduled for tonight between Hugo Kelly and Klaus was postponed until Friday night. The affair is scheduled to go six rounds.

Wednesday was the day of official welcome from Cincinnati to the Turners attending the 30th American Turnfest. At the music hall, Garry Hermann, president of the Turnfest, delivered a welcoming speech, which was responded to by Robert Nix of Indianapolis, president of the North American Gymnastic Union. John Galvin, acting mayor, also made a welcoming address and turned over the keys of the city to the visiting Turners. Messrs. Bernhardt, Grazer and Max Volz of Wiesbaden, and Joseph Lindner, champion all round athlete of Frankfurt, Germany, arrived today. Three drivers were injured in the motor cycle races. W. B. Weaver of Knoxville, Tenn., the most seriously injured, finished his race and then collapsed. Weaver and Frank Beech were coming down the stretch in the third race when Beech's machine swerved. Weaver crashed into Beech and the latter's machine was knocked across the track, while Beech jumped and suffered only slight bruises. Harry Wesel, one of the entrants in the same race, was injured when his machine ran into the fence.

Jack Johnson after creating a good impression in Boston by his public addresses and appearances, nullified it all by breaking his word regarding the match with Tony Ross at Pittsburg, June 30. Willie Pierce, of Boston, had arranged this bout at Johnson's request and believed the affair was a fixture until Johnson telephoned from New York.

A two-days' cricket match was begun at Ottawa on Wednesday between Ottawa and Haverford College. Haverford elected to defend and against strong bowling carried their bats to a total of 109. Ottawa went in in the afternoon and ran up 136 for eight wickets.

Many lovers of boxing learned with regret of the death of Dan Donnelly, who conferred a number of important glove contests in Boston. "Honest Dan" died at 41, as a result of a fall from a horse, and was a well-known figure in the city.

John Swaberg, the Swedish Marathon runner, issued a challenge to race Alfred Shrubbs, the middle distance champion, for 20 miles.

When one considers that Joe Thomas gave Ketchel three hard fights of 20, 32 and 20 rounds respectively, it shows that he is a performer of extraordinary merit. Joe is now matched to meet Tommy Sullivan of Lawrence in Boston next Tuesday and is getting into shape boxing with Harry Lewis.

Manager Fred Clarke of the Pittsburg club will not be hailed before the directors of the National league for the criticism he and of league officers for their ordering the protested Pittsburg-Cincinnati game of April 23, erased from the records and played over. John Heydler, acting president of the National league, considers the incident closed in view of Manager Clarke's explanation, which is made the form of a letter. Mr. Heydler wrote the Pittsburg club.

FITZHERBERT WON

New York, June 24—Fitzherbert, the sturdy three-year-old son of Ethelbert-Morganatic, easily won the Suburban Handicap today from a field of six starters, one of the smallest that has ever contested for the honors of the classic event of the American turf.

Bearing the colors of Sam Hildreth, the sleek brown horse, with Eddie Dugan up, went the distance of a mile and a quarter in 2:03.25, which is only 25 of a second slower than the record for the event, hung up by that steeplechase horse Ballot. The four-year-old Alfred Noble was second, finishing six lengths behind the winner, and Fayette, a smart three-year-old, was third.

Fitzherbert and the four-year-old Restgouche were coupled in the betting and were favorites for the race at 4 to 5. Hildreth declared to win with Restigouche but the son of Commando could not stand the strain and stopped at the mile. Fitzherbert then came on and won by himself. A scant 10,000 per sons journeyed to the charming Sheepshead Bay track today to witness the twenty-sixth running of the Suburban. The racing path was burned dry and dusty by the sun and the track was in the best of shape for fast time. Before the call for boots and saddles, Arctic and Effendi were scratched.

"Redhead! Redhead! Redhead!"

"NO FISHING ALLOWED."

"Now, you can't fish here! Go get a bucket of water and make a pond for yer own!"

GAME CALLED ON ACCOUNT OF FOG

Three Innings Played in the Inter-Society League Last Night—St. Joseph's Led at Finish.

Only three innings were played in the game between the St. Joseph's and the Fairville A. O. H. teams in the Inter-Society League on the Shamrock grounds last evening. In that time, however, the St. Joseph's managed to accumulate ten runs to their opponent's one. At the end of the third inning the game was called on account of fog.

Quigg pitched for the Fairville boys. He had two strikes out, but allowed two many hits. His support was only fair. Barrett opened the game for the St. Joseph's and after forcing in the Fairville boys' only run, in the second inning, he was replaced by Donovan. The score was:

	AB.	R.	H.	PO.	A.	E.
St. Joseph's

A number of the directors were present, including A. O. Skinner, president; O. H. Warwick, vice-president; J. Harvey Brown, Mrs. Addie McLean and James Ready and J. V. Russell.

The exercises were held on the lawn, and the visitors greatly enjoyed the work of the pupils, which showed the results of hard study and careful training.

The principal, Joe Keating, delivered an interesting address upon the work of the school, and made a strong plea for more financial aid from the public.

Mr. Keating expressed the thanks of all connected with the institution to the ladies who donated gifts at Christmas, and to the donors of clothing and other articles during the year, with special thanks to Dr. G. C. Gordon and Dr. Wm. Warwick for gratuitous services rendered.

T. DRISCOLL FINED IN TWO BEER CASES

Mill Street Man Pleaded He Had Been a Grocer But the Court Ruled Against Him

In the police court yesterday afternoon Timothy Driscoll was found guilty on two charges of keeping his beer shop in Mill street after 5 o'clock on May 8 and June 19. He was fined $20 on each charge and put in jail for the first case and $30 or thirty days in jail for the second. Driscoll was one of the three beer sellers before the court some weeks ago on the same charge, when the case against Miles Carroll was the only one gone on with, Judge Ritchie finding him guilty and imposing a fine of $20. J. B. M. Baxter, who appeared for the defence, then, appealed but Judge Forbes upheld the judgment of the lower court. It was claimed in behalf of Carroll that, as he had laid in a stock of groceries he was therefore a bona fide grocer and entitled to keep his premises open during hours prohibited for beer shops.

The evidence in the case against Driscoll showed that he had dealt in groceries in conjunction with his beer business for twenty-four years. The defendant, however, would not swear that he had not told Inspector J. B. Jones on several occasions that if he was not allowed to keep open after 5 o'clock Saturday night's for the sale of beer he would be ruined.

J. A. Barry conducted the defence in the case and G. A. Henderson the prosecution. It was agreed to take up both cases.
