ASEPTO SOAP POWDER

sweetens the home

Is Your Home "Surgically Clean"?

It is the fact that both its soap and germicidal properties toward the same identical work that makes it so effective. The soap qualities of Asepto loosen and remove the accumulated uncleanness—the germicidal qualities sterilize the cleansed surfaces.

Do not let this idea, however, that Asepto is not only as a disinfectant, but also as a germicide, lead you to wash your hands with it. It is not a germicide, but a soap. It is not a disinfectant, but a soap. It is not a germicide, but a soap. It is not a disinfectant, but a soap.

Ordinarily the application of disinfectants requires considerable work. When Asepto is used, it enables one to carry on a complete course of sterilization ALL THE TIME without any additional work—both cleans the home and KEEPS it clean.

Yet Asepto is more than merely an antiseptic—more than a germicide. It is also a soap powder—as good as the best soap on the market.

THE PRIZE FIGHTER vs. THE BOY SCOUT

(New York American.)

What a wholesome contrast and antidote to the brutal game of prize fighting is the noble movement of the American Boy Scout!

Law and order, love of country, love of honor, love of fellow men, the honor of women, fidelity to trust, helpfulness, courage, quickness to see an opportunity to cure—these are the superb moral qualities which are by organized plan and effort being instilled into a magnificent body of American youth.

When William R. Hearst put himself and his newspapers behind this movement two months ago it was a name only—a good name, but nothing more. It has grown beyond all expectation.

Today seventy-five thousand young Americans have taken the noble oath of the American Knights, and are breathing the inspiring air of a noble and militant boyhood that must inevitably and inevitably lead to a noble and useful citizenship.

From New York to Galveston, from Atlanta to Los Angeles, this admirable movement for the superstructure of a greater and better state.

It is worse than unfortunate—it is criminal—that a great, hopeful body of American boys like these—training for brave and useful manhood—should have their splendid civic ideals shattered and demoralized by the spectacle of two highly trained human animals, brutish and bloody, and disgracing each other with their fists, under the sanction and indorsement of the law in this country, to which they are being pledged for service so much higher and nobler.

And how much subtler and more far-reaching is the danger of perpetuating this degrading spectacle in actual pictures that are to be seen for a shilling by every boy in the land!

The brutal demoralization of prize fighting and of prize fighting pictures should be suppressed for the sake of these seventy-five thousand boys alone—and for the sake of the five hundred thousand splendid boys who are to reinforce them.

While one half of our people are seeking with noble energy to inspire American youth and to rebuild the glories of the American state, shall the other half be permitted by truckling laws and time-serving subsidies to tear down the ideals of decency and dignity and humanity upon which the foundation rests?

In the great fight which these Hearst newspapers are waging for fundamental law and order in this country there is no greater and more strategic point than the Boy Scout movement.

It ranges even with the battle lines for honest ballots for clean government, for equal laws and for the rebuke of corporate greed.

It is worse than unfortunate and shamed by the prize ring and the prize film.

The appeal lies clear to put this iniquity of all its forms under the ban of the law, and to stand clear for the wholesome and noble boyhood of today that must make a noble and useful manhood of tomorrow.

EVANGELIST KNIGHT ON THE SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON FOR AUGUST 7

August 7, Matt. 19, 1, 9, 13, 35.

"They brought little children that He should lay His hands upon them and pray and the disciples rebuked them, but Jesus said suffer the little children and forbid them not to come unto Me, for of such is the kingdom of heaven."

What a charming personality—what strong personal magnetism belonged to Him who was the living embodiment of love! The mothers and even the children were irresistibly drawn to Him. Had He resembled the caricatures that adorn our walls they would have fled from Him.

Jesus was pre-eminently a woman's man. When He beheld everywhere and in all ages savage and evening manhood, black, white, red, yellow, or brown tyrannizing over and oppressing the weaker sex, making her his servant, imposing on her his share of the curse in addition to her own of weakness and suffering. He extended to her that sympathetic hand of His and raised her up to the position of queen of the home, placing upon her brow the crowning glory of womanhood, the love of a true-born man.

