THIRTY-EIGHT ON HONOR ROLL OF EXMOUTH ST. METHODIST CHURCH
 Interesting Ceremony at Unveiling - Men Who Have Gone to the War

A most impressive service was held in Exmouth street Methodist church last night when a roll of honor of the members of the church who have called was unveiled before a large congregation. Special music was rendered by a large choir and Bayard Stillwell sang a solo. Just before the unveiling Ernest Thomas spoke a few words, saying that the church considered it an honor to recognize the action of the men who had answered the call of king and country and offered their lives in defence of the empire. Miss Nellie McKee, whose brother is fighting in the trenches in France, then unveiled the roll while the choir sang "God of Our Fathers at Whose Call" as a prayer "for Britain's cause on land and sea."
 The pastor, Rev. W. G. Lane, presided from the east. He read the names of the thirty-eight men who have gone to the war. The following are the names on the roll: Herbert E. Thomas, Chaplain, 40th; William E. Ross, Hollis G. Case, William H. Scott, John H. King, Frank L. Ross, Frank W. Withers, W. Thomas, O. C. Withers, T. M. McKee, Frank W. Tennant, W. T. Russell, R. T. A. Moore, J. D. Glasgow, Harold Lindsay, Kenneth L. Blizard, Harry F. Tennant, Arthur Ingram, J. W. McIntyre, Fenwick A. Tait, Stanley B. Chambers, H. B. Manning, Harold C. James, George J. Gale, William King, Clifford H. Bradley, Percy W. Lawson, John Yarnon, I. C. Canty, Lloyd A. Drew, Harry McDonald, Albert Drake, George Drake, Samuel Withers, William A. Conroy, Orlie Miller, Charles F. Ferguson, Leonard Ingram.

LETTER FROM MISS MCKIEL
 Nurse's Grateful Acknowledgment of $75 from Ludlow Street Church Sunshine Class

The following from Miss Theodora McKiel, nursing sister, is in reply to a letter enclosing $75 from the Sunshine Class of Ludlow street Baptist church, the result of a tea and sale held:
 No. 2 Canadian General Hospital, B. E. Forces, France, Nov. 4.
 My Dear Mrs. Price:
 Your letter with the enclosed money order for $75 came yesterday and thank you so much for your generous help for our poor sick boys. It touches us very much at times that we don't get more of our Canadian boys, but of course we have to take what the country brings us. I keep informed of all the Canadians that come here so that they get all the extra that we can treat. We have been very busy, but now as it is quiet at the front work is light here. We are busy in another way getting settled in our new winter quarters both in our wards and own quarters will be very comfortable and will be able to meet any demand that will be put upon us. Again thanking you and the Sunshine Class for your handsome sum. It will bring joy and comfort to many poor sick boys and it makes me happy to think I am able to do it for them. The ones at home have done wonders for the Red Cross, etc., which is as good work as one is doing here. Should any of your boys come here will notify you at once.
 Yours sincerely,
 N. SISTER THEODORA MCKIEL

SATURDAY NIGHT'S MEETING
 The recruiting meeting at the Mill street rooms on Saturday evening was made interesting as usual by several young men who went upstairs to be examined by Dr. Loggie. A larger percentage than usual failed to pass, but they wanted to enlist, and so deserved the hearty cheers given them.
 Hugh H. McLellan, chairman of the East End recruiting committee, has charge of the meeting. D. Arnold Fox played the piano as the room was filling up, and Robert Carson delighted the audience with a song. Mr. Nuttal, who has two sons at the front, also sang.
 E. A. Smith was the chief speaker and set forth in a clear and convincing manner the reasons why young Canadians should enlist. Mr. Hayes and A. M. Belding also gave brief addresses.

MILTON POWERS OF 26TH IS PROMOTED
 Mrs. J. M. Powers of Dorchester street received a letter from her son, Milton, stating he had been promoted to the rank of corporal of the transport section of the 26th Battalion. His many friends will be pleased to hear this.
 Before enlisting with the 26th, young Powers was employed with the Western Union Telegraph Company of this city.

CIRCUIT COURT
 The adjourned circuit court will meet tomorrow morning at eleven o'clock, when the grand jury will be required to be present to hear and determine the necessity of a trial in other criminal cases. The special jury in the case of E. S. Carter vs. the St. John Standard Limited, is required to be present at twelve o'clock noon; and the petit jury on Wednesday morning at ten o'clock.

"I Have Such a Lovely Bargain"
 Women like to compare notes and when one gets a "lovely bargain" she naturally exults. Women are trained buyers. They take delight in shopping. They do not all seek "cut prices" or great reductions but they do want a full money's worth. Women are natural newspaper readers—and very close readers of newspaper advertising. They find it both pleasant and profitable. It is almost as much fun shopping round through the newspaper columns as it is visiting the stores. And the newspaper shopping can be done at one's own leisure.

FIRST AID MEN WANTED
 Dr. Skinner, in receiving applications from those desirous of securing the important position offered by the St. John Ambulance Association to several men who possess certificates in first aid to the injured and are capable of instructing the soldiers of the Canadian Expeditionary Force in the principles. Successful candidates for this post are to be asked to join the Canadian Army Medical Corps (not overseas), will be paid and given the rank of sergeants in that unit. This is an excellent chance for a few competent men to "do their bit," and at the same time advance their own interests.

