You have a bad cold!
The cold attacks the lungs and the breathing passages. To cure you need to get at these organs direct. Ordinary cough mixtures and syrups do not touch the lungs, but go direct to your stomach, which is not illing. Peps, on the contrary, go direct to the very seat of the trouble.
Peps are tablets containing essence and medicinal ingredients so prepared that when placed upon the tongue they immediately turn into vapor, and are breathed down the inflamed air passages to the lungs, direct.
Peps medicine takes the form of healing vapor, and cures colds, coughs, bronchitis and lung trouble, just as living in Pine woods and breathing Pine-trees air prevents consumption and cures chest weakness. Tightness across the chest, pain between the shoulders, hacking cough, sore throat, asthma and bronchitis are the ailments which, in particular, Peps have been designed to cure. Peps will soon rid your bad cold.
Testimonials for Peps have been given by members of the Canadian Parliament, doctors, lawyers, eminent Canadian musicians; all going to prove that Peps have been found a cure for throat and chest trouble, often when other remedies had entirely failed.
Peps medicine, in the form of a lozenge, and small tin, with 12 stamps (for use in the morning, noon and evening) in a tin, and we will send you a free trial box of Peps, 50c. box or 3 tin, Peps (four letters only) before buying.

PAYS TRIBUTE TO SOLDIER MEMBERS OF ST. PETER'S Y. M. A.
Roll of Honor For Members With Overseas Contingents Proposed at Anniversary Meeting of Organization
About two hundred members of St. Peter's Y. M. A. were assembled last night in their rooms in Douglas avenue to observe the sixteenth anniversary of the association an occasion which gave pleasure to all assembled, a brief address being carried out. B. J. McGovern, president of the association, occupied the chair, and gave an address of welcome to those present besides reviewing the history of the society during the years of its existence. The Y. M. A. orchestra under E. W. McBride gave an entertaining list of musical numbers.
The programme was: Address of welcome, D. J. McGovern; selection by St. Peter's orchestra; solo, Andrew Moore; selection, William O'Connor; solo, Frank McGerrigle; selection, orchestra, solo, Edward Hanson; trombone solo, S. McBride; violin solo, Manuel O'Neill; selection, orchestra, solo, Joseph McGerrigle, quartette, Messrs. Moore, McGerrigle, Hanson and O'Connor; tumbling act, Messrs. Babinet and Cormier; stop dance, Walter Harris; reading, Steve Hurley.
Father Borgmah's Address.
The spiritual director, Rev. J. H. Borgmann, C.S.S.R., was given a hearty reception as he delivered a brief address towards the close of the evening. He congratulated the members of the association upon having attained sixteen years of success and wished them many more years of prosperity. During the course of his remarks he touched upon the war, and spoke of the part that members of the Y. M. A. had taken in connection with it, eleven from the membership having gone overseas with the first Canadian contingent, Messrs. C. J. Morgan, lieutenant from the 62nd regiment, Joseph Dryden, Maurice Brown, Leo Paris, H. Brysen, B. McKeown, J. Lloyd, Louis and Thomas McMenamin, Cyril McDonald, and Leo Harrington, while another Arthur P. Mahoney had volunteered for the second contingent, and there were others as well.
"Undoubtedly," said Father Borgmann, "much has been accomplished by the Y. M. A. during the sixteen years of its career for the moral, social and intellectual benefit of the members. As a Catholic young men's society, St. Peter's ranks second to none, and in the mind the motto "My God, and My Country" they have shown themselves patriots in the truest sense of the word."
"I had the happiness last evening to listen to several patriotic addresses at the big public meeting held here, and I am sure that neither Demosithes nor Cleo in their stirring speeches, made a stronger impression on the youth of their countries than the speakers at last night's gathering."
"The force of the appeal of those speakers will be felt in the hearts of the young men of this city, and I am proud to say that St. Peter's Y. M. A. has already furnished several bright young men who have responded to the call of their Motherland. So anxious were they to enter the lists that an example of the spirit of all might be taken from the ranks of those who were told that perhaps he would not be taken because of his height.
"Why," he replied, "shouldn't I turn me down because of that, for I'm half an inch taller than the great Napoleon."
"I would suggest," continued Father Borgmann, "that the names of these young soldiers be inscribed in a decorated roll of honor in our library as a mark of respect and in recognition of their splendid spirit of patriotism, and as a memorial of the fact that the Y. M. A. is actuated both in public and in private by the lessons contained in the words My God, and My Country. Our prayer today will be that God in His infinite mercy may bring them back to us unscathed but with laurels nobly won in defense of our glorious empire."

