ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS

By Olive Roberts Barlow

"A TRIP TO SOUTH AMERICA."

"What a beautiful flower!" exclaimed Nancy. "Oh, yes, yes!" cried the Twins. "May we go on another adventure?" "Of course," answered the fairy. "Johnny Jump Up, please call Tommy Titmouse. Where is he?" "I'm here," said Tommy sleepily. "Do we have to go far?" "To South America," said the fairy. "For that is where orchids grow! I've brought the tickets." "Jimmy Christmas!" said Tommy. "That must be a million miles away." "Not quite," said the fairy, "but it's

"TIZ" FOR TIRED, PUFFED-UP FEET

The minute you put your feet in a "TIZ" bath you feel pain being drawn out and comfort just soaking in. How good your tired, swollen, burning feet feel. "TIZ" instantly draws out the poisonous exudations that puff up your feet and cause sore, inflamed, sweaty feet.

far enough, so you'd better be starting. The Fairy Queen sent me to tell you all to have a good time and not to miss anything."

"We won't!" cried the Twins.

"We won't!" cried Johnny Jump Up.

all three hopping onto Tommy Titmouse's back and flying away.

Pretty soon they came to South America.

"Now I'll show you where several kind of orchids grow," said Johnny

Jump Up.

Tommy settled down on a great tree covered with Spanish moss and hanging vines. And there, growing right out of the trunk of the tree, was an orchid exactly like the one they had seen in the magic garden.

"It looks as though the flower was a blossom of the tree," said Johnny Jump Up. "But it isn't. It has a root of its own, only the root, instead of growing in the ground, digs down into a soft place in the tree and grows there."

"That's funny!" laughed the Twins.

Suddenly something went chip, chip, chatter, chatter, and looking around, they saw a monkey swinging by his tail.

"Hello!" laughed Nick. "Do monkeys grow on trees in South America, too?"

"Pretty nearly," nodded Johnny Jump Up. "There are so many monkeys in the woods along this river you would almost think there wasn't another thing in the world but monkeys."

"Oh, look! Look! Look!" exclaimed

Nancy.

But nobody needed to be told, for they could see without looking. Hundreds of monkeys had gathered around them staring and chattering and swinging by their tails and arms, upside down and upside up and every-which way. Screaming, climbing, jumping and carrying on so you couldn't hear your own ears.

"I guess I'll be going," said Tommy Titmouse nervously.

"Hello," called a hoarse voice from a tree next to theirs. "I didn't know company had come."

It was a very large parrot with a dozen colors and a marvelous tail.

THE OLD HOME TOWN

By STANLEY

A TIP FOR THE BALL FANS.

An accident occurred at the ball game at the East End grounds last evening which might have been prevented. Several car owners who attend the games are in the habit of parking their cars in the rear of the grandstand. A foul ball flew over the grandstand last night and smashed the windshield in a car bearing a N. B. with the rear towards the stand some-tag No. 18128. If the owner had only body would have been saved the price faced his automobile the other way, of a new windshield.

MORE CHILDREN RECEIVE TREAT

J. D. O'Connell, the Cuban sugar magnate, staged another picnic yesterday afternoon at the Allison playground for about 500 children, who quickly assembled on short notice to have a share of the good things he provided. "In his excitement, Mr. O'Connell threw quarters instead of new pen-ies in the scramble. He dispensed together in silver and coppers more than $18 to the children. The railway men, who were shunting on the track near the grounds, came in for some of the treat, getting oranges, peanuts, candy and ice cream in cones.

Miss Eugenia Kelly, supervisor; Miss

Geraldine Wilson, play leader, and Morris Fowler, male assistant, were very successful in keeping order. Miss Emma L. Heffer, general superintendent of the Playgrounds Association; Mrs.

A. C. D. Wilson and Mrs. M. H. B.

Good, members, and Sergeant Spinney also assisted. Others who helped to serve ice cream and other good things were Mrs. J. J. Lee and her daughter, Miss M. Winifred Lee, Mrs. John

Power, Miss Gertrude Shea and Miss

Alice Dillon. The children reluctantly left for home at 5 o'clock. As no word was received from the Wiggins' orphans, Mr. O'Connell said last evening that he would go to Morrisville today without fail to carry his treat to the boys there.

SO WEAK COULD HARDLY STAND

Tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's

Vegetable Compound

Restored Her Health

River Desert, Que.--"I used to have a severe pain in my side. I would be unable to walk fast and could not stand for any length of time to do my ironing or washing, but I would have to lie down to get relief from the pain. I had this for about two years, then a friend told me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as she had had good results. I certainly got good results from it, too, as the last time I had a sore side was last May and I have not had it since. I am also glad of having good nursing for my baby, and I think it is your medicine that helped me in this way."--Mrs. L. V. BUDGE, River Desert, Quebec.

If you are suffering from the tortures of a displacement, irregularities, back ache, headaches, nervousness, or a pain
