Friends Afar

For many seasons we have reached the advisability of ordering Christmas Cards at the earliest possible moment.

This year conditions are even more urgent still—manufacturing conditions render it almost impossible for us to replace "sold out" numbers in the month of December.

Please send us your orders for Personal Greeting Cards as early as you conveniently can—we now have a particularly fine selection which is bound to be depleted in the last few weeks prior to Christmas.

Write to us today for specimens; we will reply by return.

Our lists are nearly completed for our new Year Book—have we your name?

Why OXO Cubes sell by the Million; as told by people who use them:—

"Being a constant user of OXO Cubes, I send you some recipes. . . . Now that food is so dear I make many dinners without it with the help of OXO Cubes. Some of my friends also use OXO Cubes and find them very convenient."

"OXO Cubes are too well known to need any recommendation; besides being quickly and easily made, OXO is very refreshing, strengthening and appetizing."

"My friends ask me what I feed my little girl on, and I tell them OXO. I am convinced that it is OXO Cubes she gets on so well with."

"We have found OXO Cubes a distinct saving. There was never a time when they could be used more than now, seeing the high prices of other foods."

Thought Her Drunk; She Dies in Cell

Ottawa Police Stirred by Death of Women Arrested on Street Car

Ottawa, Nov. 19.—Mrs. Sarah Maria Shipman died in a local hospital Saturday afternoon and her death is the cause of a considerable stir among the police force and civic officials. Deceased was taken from a street car in the Albert street car barns on Friday in a helpless condition, and the police sergeant in charge diagnosed her case as drunkenness, allowing her to remain in a cell overnight. The sergeant who came on duty next morning, however, at once saw that the woman was suffering from a stroke and ordered her removal to a hospital.

No effort was made by the police to identify the woman, who is prominent in church circles, until the inspector of detectives asked the under officials at the station in regard to identification. Her name and address were contained in a muff which had been left in the hands of the police, and relatives were immediately notified. No explanation is forthcoming from the police as to why efforts were not made to identify Mrs. Shipman, as is the law when a prisoner is registered.

An investigation is to be held, following an inquest.

A CRUEL ACT.

London, Eng., Nov. 20.—For stringing a terrier by the neck from the ceiling of a shed with its hind legs just touching the ground, so that the slightest movement caused the animal to swing like a pendulum, Thomas Cook was fined $8.75. His plea was that he had the dog strung up to frighten rats.

$5,000 FOR SPIRIT GOLD.

Paterson, N. J., Nov. 20.—Frederick Loehrs, pastor of the Congregation for the Enlightenment of the Soul and Spirit, probably will never again give his note for $5,000 toward purchase of buried treasure on a New Jersey farm. He testified in court here he had been "ingested into" giving his note for an Oakland tract after he had been interested in a dream, in which a colored woman appeared and explained that more than $2,000,000 worth of jewelry and gold lay buried there.

Mr. Loehrs took the witness stand in a suit brought against him by Daniel Balsinger, who sought to recover on the clergyman's note. He testified Mr. Balsinger was the man who had the dream and told it to him.

Mr. Loehrs, Mrs. Sophia Sautter-treasurer of the congregation, and Mrs. Marie Blumer, secretary, co-defendants with the pastor, all dug on the treasure farm. Mr. Loehrs said, without finding even a sliver.

CHURCH OF U. S. HUT.

Paris, Nov. 19.—The village of Cantigny, France, where the American troops won their first success, is to have a new church, part of which will be formed of an American hut used as a Red Cross canteen.

THE UGLIEST WOMAN.

New York, Nov. 20.—Thirty case-hardened theatrical men in London have handed the palm to a Miss Leyton as the ugliest woman in England, bar none. She was selected for a part in a theatrical production, in which the manager wishes a contrast to the girl in the piece, who he says is the fairest of all the fair in the world. There were eight candidates for the job, chosen from a host of applicants in strength of their photographs.

When the first candidate passed in review the jury, the thirty received such a shock that they wanted to award her the palm on the spot which caused her to smile. As her face crinkled up, Arr-old Bierre, the American magician, exclaimed in agony: "Don't, I've got a weak heart." However, when Miss Leyton came before them the first candidate was a striking beauty by comparison. "You win," said de Bierre, with emotion, "you get the job and the title."

$14,000 FOR SPIRIT AID.

St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 20.—Joseph Pelinski, fifty-nine years old, was found guilty in Alton on a charge of operating a confidence game in connection with the swindling of Weert Bauer, an East Alton farmer, who paid $14,000 for "spiritual aid" in finding a fortune in gold alleged to have been buried on his farm.

The jury fixed Pelinski's punishment at an indeterminate penitentiary term of from one to ten years, but sentence was deferred when his attorney filed a motion for a new trial. Pelinski's wife, Mrs. Augusta Pelinski, a Wellstrom fortune teller and their daughter, Mrs. Clara Fielder, are waiting trial on the same charge.

Bauer, following Pelinski's advice, watched for a number of years nightly for a red lantern to appear marking the spot where a chest of gold was buried.