HIS FIRST TIME IN THE TRENCHES
 Member of the 6th C. M. Rifles Writes Home - Meets Other St. John Boys

A member of the 6th Mounted Rifles writes on Nov. 9, describing his first experience in the trenches. He says:—
 I have had my baptism of fire and we were under heavy artillery bombardment on Sunday afternoon. I went up and took my turn as sentry. It was something of a new experience to stand on watch facing the German trench with your head above the trench looking into the darkness, with every one else dead for the slightest sound in front of you. It is a favorite pastime for Fritz to steal up to the trenches and drop in a few bombs. I was warned to keep wide awake as it was a very foggy night and I was to be on my feet for a little while. Thank goodness I heard nothing very odd. Once I heard someone and prepared to fire, but it turned out to be our listening post coming in. They creep still to hear Fritz, but he perfectly safe. They are regularly relieved and come in at daylight. It is a job requiring nerve and common sense.
 I was filled with a new feeling up there and did not mind the guns. Something takes hold of you and you just yourself go. I was filled with a desire to see something stark and in the afternoon I was to have my desire satisfied. But strange to say it did not dampen my ardor a bit. I sat in the trench and we were making out, and their coming made one or two of the boys feel safer some way. One chap has another brother that he was very nervous. When you are looking over at night and hear the bullets singing past you, hear you are forced to admit that "war is hell." Coming out at night we were under fire and some kept slugging around us regularly. They have a very musical tune. I was sure I detected a bar or two of Tostie's Good Bye.
 I am pretty well, but the march to and from the trenches was pretty hard on the feet. We were up to our knees in mud at times and our clothes are in an awful state. My feet are badly blistered and my shoulders are very lame. My kit was on constantly for thirty hours. On account of the wet weather the dug-outs had caved in and we had to stay in the trench all the day and night. We had the water here in the trench and some is said to be poisoned. When we got back to camp our cooks had hot tea for us.
 We go in and out of the trenches after dark, leaving our belts in the afternoon and marching about in the night. A guide takes us through the communicating trenches to the firing line. I was proud to go in with the 6th C. M. Battalion. There are very few of the old boys of that unit left. Most of them were killed or wounded at Ypres and Flanders. They were in all the big battles and were cut up badly in their charges at Langemarck.
 I have met many St. John boys in the trenches. I met Ray Sheldon, who was in the 6th C. M. Battalion and was in St. John. His father and brother were both with him in the 18th—but are both wounded now. I met Claire Kenney of St. John.
 This soldier's writing of his regret that he cannot be as useful at the Christmas tree with certain little folks as in years past, for this was his first Christmas away from home in all his young life. He is one of the very many Canadian lads who will live in the thoughts of those at home on Christmas Day.

LETTERS OF CHEER TO SOLDIERS IN HOSPITAL
 A Good Work That is Being Done by Women's Canadian Club

Among the various other patriotic activities of the Women's Canadian Club is the work of a branch known as the Wounded New Brunswick Soldiers. The members of this branch keep busy sending to boys in hospital, letters of cheer, and they have received many appreciative replies. The names are taken from the casualty lists and letters sent.
 In some cases it is necessary to write the next of kin for particulars and this was done recently in the case of the wounded Pte. Etienne, reported wounded with the 26th Battalion. The reply from his mother, Mrs. Victor Poirier of Belmond, and his mother brother Pte. Athanare in the same unit. I am glad to say he is safe so far. My boy who has been wounded, has been admitted to the Canadian General Hospital, Etaples. His regimental number is 96,798 and I thank you very heartily for your kindly interest in him.

IN HIS 91ST YEAR
 At Cumberland Bay, Queens county, N. B., on Nov. 24th Deacon Enoch MacLean passed away in the 91st year of his age. He was the last of a family of fifteen and a life-long resident of Queens county. He was among the pioneer members of the Baptist church and became deacon some fifteen years ago and that office he held until death. He was everywhere known for his uprightness and integrity. His wife died five years ago. Rev. Mr. Hopkins conducted the services at the funeral, which was attended by a large number, many coming from a long distance to show their respect to one whose long life closed without a stain. Five children survive: Llewellyn, of 112 Victoria street; Enoch, of 78 Victoria street; Mrs. George Larkin, of 40 Main street; Mrs. Alfred Kilpatrick, of Edmonton, Alberta, and John, at home.

Removal Sale Prices Through The Store
 NOV. 29, '15.
 Friday and Saturday, the opening days of our Removal Sale, we did a record-breaking clothing business. Time and time again the crowds were so great that we were unable to serve them and that in spite of the fact that our sales force had been added to. All former November records were broken, and all signs point to greater business this week.
 In our first announcement of this sale we gave you our reasons for same—how that we expected to occupy our new building January first next, and to save expenses of moving we have asked you, the public, to move the stock for us, by making immense and appealing reductions from our regular prices.
 You cannot afford to miss this extraordinary event, and you who have been here will do your out-of-town friends a service for which they will sincerely thank you if you will write or telegraph them to come.
It Will Be a Busy Week—Come Early