"England Expects" is a Striking Feature and a Compelling Appeal For Recruits
One of the most brilliant patriotic spectacles witnessed in St. John for many days was the photo-drama "England Expects"—a forceful and stirring British war story of the present crisis. It was shown yesterday and will be shown again today at the Gem Theatre where on its first presentation it evoked most lively enthusiasm. It is a particularly stirring appeal for recruiting, and speaks almost directly to the men of the militia who for years have shone resplendent in the King's uniform. The story is of a man, son and grandson of fighting men, who, torn by conflicting emotions, hesitates to respond to the call of duty. He is a successful business man; he has a wife and children; he sees his brother leave for the front; one by one his clerks depart; and still he hesitates. His little ones he sees gathered about his grandfather's knee listening to him tell how he won his V. C. His wife appeals to him, but still he hesitates. What forces him to go? The answer is ably given and the active scenes of recruiting in England, reproduced in the Gem's splendid feature production.

Nine-tenths of all cases of stomach trouble nowadays are caused by too much acid. In the beginning the stomach itself is not diseased but if this condition is allowed to continue, the acid is very likely to eat into the stomach walls and produce stomach ulcers which may render a radical surgical operation necessary even to prolong life. Therefore, an "acid stomach" is really a dangerous condition and should be treated seriously. It is utterly useless to take pepsin and ordinary stomach tablets. The excess acid or stomach hyperacidity must be neutralized by the administration of an efficient antacid. For this purpose the best remedy is bisulphate of magnesia taken in teaspoonful doses in a fourth of a glass of water after each meal. Larger quantities may be used if necessary as it is absolutely harmless. Be sure to ask your druggist for the bisulphate of magnesia as other forms of magnesia make effective mouth washes but they have not the same action on the stomach as the bisulphate.

Conspicuous Nose Pores
How to reduce them
Complexions otherwise flawless are often ruined by conspicuous nose pores.
In such cases the small muscular fibres of the nose have become weakened and do not keep the pores closed as they should be. Instead these pores collect dirt, clog up, and become enlarged.
Begin tonight to use this treatment
Wring a cloth from very hot water, later it with Woodbury's Facial Soap, then hold it to your face. When the heat has expanded the pores, rub in very gently a fresh lather of Woodbury's. Repeat this hot water and lather application several times, stopping at once if your nose feels sensitive. Then finish by rubbing the nose for a few minutes with a lather of lard.
Woodbury's Facial Soap cleanses the pores. This treatment with it strengthens the muscular fibres of the nose pores so that they can contract properly. But do not expect to change in a week a condition resulting from years of neglect. Use this treatment persistently. It will gradually reduce the enlarged pores and cause them to contract until they are inconspicuous.
Woodbury's Facial Soap is the work of a skin specialist. It costs 25c a cake. No one hesitates at the price after their first cake.
Do this today—now! Tear out the illustration of the cake below and put it in your purse as a reminder to get Woodbury's and try this treatment. Tear out the cake now. Buy your facial soap today. Begin tonight to get the benefits of this facial soap.

YOUNG LIBERALS ELECT OFFICERS
Horace A. Porter Again President—Plans Discussed For Active Winter—To Hold Monthly Meetings
Members of the Young Liberals Club are planning a busy winter season and responded to the call of their annual meeting last night with an excellent indication of the strength and unity of the organization. Plans for the winter but it was felt that the district should become part of the city before anything could be done. Those present at the meeting were Mayor Frank Cameron, Hon. Wilmour, Commissioner Potts, W. F. Burditt and R. T. Hayes.

The plan for workmen's houses, as suggested by A. H. Likely was before the meeting of the Town Planning Commission of the city of St. John yesterday but it was felt that the district should become part of the city before anything could be done. Those present at the meeting were Mayor Frank Cameron, Hon. Wilmour, Commissioner Potts, W. F. Burditt and R. T. Hayes.
The officers elected were as follows:
President—Horace A. Porter.

The charm and individuality of the unadorned has been here exemplified to a pleasing degree by our Silversmiths. It's perfect plain, highly burnished effect gives it all that dignity which distinguishes it from the more ornate patterns. It is characterized by being of a particularly thin model, which adds considerable delicacy to its general appearance.
For those who prefer, Patricia pattern can be engraved with an Empire Wreath, the graceful lines of which serve but to make a contrast to the plain background. This is a very favorite pattern and one that cannot be anything other than in good taste.
