Rev. D. W. Falconer, D. D., gave a very interesting illustrated lecture last night in St. Andrew's church, on the subject of "The Women's Missionary Society." His subject was the Bay of Naples and the surrounding country. Rev. Anderson Rogers presided. Mrs. Thomas Gray sang a solo accompanied by Mrs. Leslie Peters. A vote of thanks to the speaker was moved by Mrs. John H. Thomson and seconded by Miss Homer.

The new dental clinic was opened at the Health Centre yesterday afternoon and six young patients were treated. Dr. James Magee and Dr. W. P. Brodick were in charge and Mrs. J. T. Magee was assisting nurse. The generosity of the dentists in giving their services free is greatly appreciated by the public. Each member of the dental association will take his turn.
