RUB ON NERVILINE

You'll be astonished at the rapid pain relieving action of "Nerviline." Its effectiveness is due to its remarkable penetrating power—it strikes deeply, sinks to the very core of the trouble.
"Nerviline" is stronger, many times stronger, than ordinary liniments, and it's not greasy, ill-smelling or disreputable. Every drop rubs in, bringing comfort and healing wherever applied.
You would scarcely believe how it will relieve a sprain, how it takes out luncheon, how it soothes and eases a bruise.

Thousands say no liniment is half as useful in the home. This must be so, because Nerviline is a safe remedy—you can rub it on even a child with fine results.
Just you keep Nerviline on hand—it's a panacea for the aches, pains and slight ill of the whole family. One bottle will keep the doctor's bill small, and can be depended on to cure rheumatism, neuralgia, lumbago, sciatica, toothache, pleurisy, strains or swelling. Wherever there is a pain rub on Nerviline; it will always cure.
The large 50c family size bottle is the most economical; trial size 25c. Sold everywhere by dealers, or direct from the Catarthozone Co., Kingston, Canada.

Private Tommy Sims had had pneumonia, and had been for some time in the hospital, where they treated him so well that he was much better, and was about to be discharged as "cured." One day the doctor was taking his temperature and while Tommy had the thermometer in his mouth the doctor moved on and happened to turn his back. Tommy saw his chance. He pulled the thermometer out of his mouth and popped it into a cup of hot tea, replacing it at the first sign of the doctor's turning.
When that worthy examined the thermometer he looked first at Tommy and then back at the thermometer and gasped:
"Well, my man, you're not dead, but you ought to be."

"Do you know anything about the language of flowers?"

"Only this much: A box of roses tells a heap louder to a girl than a 50-cent bunch of carnations."

get past.

Farmer—That's cause his horse was eatin' my hay. No danger o' yew eat-in' it, I reckon.
