WILL LIKELY BUILD TUG IN ENGLAND

Capt. Thos. Clarke Returns After Trip Across in Interest of Wm. Thomson & Co.

Captain Thomas Clarke, of the tug Neptune, who went to England some weeks ago in the interest of Messrs. William Thomson & Co., to purchase a tug for towing in the harbor, returned home on Saturday night from Liverpool.

The captain says he had a fine trip, and was in many parts of England, Ireland and Scotland. He looked over many tug boats but could not come to terms with the owners on price, and instead a contract was about closed to build a new tug in England.

CAPT. S. W. DICK DIED ON SUNDAY IN ALBERTA HOME

The death of Capt. S. W. Dick occurred at High River, Alberta, on Sunday, June 12, after a month's illness. He was sixty-eight years of age, and had lived for the greater part of his life in Macarone, St. George.

He removed to the west about five years ago and had done well there. Captain Dick was in the employ of Wm. Thomson & Co. for about forty years. He is survived by six children—four daughters and two sons.

UNDOUBTEDLY THE BABY WAS MURDERED

Coroner Berryman to Empanel Jury Tonight—Same Men May Sit in Carberry Inquest—Inquiry Into Mrs. Hooper's Death

Coroner D. E. Berryman will tonight empanel a jury to investigate the death of the baby whose wounded dead body was found on Courtenay Bay flats on Saturday morning.

It is feared that there was a large hole at the end of the breast bone, and there were marks on the neck where violence had been done the child, presumably by bringing about its death.

There has been about a story to the effect that a woman was seen in the vicinity a short time before the baby was found. It was said today that it was possible that this woman had been passing, and had seen the little one and hurried away in fear.

It is possible that the same jury will sit in the inquiry into the death of Frank Carberry, who was crushed to death on Saturday in the accident in King street east. The jury being empanelled tonight will probably view the bodies at once and adjourn to a date to be agreed upon.

ALEXANDER PAYS DEARLY FOR HIS FUN

$40 Fine or Six Months in Jail, Major Portion for Fighting a Policeman—Other Cases

Murray Alexander paid dearly this morning in the police court for a little fuss which he had on Saturday evening in Brussels street with policeman Hughes, for it cost him $40 or six months jail, $22 or four months for resisting the police and $8 or two months for feigning drunk or being drunk.

Hughes said that Alexander and Joseph O'Brien with two others named Mackin and McCauland, were acting disorderly in Brussels street a little after six o'clock. O'Brien, he said, was drunk but Alexander, while perhaps only feigning to be so, was acting in a manner which warranted his arrest.

O'Brien admitted having been drunk and was fined $8 or two months jail. Similar penalties were imposed on William Chittick, Archibald Smith and John Speight on the charge of drunkenness.

George Martin and Frank Hopper, each charged with drunkenness, were remanded. This was stated to be Hopper's fifth appearance before court since January.

SELLING LIQUOR TO AN INTERDICT IS CHARGE MADE

Complaint Against Richard Caples—The Case is Being Defended

In the police court this morning Richard Caples pleaded not guilty to a charge of selling liquor to Arthur Belyea an interdict, in his licensed premises in Brussels street on May 23. He said that all Belyea had got was ginger beer, and while Inspector Jones, who made the report, said that he had served Caples with two notices telling him of the placing of Belyea on the list they differed from each other, the witness said, in that the first read 'tanner', while the second described him as 'seaman'.

In order to get another witness the case was postponed until 10.30 a. m. tomorrow. Inspector Jones said that he served Caples on May 9 and also on May 30, with notice that Belyea's name had been placed on the interdict list.

Frank L. Peters, of the firm of C. H. Peters Co. Ltd., gave evidence that Belyea had for nearly twenty-five years been employed with the company. He had drunk liquor to such an excess that the witness had to dismiss him, although he regretted it, as Belyea was a good workman, and had often expressed a desire to stop drinking, knowing what bad effects it would do.

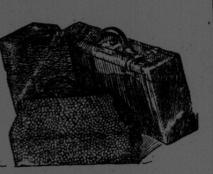

Mr. Peters lately reinstated him in his employ after having him placed on the interdict list. Mr. Peters said he had seen the notice of May 9, referred to by the inspector, and it had read: 'Arthur Belyea, tanner.'

Belyea said he got liquor in Caples' saloon on May 23, the bartender serving it to him. The defendant was present at the time. On May 27 he was served with liquor by Caples himself. The witness said he did not know for sure that he had been on the list. Later the bartender told him.