"He believed in woman's rights, for He gave her the right to rule the world—the hand that rocks the cradle rules the world." To the mother He conferred infinite power to mould the future destiny of nations.

Who is responsible for political graft if not the mothers who bribe the politicians of the future with all day suckers to get them to perform the most obvious duties? Who but the mothers are responsible for the lack of true patriots and philanthropists? When hopes of future greatness are held up before the children as a stimulus to industry and effort as though self-glorification and self-gratification were the chief aim of man.

If not the mothers, who are responsible for anarchy and rebellion? The world is ruled born in the nursery dominated by a despot who extorts obedience at the point of the bayonet and the sacrifice of love, of patience, and reason?

First we, as Christian mothers, rise to the dignity of the mission of motherhood and become emancipated from the petty trifles and vanities that go to make up the life of most of us and make the business of our lives in a sweet and winning way to lead our boys and girls one by one to Jesus Christ, the King of the world in this generation, then may we confidently expect the statements of the future that "righteousness which exalteth a nation."

The mission of motherhood is to bring the little ones into touch with Christ that they may know by blessed experience the healing touch of forgiveness, the sympathetic touch of love realized, the purifying touch of power transmitted, the finishing touch of grace.

"But the disciples said, Send them away." The disciples were saved, but still clinging to many of the Jewish prejudices. The daily prayer of the Jew included an expression of thanksgiving to God that he had not been born a woman.

The Jewish wife was not permitted to sit by her husband or boys in the synagogue, nor to share a meal at the same table. It was degrading for a man, much less for a Rabbi, to be surrounded by a pack of women and children. Breach through all conventionalities He utters the surprising exclamation: "Suffer little children and forbid them not to come unto Me for to such belongeth the kingdom of heaven."

Neither! Teachers! are these words prophetic?

And behold one came to Him and said, Teacher, what good thing shall I do that I may have eternal life? He said, Why dost thou ask me concerning that which is the gift of God? For what wilt thou enter into life? If thou wilt, sell all that thou hast and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven, and come and follow Me, and thou shalt have life everlasting. All these things have I observed; what yet lack I? Jesus said, If thou wilt, sell all that thou hast and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven, and come and follow Me, and thou shalt have life everlasting.

Who is the John D. Rockefeller, Jr. of the year 30 A. D. a capitalist of no mean degree, seated in the Den Wyman of the day. Not only so, but Luke shows us that his social position was good, high principles, a high character, and of his nature, his amiability, intense earnestness, high aspirations and benevolence made him one of the greatest benefactors of his race. What a splendid example he is to us! He was a man who, after all the great things he had done, still felt that he was not doing enough. He was a man who, after all the great things he had done, still felt that he was not doing enough.

What a splendid example he is to us! He was a man who, after all the great things he had done, still felt that he was not doing enough.

Jesus always sends the self-confident to the cross. He sends the self-confident to the cross. He sends the self-confident to the cross. He sends the self-confident to the cross.

"WILLINGLY GIVE THIS TESTIMONIAL

In Favor of "FRUIT-A-TIVES" FOR THE BENEFIT OF OTHER SUFFERERS"

Spoken like a man! Mr. Paul Jones is proud to acknowledge the great debt he owes to this wonderful fruit medicine. He wants every sufferer in Canada to know what "Fruit-a-tives" did for him. His reward comes in the gratitude of those who take his advice, use "Fruit-a-tives," and cure themselves.

Sarnia, Ont., Feb. 25, 1910.

"I have been a sufferer for the past 25 years with Constipation, Indigestion and Catarrh of the Stomach. I tried many remedies and many doctors, but derived no benefit whatever. Finally, I read an advertisement of 'Fruit-a-tives' in which Mr. John Costigan stated that he had been cured by 'Fruit-a-tives'. I have now taken them for some time and find they are the only remedy that does me good. I have recommended 'Fruit-a-tives' to a great many of my friends and I cannot praise these fruit tablets highly, as they have done me good."

I claim "Fruit-a-tives" are invaluable in every respect, and I willingly give this testimonial for the benefit of other sufferers."

PAUL J. JONES.

Mr. Jones is familiarly known all over the district of Sarnia. He was in business here for 25 years and is now enjoying the fruits of a long and successful mercantile career. Every reader of this paper is at liberty to write Mr. Jones and find out for themselves that the above letter is genuine and was written by "Fruit-a-tives" voluntarily and solely with the idea of helping the sick.

The financial and social standing of those who have written letters in favor of "Fruit-a-tives" is the best guarantee that this famous fruit medicine is all that is claimed for it.

"Fruit-a-tives" are not only true liver stimulating, but are also capable of emptying the bowels naturally. Salts of every kind, and cheap purgative pills have no action on the liver. They do not increase the secretion of bile by the liver, but their action is entirely due to irritating the delicate lining of the bowels. "Fruit-a-tives" alone—can and will positively cure Constipation, Biliousness and Torpid Liver. In the case of Mr. Jones, the long standing Constipation had affected his digestion, causing catarrh of the stomach. As his bowels became more regular, the digestion improved. When the Constipation was cured the Indigestion, which was caused by the Constipation, was cured also.

"Fruit-a-tives" has proved its value and has made its way solely on merit. "Fruit-a-tives" is probably the best known, and most highly appreciated medicine in Canada. The sales of "Fruit-a-tives" are enormous and are increasing every day. The people realize that at last they have one remedy that will positively do all that is claimed for it—and they show their appreciation of this honest, reliable fruit medicine by using it themselves and recommending it to their friends.

"Fruit-a-tives" is one of the few medicines that may be taken day after day with only benefit to the health. If necessary, "Fruit-a-tives" could be taken for twenty years, because it contains only fruit juices and some—nature's natural remedies for all Stomach, Liver, Bowel, Kidney and Skin Troubles. "Fruit-a-tives" is especially suited to women and children because of the pleasant taste and mild, gentle action of the fruit tablets.

If you are suffering as Mr. Jones did, take his advice and try "Fruit-a-tives." 50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, or trial box, 25c. At all dealers or sent, postpaid, on receipt on price by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

LABOR MINISTER KING'S RECORD OF ACHIEVEMENT

Boston Journal Has Interesting Review of the Canadian Minister's Career

(Boston Journal.)

The whole life of William Lyon Mackenzie King is a record of achievement, and although he is not yet 38 years of age, they have placed him in the office of minister of labor. But one must live in Ottawa to appreciate the meaning of that, for there such terms are breathed with bated breath.

Mackenzie King graduated from the University of Toronto at the age of 22, with the degree of B.A. Then for a time he was engaged in newspaper work, following which he secured his degree of LL. B. Later he obtained a political science scholarship in Chicago University, and then went to Hull House, where he undertook the study of the labor problem. In 1907 he obtained a fellowship in Harvard, where he remained for two years, and then put in two years studying labor conditions abroad.

Prior to this, however, he had conducted some sociological investigation in Toronto that had brought him prominently to the attention of Sir Wilfrid Mulock, the postmaster general of the Dominion. He discovered that a sweet-

THE AUTO ON THE MIRAMICHI

Sheep Climbs on Board One Machine—Dog Had Death Under Wheels of Another

M. S. Stewart with Mr. Anthony Adams as a guest, drove his new auto from Chatham to Richibucto, on Tuesday, in two and a half hours. A frightened sheep jumped into the back seat on the way. The return trip, in the rain, was unpleasant and dangerous, as the wheels skidded on the muddy roads.

The ordinary everyday dog spends a large part of his time in running after horses, barking indignantly, then, seeing how near he has got to a horse and driver without being "kicked" again, jumps over, or out with a whip, and keeps just beyond the danger line in marvellous. But, now and then, a driver or they underestimate the speed of the horse and carriage, and he sometimes gets fooled by a motor car. Capt. Moir's dog went out against one of them Monday night, and got caught under a wheel. His experience will be of no use to him or his race, however, as he died suddenly. Dogs should be taught to stay at home and not run after and bark at passers-by. (Chatham World.)
